

THE EVENING NEWS REVIEW.

51TH YEAR. NO. 255.

EAST LIVERPOOL, O., TUESDAY, APRIL 10, 1900.

TWO CENTS

FIRE IN THE POSTOFFICE

Smoke Discovered Curling From
the Cellar Just Before Six
This Morning.

ALL THE MAILS ARE SAFE

And Being Received and Dispatched as Usual—Loss $2,000, and Possibly $2,500.

STARTED NEAR THE FURNACE.

A fire of mysterious origin occurred in the postoffice building shortly before 6 o'clock this morning, which resulted in a loss of about $2,000.
Further investigation may increase this amount to $2,500.

The fire started in the candy factory of Edward Hassey under the postoffice and about the furnace, when he was near the building he saw as can be ascertained there was no fire in the furnace, or any other part of the building with the exception of one gas jet, which was burning near the door leading to the Washington street entrance of the cellar.

The fire was discovered by Thomas B. Mackey at 5:50. He is the first to go to the office in the morning, and when he was near the building he saw some smoke come out of the cracks in the iron grating on Fourth street in front of the building. He went in the postoffice and tried to get down into the cellar, but failed. He ran to the central fire station to notify the department, but when he got there they were about to leave the building an alarm being turned in from box 22, at the corner of Fourth and Washington streets.

When the department arrived at the building it was filled with smoke, which made the fire a hard one to fight. Several lines of hose were played on the cellar, and the flames confined to that part of the building.
The floor in the postoffice about the first tier of lock boxes was destroyed, as were the call boxes and contents.
The large plate glass windows in the front of the building were badly damaged, as were 11 small panes of glass in the windows on Washington street.

The offices of the Potters' Protective association on the second floor were not damaged.

The building is owned by W. H.
Wells, who said this morning he could not place an estimate upon his loss.

All the loose mail in the office when the fire was discovered was saved. The mail from trains 341 and 342 were not opened, and the pouches with the other mails were taken to a place of safety.

Mr. Hassey said he could not tell his exact loss, although he judged it would amount to about $300, covered by insurance.

This morning Postmaster W. H.
Furles sent telegrams to division No.
3, of the postal department at Washing, and to Inspector A. P. Owen, at Canton, advising them of the loss.

The fire department deserve credit for their work. The East End department came down in response to the second alarm, and made the trip in 11 minutes.

Special Meeting.

The grocery clerks' union will hold a special meeting this evening and initiate several candidates.

MAHONING GIVES UP.

Youngstown Papers Tell Why There
Can Be No Congressman
From There.

Youngstown Vindicator.

Even those most bitterly opposed to the Hon. R. W. Tayler, member of congress from this district, must admit that he made a great run and that he has won a notable victory. The result makes futile any effort on the part of Mahoning for any of her favorite Republican sons, and even if it had gone otherwise in Molly Stark it is not likely that this county would have stood the ghost of a show, for there is no disposition among the local Republicans to unite upon any one man, a fact accountable for their frequent overthrows in the congressional conventions.

Youngstown Telegram.

Whatever congressional ambition several Mahoning county men have nurtured in silence for weeks past must now be laid on the shelf for at least two years. The only thing that Mahoning county can now do is to indorse Mr. Tayler with a whoop and instruct her 62 delegates to vote for him. Any Mahoning county man going into that convention as a candidate would be simply bumping his head against a stone wall. It was a lucky thing the local Republican committee held back the selection of Mahonings delegates until the last minute. Had this not been done some local political ambitions would have been badly punctured in the Alliance convention. As it is now, all is harmonious and quiescent, and Mr. Tayler will be re-nominated and re-elected. He will continue to make, as he has already made, a most painstaking and efficient congressman.

THE COUNTY COURTS.

Several Minor Matters Disposed of at Lisbon This Morning.

Lisbon, April 10.—(Special)—An-neta Lownsberry, of Lisbon, has sued Harrison Clapsaddle, also of Lisbon, to foreclose a mortgage of $1,000 on 68 22-100 acres in Center township.

The will of Susanna Hudson, late of Fairfield township, has been admitted to probate.

Martha McMillan is appointed guardian for Cora B. McMillan, a minor 12 years old, child of Robert A. McMillan, of Wayne township; bond, $800.

Emma M. Costin asks a judgment of $1,634.16 against Anna and Marion Fultz, and the foreclosure of a mortgage on 100 acres in West township.

Sheriff S. D. Noragon will take Mrs.
Noragon to Cleveland tomorrow morning to a specialist for rheumatism.

Marriage Licenses.

Louis E. Reno, Rochester, Pa., and Edna C. Grove, Salem.

Fred J. Curry, East Pittsburg, Pa., and Mary Wise, North Georgetown.

Pawnbrokers' Ordinance.

The pawnbrokers' ordinance will be placed on its final reading at council tonight, and upon council depends whether the city shall have a pawn-brokers' shop. It is estimated that the ordinance will not pass, but knowing ones say it will.

Bratt Is Home Again.

Joe Bratt is home again, having been turned loose by the county infirmity directors. They say Bratt is all right if people fail to give him liquor. Columbiana county now has 62 more than her quota of insane patients in the state hospitals.

APPOINTMENTS OF DAVIDSON

He Named the People He Wanted For His Policemen For
the Year.

COUNCIL CONFIRMED THEM

Grim, Whan and White, of the Present Force, Will Retire.

EX-SHERIFF GILL AN APPOINTEE

Mayor-elect Davidson, at the caucus held by council last night, presented his list of police appointments and everybody seemed very anxious that they would not get in the newspapers, so the newly-elected marshal, T. V.
Thompson, was sent out in the hallway, where the reporters were standing, and ordered them to go downstairs, stating that council now had very important business to transact, as the police appointments were coming up. The reporters of course went downstairs, but strange to say they succeeded in getting the list, and here they are:

Charles Gill.
C. H. Morris.
Clifford Dawson.
H. W. Aufderheide.
Michael Mahony.
Willis Davidson.

The list went through council without a hitch, and the appointees were confirmed without a word from any of the councilmen. President Peach made a speech in which he stated that the council wished to give the mayor every assistance in their power to make his administration a splendid one.

There are some surprises and disappointments among the list, but it is thought that Mayor Davidson has selected a very efficient force. The members of the present force who will retire are Arthur Grim, John Whan and Frank White. Of the new force Aufderheide was a candidate for marshal at the last city primary, C.
H. Morris was formerly physical director of the Young Men's Christian association, Charles Gill is ex-sheriff, and Clifford Dawson is a well-known potter of the city. Davidson and Mahoney are members of the present police force.

It will be noticed that council has increased the force one man, and it will be composed of six officers when the new mayor assumes charge of the city government.

HIS COMMITTEES.

President Marshall Will Announce
Them at the Meeting of Council
Tonight.

R. J. Marshall, the new president of council, was not ready with his committees at the caucus held last night, but will present them to council at the meeting to be held this evening.
It is not known who Marshall will put on his committees, but it is a safe guess that Peach will be the chairman of the street committee.

Putting Up the Cells.

The new cells for the city jail are being placed in position today. It will not be long before the jail is ready to receive women and children prisoners in style.

BEAN BAKE.

The Grand Army Last Evening Celebrated the Surrender of Lee.

The Grand Army, Sons of Veterans and Women's Relief Corps last evening celebrated the anniversary of the surrender of Lee at Appomattox with appropriate exercises at their rooms in the Exchange block. The members, of the organization and their friends were present and spent a delightful evening. A lunch was served and the following program was rendered:

Song—Post Quartet.
Recitation—Miss Mary Vodrey.
Song—C. C. Quartet.
Address—David McLane.
Song—P. R. Brown.
Recitation—Ida Liston.
Song—Mrs. Hall, aged 77.
Recitation—Anna Hackathorn.
Song—C. C. Quartet.
Recitation—Miss Leona Jennings.
Song—Mrs. Hall.

Short addresses by P. P. Laughlin, of Youngstown, senior vice commander, department of Ohio, G. A. R., and others.

DEMONSTRATED.

The Merits of the New Gas to Be Manufactured In This City at the Central School.

A meeting of the stockholders of the Gas Apparatus and Construction company was held last evening and an additional subscription of $2,000 was secured to complete the plant. The stockholders met in the science room at the central school building, and the merits of the gas the new company intend to manufacture were shown by tests made by Prof. H. E. Hall. The tests were highly satisfactory.

Work on the partially completed plant will be resumed probably next week, and the plant will be placed in operation in May. When completed the factory will have cost in the neighborhood of $9,000.

ANNUAL INSPECTION.

Sanitary Officer Burgess is Busy Notifying People to Clean Their Yards.

Sanitary Officer Burgess is busy these days notifying people to clean up, and he finds that about one out of every six yards needs a thorough cleaning, and one out of every three needs some cleaning. He is now working in the central part of the city, and so far has found it to be in a very healthful condition. The officer is not confining his inspection to the yards, but is also looking after the cellars, believing that they are more of a menace to the public health than anything else, when they are not kept clean.

Line is Located.

The location of the street car line in the Diamond has at last been fixed, but it took the attention of several members of council before it was arranged. The way the line was first laid out it ran almost against the curb on the west side of the street. It is now located as near the center as possible.

To the Home.

The township trustees have one or two children to send to the Children's home in Alliance, but it is not known when they will be sent.

Two Candidates.

The Senior Mechanics at their meeting Thursday have one candidate for the first degree and one for the third degree.

SHOT THROUGH THE RIGHT LUNG

A Serious Accident Befell Don T
Mowen in the East End Early
This Morning

WHILE HE WAS DUCK HUNTING

Picked the Gun From the Ground and the Trigger Caught on a Stone.

HIS RECOVERY IS DOUBTFUL.

Don T. Mowen, aged 23, a son of Dr.
W. E. Mowen, of Mulberry street, East End, was accidentally shot through the right lung. His condition is very low and the chances for his recovery are few.

Young Mowen, in company with Robert McArton, a young man well known in the suburb, arranged to go out duck hunting last evening. About 6 o'clock this morning the boys started out. They went up the river shore to a point opposite the foot of Line island. The boys laid their guns down on the shore and sat down on the stump of an old tree. Soon afterward Mowen said he would go farther up the shore, and caught the gun by the muzzle, pulling it toward him. As he did so the gun was discharged and a heavy charge of No. 5 shot was sent through his right lung.

McArton, with the assistance of friends placed the wounded boy in a skiff and brought him down to the head of Babb's island, and from there he was carried to the home of his uncle, William C. Randall, on Virginia avenue.

Drs. Bailey, Hobbs, Ikirt and Marshall were summoned and they, with the young man's father did everything possible to relieve his suffering.

At a late hour this afternoon there was no change in his condition, although everything possible was being done to save his life.

Mowen came to this city with his father last fall. He was employed as a collector for the Metropolitan Life Insurance company. He was very bright and had a host of friends.

TROOPER TAYLER

Wrote From Manila About Cavalry
Operations in the South—III
With Fever.

A. B. Taylor, of 313 Fifth street, has received a letter from his son, James E. Taylor, Troop B, Fourth
U. S. Cavalry, now at Manila. Trooper Taylor is just recovering from a severe attack of fever, contracted while serving with the troops in southern Luzon.

Accompanying the letter were clippings from the Manila Times, giving an account of the cavalry operations under General Schwan in Cavite, Batangas, Laguna and Tayabas, south of Manila, in which Trooper Taylor took part.

Grim-Whan Bills.

Claims committee took no action on the Grim-Whan judgments last night, and they were not presented for payment. It is stated that they will come up in council tonight and Attorney Clark will be present to talk on the subject.

SUBURBAN NEWS.

EAST END.

A little child of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Tinson, of First avenue, who has been seriously ill for the past year, is on the road to recovery. The child has been very ill at times and its condition has been critical.

The first of a series of special services was begun in the Second Presbyterian church last evening. The attendance was very large and the meeting very interesting. Rev. Layenberger, of Toronto, officiated at the meeting last evening, and this evening Rev. Simpson, of Salineville, will preside.

Mrs. Eva Beech, employed as a taker off at the East End pottery, was taken violently ill about noon yesterday with convulsions. She complained of feeling ill early in the morning, and at noon her condition became worse. Restoratives were applied and she was removed to her home in West End in a carriage.

Dr. William M. Calhoun, of Virginia avenue, left for Richmond, Jefferson county, yesterday afternoon, where he will remain several days attending the settlement of his father's estate.

A little son of William Coleman, of near Ralston crossing, accidentally stepped on a nail Saturday evening, causing a painful injury.

William Bradley has taken a position as car cleaner at the power house.

There is very little sickness in the suburb at present, and those who are ill are rapidly recovering. For the past few weeks the physicians have had all the business they could possibly attend to.

The sewer pipe works has suspended operations on account of a shortage of coal. The plant will be started as soon as a sufficient supply is received.

A new fire plug has been placed in Helana near the residence of John Schmelzenbach. Another plug will be erected soon near the new school house.

Mrs. George McKinnon is able to be out after a severe attack of asthma.

The East End Brick company is now operating its plant to its fullest capacity. The company have a large number of orders on hand and a long run is expected.

Saturday evening four well-known young men living in this end of town jumped an east bound freight train and left for parts unknown. The boys, it is said, are indebted to the city, and the collectors representing Mayor Bough have been after them for several days, but they have not yet been located.

CHILD'S CREDITORS.

Proceeds of the Recent Sale Distributed Among Some of the Deserving.

Lisbon, April 10.—(Special.)—The decree was today placed on the court journal in the case of E. P. Burnett vs. M. J. Child. The court confirmed the sale of the properties to Charles Coburn, and distributed the proceeds arising from the sale as follows: To Mrs. Jane Child $130.16 as her contingent dower, also $500 in lieu of a homestead; E. P. Burnett, $684.17, Anna E. Green $135.86, Heller Bros., $41.59, and the remainder to J. B. Callahan, of Coshocton.

Ladies' tailor made suits almost at half prices. BEE HIVE.

A Chimney Fire.

A chimney fire at the residence of W. M. McClure, Sixth street, yesterday afternoon aroused the neighborhood, but the blaze was extinguished with the aid of the department.

SOUTH SIDE.

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Cornelius Wylie, of Middle Run, will be pleased to know that a little son came to their home Sunday evening.

Thomas Stevenson has been offered a good price for a portion of his farm adjoining the Marks farm. The parties after the land are from Pittsburgh and Washington, Pa., and leases for them are being secured by a Mr. McLaughlin, of Georgetown. An attempt was made to secure a lease on the Hugh Newell farm, but in both instances the parties refused to lease. A shaft mine, it is said, will be put down in the vicinity of the Stevenson farm very soon, and to strike coal the shaft will only be 60 feet in depth.

Chester will have a ball team this summer. A number of young men have arranged to hold a meeting in the Mechanics' hall during the next few weeks, when all the details will be arranged and the players selected. It is the intention to form a county league with clubs in Fairview, New Cumberland and Chester.

Justice of the Peace Wash. Johnson was in Chester yesterday looking after some new business, but in this he was unsuccessful. He intended to move his family to the Southside during March, but this has been deferred until next fall.

Arthur Stewart, one of the numerous candidates for sheriff of Hancock county, was in town yesterday. He said he was sure of being elected.

Workmen yesterday begun grading on Caroline avenue.

The Chester Mechanics, at their meeting last evening, received several new applications and initiated two candidates. The charter of the lodge has been open for several weeks, and a large number of new members have been taken in the order.

Justice Johnson will receive $5 for holding an inquest in the death of John Cummings.

It is the intention of the young men of the Southside to put up Henry Riley as a candidate for county commissioner from this part of Hancock county. There are three commissioners to be elected next fall, and the claim is made that at least one commissioner should reside in or near Chester.

We Should Say It Did.

Salem Herald (Saturday).

The Stark county congressional primary election is being held today. The result in that county will indicate who the next representative will be from this district.

PULLMAN PARLOR CARS.

Improving the Train Service to Pittsburgh and Cleveland via Pennsylvania Lines.

New Pullman parlor cars have taken the place of the parlor cars running on trains Nos. 337 and 338, between Pittsburgh and Cleveland over the Pennsylvania lines. The new cars are the latest pattern turned out by the Pullman company and are finished and furnished in a substantial manner. They have roomy and comfortable revolving arm chairs, wide plate glass windows, commodious smoking apartment and a large retiring room for ladies. This room is fitted up with dresser and plate glass mirror. The new cars leave East Liverpool for Cleveland at 2:49 p. m. and for Pittsburgh at 7:04 p. m., central time, week days.

FORESHADOWINGS.

We may not look across the misty tide
Or hear or feel the breath of passing wings,
Yet seen and unseen weave their fringes wide,
And nature teems with clear foreshadowings.

Not in wild storms of crashing thunder rung,
But in deep silences that brood about,
Without a word from hissing lip or tongue
She cheers the faith that wrestles with a doubt.

From brown cocoons the winds have tossed and whirled,
Broad wings of gold beat up the viewless air,
And dry seed germs that wander round the world
Are quick with strange unfoldings rich and rare.

The sharded beetle bred in marshy fen
Transfigured soars above his riven shell
On flashing wings before the gaze of men,
A royal birth, a living truth as well.

And still, sweet voices speak the ages through;
No germ is lost, but lives forevermore.
The seed unfolds to fairer life anew,
And from the dust strong pinions mount and soar.

RINGS ON YELLOW PINES.

Two Circles of New Fiber Blending Into One Mark Each Year.

"It is very curious to note the successive growth circles of our yellow pines," said a veteran lumberman from the Pearl river district. "Until my attention was especially directed to the subject by a forestry expert a few years ago I had no idea that the markings were so beautifully clear and distinct. The tree acquires two rings of new fiber every year, one in the spring and one in the fall, but they blend together and form a single, well defined circle.

"During the visit of the expert to whom I referred we cut a good deal of timber on my place ranging between 16 and 18 inches in diameter. That tree is 125 years old," he would say "that one is 100, that is about 140," and so on. Afterward we measured the growth rings with the instruments he carried, and in every instance he had hit the age within a few years. It seemed wonderful, but was simply the result of experience combined with an accurate eye.

"There are some very ancient pine trees in the Pearl river district, and many of them figure in the traditions and folklore of the settlers in their neighborhood. There are a couple of such patriarchs on a tract near my mill, and when the standing timber of the place was recently sold I am glad to say they were especially excepted in the terms of the contract. It would have seemed like murder to some of the country folks if they had been cut down."—New Orleans Times-Democrat.

Performed Too Well.

"The man whom I shall marry," said the proud beauty, "must perform three tasks."

"Name the first," said the lover.

"Go and umpire a ball game."

He bowed and departed.

After two months he returned, having been discharged from the hospital cured.

"Name the second task," he said.

"Go and act as judge of the Asbury Park baby show."

Again he departed.

In a week he presented himself again.

"Attend a meeting of a bicycle club and state which, in your opinion, is the best make of wheel."

He went and he returned.

"Dearest," he said, "I am still in the ring. At last you will be mine!"

"I have changed my mind," said the maiden. "In the first place, I could not marry a man of your present personal appearance. In the second place, I should be afraid to marry a man with such a record for pugnacity. Forgive me."

After thinking the matter over he forgave her. He thought he might as well do so.

And so they were not married.—Brooklyn Life.

NEW COUNCILMEN HELD A CAUCUS

R. J. Marshall Elected President; and J. T. Smith Vice President.

HANLEY TO GET A RAISE

Two New Members Elected to Serve on the Board of Health.

CLINT MORLEY REAPPOINTED.

Council held a caucus at city hall
last night and all members were present except Heddleston, the newly-elected member from the First ward.

The first business was to exclude
the reporters, and then President Peach announced that there were two candidates for president, R. J. Marshall and J. T. Smith. A ballot was taken and Marshall received seven votes and Smith two. The election of Marshall was made unanimous upon a motion by Smith.

Smith and McHenry were placed in nomination for the vice presidency, and the ballot resulted in favor of Smith by a vote of seven to two. His election was made unanimous.

Peach announced that there were two members of the board of health
to select and Mr. Chambers and Mr.
Keffner were the retiring members.
Dr. Mowen and Dr. Norris were selected as members of the board.

The board of equalization came next
and the announcement was made that George Grosshans and John Peake were the retiring members. The names of George Grosshans, J. C.
Cain, T. H. Arbuckle and Smith Fowler were suggested for the board. The first ballot resulted as follows: Gross-hans 7, Fowler 6, Arbuckle 4, Cain 1.
Grosshans was declared elected and his name was dropped from the list and another ballot taken. This one gave Fowler 6, Arbuckle 2, Cain 1. The third and fourth ballots resulted the same way, and on the fifth ballot Cain was dropped and Fowler got 6 and Arbuckle 3. The sixth ballot resulted the same, but on the seventh ballot Fowler got 7 and Arbuckle 2. Fowler and Grosshans were then declared elected.

James N. Hanley was re-elected clerk, and Marshall called attention to the fact that he thought the city clerk should have more than $50 per month for attending to the city business, as he spent all his time at it.
He moved that the salary be increased from $50 to $75 per month in order that he might get an expression from the members. Nice thought that was too big a jump, and suggested that it be made $65 per month. This met with the favor of the councilmen and an ordinance will be prepared to be presented to the old council tonight and passed before they adjourn sine die.

J. A. George was chosen city engineer and Clint Morley fire chief.

IN A FEW DAYS

The New Wharf Boat Will Be Here.
Secured from a Monongahela
River Town.

Wharfmaster William Pilgrim when seen this morning said: "We expect to have our new wharf boat here within a few days. The boat is being secured from a town up the Monongahela river, and will be about as large as the one destroyed by fire

HOLY WEEK SERVICES.

Observance of Ceremonies in the Catholic Church During the Present Week.

This is observed as Holy week by the Catholic church. It began with the special Palm Sunday services. Tomorrow the chanting of the solemn offices of the Tenebrae or darkness will begin and will be continued each evening until Friday. Thursday the holy eucharist is commemorated with great ceremony. On this day also the sacred oils, used in the administration of many of the sacraments and rites of the Catholic church, are blessed and distributed by each bishop to his clergy, all of whom must attend in person. At the mass Thursday the celebrant consecrates two hosts, one for use on that occasion and the other to be consumed at the mass of the presanctified on Good Friday, when no consecration takes place. Good Friday all the officiating clergy are robed in black and the services are of the most solemn description. On holy Saturday what is known as Easter holy water is blessed and distributed.

Easter Sunday is entirely a joyous festival, commemorating the resurrection of Christ.

TO OUR FIRE LADDIES.

Postmaster Will H. Surles Returns
Warm Thanks to the Department.

Editor News Review: Permit me, through the columns of your popular journal, to return my sincere thanks to Chief Morley and the members of the city fire department for their splendid and skillful work in subduing
and holding under control the fire this morning in the postoffice department. Let me also embrace in this article all the citizens who so generously and unselfishly rendered the postoffice employees and myself such valuable aid. I fully realize the advantage of "friends in need are friends indeed."

Let me also say to the public at large that mails are being received and distributed as usual.

Respectfully,
W. H. SURLS, P. M.

COMING ATTRACTIONS.

"A Hot Old Time."

"A Hot Old Time," a farce that is thoroughly up-to-date in every particular, full of funny situations, without vulgarity, the latest music, refined specialties presented by an excellent company of well known comedy players, will be the attraction at the Grand this evening, Tuesday, April 10.

Rentz-Santley Burlesque.

A kaleidoscopic whirlwind of smiling farce, costumes of gorgeous hues, twinkling toes, enclosed by richest scenes add to the rhythm of entrancing music, is what the Rentz-Santley Burlesque company can be justly termed.
They are booked to appear at the Grand opera house next Wednesday night, April 11.

"A Black Sheep."

Humor, hearty and broad, and therefore intensely moving, is the keynote of the strongest of the Hoyt's successes, such as his famous skit, "A Black Sheep," which will be seen at the Grand Thursday evening, April 12.

After a Battle.

In the first aid that is rendered on the field after a battle nothing is attempted beyond the arrest of hemorrhage, the application of temporary splints for fractures and antiseptic dressing. There is no washing or exploration of wounds. The clothes are merely slit up with scissors, not removed, thus insuring protection to the patient's body and saving unnecessary disturbances. The sergeant in charge of the collection station has a field companion, a water bottle and a small reserve of bandages and first dressings in his care to replenish the surgical haversacks with which the bearers are supplied.

Triangular bandages are chiefly used on the battlefield, made from a 36 inch square of linen or calico, cut diagonally into halves. Almost anything that comes to hand may be used as improved splints—sticks, telegraph wire, bark of trees, straw, rifles, bayonets, lances and so on. The splint, if necessary, is padded with straw or leaves or grass and is fastened with straps torn from the soldier's equipment or with strips of a shirt, securely bound with the triangular bandage. Bound up with the ride splint, a wounded man is made so secure that he can hardly move a muscle. One leg is firmly bound to the rifle, and the ankles are tied together, so that the injured limb is almost as rigid as the rifle at its side.—London Standard.

A Cheerful Liar.

"I have followed trout streams ever since I was a boy," said a Providence crank, "and have tried to solve for many years the cause of the apparent decrease in brook trout. Recently I think I discovered the cause of the extermination. I was fishing along a brook near Oakland Beach, R. I., when I saw a large snake with a half masticated trout in its mouth. The action of the snake interested me, and, standing quiet, I studied the snake closely.

"On the end of the snake's tail was a sharp bony growth shaped like a hook.
After a few moments my watching was rewarded by seeing the snake glide over to some bushes growing along the bank and catch a grasshopper in its mouth. The snake then placed the grasshopper carefully on the hooklike thing on the end of its tail.

"By this time my curiosity was thoroughly aroused," continued the fisherman. "The snake crawled up on a log that extended from the bank into the brook and let its tail hang into the water. In a moment up came a trout and snapped at the grasshopper. It was short work for the snake to transfer the fish from its tail to its mouth, and I had solved the problem of the extermination of brook trout."—Cleve-

Tempering Copper Not a Lost Art.

The allegation that ancient Egyptians tempered copper and bronze to carry a razor edge is not borne out by investigation. Thomas Harper of Bellevue, Pa., challenges any one to produce a piece of metal tempered by the ancients that cannot be more than duplicated by any metal worker today. He says that in examining hundreds of specimens alleged to have been tempered to the degree that steel is tempered he failed to find any, nor had he discovered any one who had seen such work, and the fable which has been implicitly believed for centuries is being shattered in the light of modern research.

This is not the only story believed for centuries tending to belittle the man of today, to make him the inferior of his forefathers, which failed under the searchlight of inquiry and science. The ancients were children in mechanical knowledge as compared to the people of today, and if there was a demand for any particular building or piece of work such as was produced by the ancients it could be duplicated and improved on by the skilled artisans of the

Not Self Made.

"I am sorry to disappoint you, young man," said the great railway magnate to the reporter who had called in for the purpose of writing him up, "but I did not begin at the bottom and work my way up. I never blacked the boots of the engine wipers and never carried beer for the janitor of the roundhouse. I was kicked through college by my father, inherited a fortune, which I invested in railroad shares, and I hold this job because I have votes enough to control it. It is too bad, my young friend, but we can't all be self made men. We would become tiresome." And he bowed the caller out.—Chicago Tribune.

The Shark's Mouth.

No doubt the shark's mouth is placed so much beneath the projecting muzzle, under which also the nostrils lie, that it may serve its proper purpose in the best way. In all records of the habits of the fish we are told that it can and does bite out large chunks of flesh from the dead bodies of whales
and even from living victims of its attacks, and it is easily seen that if its mouth was like that of other fishes the necessary leverage would be lacking.
A further reason seems to be that the shark by this peculiar position of its mouth is compelled to turn upon its back to strike and is thus able to deliver its onset from below with more deadly effect.

This formidable strength of jaw is backed up by a most terrible array of teeth, of which in some species there are as many as six rows all around.
Each tooth is saw edged and pointed,
and some of the largest are as much as
two inches in breadth at the base.
These lie flat against the jaws and can be raised by separate muscles at will,
so that, as the shark darts upon its prey, they spring on end, as a cat's claws are stuck out from its paws.
This arrangement will not allow anything once bolted to return, so that a shark's mouth is a veritable death trap.

A Remarkable Building.

The tabernacle at Salt Lake City is,
in respect to its acoustic properties,
the most remarkable place of worship in the world. It is constructed to hold 25,000 people, yet it is possible for a person standing at one end to distinctly hear the sound of a pin dropped into a hat at the other, a test of its curious power to convey sound which is offered to every stranger who is shown over the building.

There were three deep cuts on the top of the head, and, though there was no evidence of robbery, the police believe that the man was murdered.

Next November the question will be what did they do to Dewey?

Mayor Bough is a good collector,
and knows how to get money coming to the city.

With Marshall in the chair Pennsylvania avenue shouldn't figure very much this year.

The new council began life very harmoniously. Wonder how long they will keep it up?

The excellence of the East Liverpool fire department was again demonstrated this morning.

With two former candidates for city marshal on his force, Mayor Davidson should have a good administration.

It is remarkable how many people in the city look like George Hecka-thorne now that he is wanted by the police.

It is hoped that Mayor Davidson's police force will fit the brass buttons and gold braid ordered by the police committee.

Alf. Austin, the English laureate, ought to get off something good on that Dublin visit. "Queen" and
"green" are easy.

George changed his mind on the presidency and Mrs. Dewey changed her's on religion, and both changed their residence. Changeable family.

City Marshal T. V. Thompson performed the first duties of his office last night by putting the reporters downstairs when the council wanted to caucus. Thompson is all right and performed his first duty in an able manner.

Council did the proper thing last night when they decided to raise the salary of Clerk Hanley. There is not a more efficient or accommodating person in the employ of the city, and the salary of $50 was altogether too small for the amount of work he does.

Rhode Island's state election will be held tomorrow. There are eight states which hold elections for state officers before November. They are: Alabama, August 6; Arkansas, September
3; Georgia, October 3; Louisiana,
April 17; Maine, September 10; North Carolina, August 2; Oregon, June 2; Vermont, September 4.

Trying to Find His Money.
Alliance Star.

Judge Firestone, of Lisbon, is the owner of a considerable frontage on Main street, Alliance. When the street was paved, nearly two years ago, he was charged with his due portion of the cost, and a snug sum it was. Not long ago the amiable judge was in Alliance looking after his business interests. From his property he essayed to cross Main street, which was covered with liquefied earth to a depth of five or six inches. With evident misgivings as to the outcome, he plunged from the curbstone and started upon his voyage. He had not gone half a dozen steps when the adhesive force of the mud pulled off one of his overshoes. While the judge was wabbling about trying to balance himself on one foot and steer the other into the submerged rubber, a friend accosted him and inquired what he was doing.

"I've got $450 dollars planted here somewhere," he answered, "and I'm trying to find it."

Don't Know When They're Licked.
Steubenville Gazette.

The Y. M. C. I. suffered defeat at the hands of the East Liverpool boys Saturday night, going up against an entirely different team from that which played here several weeks ago, some of the East Liverpool players being of immense build, and as a result little basket ball was played, the contest developing into a foot ball game. The home boys were handicapped by the field, which was not one-half the size of Garrett's hall and entirely too small for basket ball, so their defeat by a score of 19 to 9 is no reflection on their playing ability.
The boys are anxious for a third contest on neutral grounds and will concede anything to get a game.

MAYOR BOUGH'S BUSIEST DAY

Money Came on Foot, In Trolley Cars and Even Over the Telephone Yesterday.

OLD FINES BEING PAID IN

His Honor Says It Was Without Doubt the Busiest Day Ever Seen at City Hall.

IS AT WORK ON HIS REPORTS.

Mayor Bough was the busiest man in the city yesterday and he took money in at a rapid rate, some people even trying to pay it to him over the telephone.

The offenders, who had old fines standing against them, were all notified to call before the mayor retired from office, and all of yesterday there was a constant stream of people to the office to see him and find out what they owed to make them square with the city. Last night the court room was filled with people, eager to pay up in order to save themselves a trip to the works.

Today the mayor is busy making out his annual and monthly reports, and stated that he was too busy to foot up how much he took in yesterday and how many people called on him, but he thought it was the largest day's business the office ever had.

The only occupant of the city jail is Dallas Smith, who was arrested for not paying an old fine. It is expected he will get the cash before this evening.

MEXICAN POTTERY.

A Man Who Knows About It Says
Something on the Subject.

Captain C. W. Riggs, who has spent many years in Mexico, and who has a varied knowledge of that country's pottery, throws some light on the prevailing difficulty in securing good specimens of Mexican ware. There is really not a single pottery in Mexico that is worthy the name. Whatever is produced there in the way of pottery is more of a haphazard product
than the result of an established manufactory. It is a harder matter to get pottery from Mexico than from any place in the world. It is not packed properly, and when the custom officers examine the packages they exercise no care whatever, with the result that nine pieces out of ten that reach this country are broken. Dealers in this country who desire to come in contact with some Mexican pottery should write to the United States consul at Guadalajara, Old Mexico, and he will place him in communication with some pottery in that section, but it is safe to say that one order will suffice to prove the impracticability of handling this ware.—Green

THE BISHOP AND DIPLOMAT.

Illustration of a Diplomatic Attitude Toward Religion.

In the "Life of Archbishop Benson"
by his sons occurs the entertaining
and extremely suggestive passage:

I shall never forget a conversation between the ambassador of a foreign power and my father. The former was dining at Lambeth, a genial, intelligent man, very solicitous to be thoroughly in touch with the social life of the country to which he had been accredited. After dinner the ambassador, in full diplomatic uniform, with a ribbon and stars, sitting next to my father, said politely:

"Does your grace reside much in the country?"

My father said that as archbishop he was provided with a country house and that he was there as much as possible, as he preferred the country to the town.

"Now, does your grace go to church in the country?" with an air of genial inquiry, turning round in his chair.

"Yes, indeed!" said my father. "We have a beautiful church almost in the park, which the village people all go
to."

"Yes," said the ambassador meditatively, "yes, I always go to church myself in the country. It is a good thing to show sympathy with religious feeling; it is the one thing which combats socialistic ideas. I think you are very wise, your grace, to go."

My father said that he felt as if he
and the ambassador were the two augurs as represented in Punch.

"I did my best," said my father, "to persuade him that I was a Christian,
but he listened to all that I said with a charming expression, implying, 'We are men of the world and understand each other.' I am sure that he thought that I was speaking diplomatically and in purely conventional language, and that if we had known each other better
I should have thrown off the mask and avowed myself as free a thinker as he."

BATTLE COURAGE.

In Action the Animal Nature Takes
Full Possession of Man.

At home, in a progressive community, a man may be a coal heaver or a bank clerk; but, whatever his station,
the environment of civilizing influence is strong upon him, and most of his chances for the display of courage
come to the moral side of his nature.
But out in the open, with most of the trammels cast off and the enemy in front, with the ripple of the colors about him and, more than all, the feeling that comes from companionship in a common danger with many of his fellows, it is the animal that gains supremacy. And man, being by nature a brave and fearless animal—the most fearless of all the animal species—simply remains true to his birthright and goes through the ordeal in the natural way.

What can be the deduction? There is only one. It is that battle gallantry and battle brutality, springing as they both do from the same source, must necessarily be allied. You cannot slip the leash of a bloodhound and stop him half way to his scent. If any proof were needed to make the fact of inherent bravery and—the other thing—certain it is to be found in the marvelous change in face, manner and even speech that comes over nearly every man when he is engaged in battle.

It may be urged that the excitement of being under fire would be sufficient reason for this callousness, but such an explanation will not account for the entire subversion of a man's whole life training. The real reason is that at such times it is the animal nature that takes full and complete possession of the human body.—Chicago Times-Herald.

His First Earnings.

A few years ago a large party, headed by the Duke of Norfolk, went on a tour through the continent. The duke busied himself very much on the journey in a kind hearted way about the welfare of every one in the party. At every station he used to get out and go round to see if he could do anything for any one. One old woman, who did not know him, when she arrived at last in Rome, tired and hot, found great difficulty in getting a porter. So she seized on the duke.

"Now, my good man," she said, "I've noticed you at all these stations loafing about. Just make yourself useful for once in your life. Take my bag and find me a cab."

The duke mildly did as he was bid and was rewarded with a sixpence.

The Public and Opera.

There is a general opinion that the stockholders support the opera, and that the general public may consider itself highly privileged to be admitted at all to the sacred precincts. As a matter of fact, if the opera depended for its existence upon the support of the stockholders, the doors of the Metropolitan Opera House would never be open. The bottom would drop out of the whole enterprise. The parquet and the galleries are the manager's chief reliance. Opera is not a social function; it is a public institution, and without the public's support would collapse like a house of cards.—Ainslee's Magazine.

Seeing and Knowing.

An eminent lord chief justice who was trying a right of way case had before him a witness, an old farmer, who was proceeding to tell the jury that he had "knowned the path for 60 year, and my feyther towld I as he heard my grandfeyther say"—

"Stop!" cried the judge. "We can't have any hearsay evidence here."

"No!" exclaimed Farmer Giles.
"Then how dost know who thy feyther was, 'cept by hearsay?"

After the laughter had subsided the judge said, "In courts of law we can only be guided by what you have seen with your eyes and nothing more nor less."

"Oh, that be blowed for a tale!" replied the farmer. "I ha' got a bble on the back of my neck, and I never seed
'un, but I be prepared to swear he's there, dang 'un!"

This second triumph on the part of the witness set in a torrent of hearsay evidence about the footpath, which obtained weight with the jury, albeit the judge told them it was not testimony of any value, and the farmer's party won.

Grandfather's Hymns.

The Contributors' Club in The Atlantic gives some information concerning "grandfather's" hymns: "Imagine them and their good wives gathered in the New England meeting house, trolling forth such 'spiritual songs' as the book preserves for us:

"Then, blooming friends, a long farewell;
We're bound to heaven, but you to hell.
Still God may hear us while we pray
And change you ere the burning day.

"And, be it observed, this 'burning day' to them was something as definite as washing day. This was none of your vague purgatorial way stations, but as fiery a pit of torment as the imagination can well conceive. Here is a glimpse of it:

"Hark, the shrill outcries of the guilty wretches!
Lively bright horror and amazing anguish Stare through their eyelids, while the living worm lies Gnawing within them."

DOCTOR BILLS TURNED DOWN

Claims Committee Didn't Pay Claims For Attending
Prisoners.

TIME TO CALL A HALT

The Bills Were Referred to
the Township Trustees.

CLAIM AGAINST CITY EMPLOYEE.

Claims committee of council met last evening with McHenry and Smith present.

A bill from Dr. L. O. Williams for $25.50 for attending prisoners, and one from Dr. W. W. Hamilton for $2 for the same kind of service caused some discussion. Somebody remarked that the committee had started trouble by paying physicians for attending prisoners, and McHenry thought a stop should be put to it at once. Smith thought it should be set down on at the start, and McHenry said he didn't believe in doctoring a lot of people who could get along without it, but in cases of necessity it was all right.
They finally wound up the discussion by referring the bill to the township trustees. Williams' bill covered a period from April 6, 1899.

W. E. Wells presented a bill for $10.61 against a city employee, but council took no action on the matter, as this was a new thing to them.
There is an ordinance which requires city employees to pay their debts, but this is the first time anybody ever took advantage of the ordinance. The committee didn't pay the bill and somebody remarked that if they started to pay bills of that kind it would keep them busy.

Irwin Allison presented a bill for $1.50 for setting up the election booth in the East End fire station, but the bill was referred to council for payment. The following bills were then ordered paid:

Ceramic City Light company, $609.58; George Mounts, $5; Wilson

a Garbage Hauler at Noon Today.

A gang of small boys made life miserable for a garbage hauler at noon today. The boys were armed with old potatoes and followed the man down Fifth street, throwing them at him. He finally left his wagon and chased the boys, but failed to catch any of them. They started in as hard as ever after he got on his wagon. The police should be informed of the affair and the small boys of this city should be taught a much needed lesson.

SENATOR CLARK IS UNSEATED

The United States Senate Committee Unanimously Decides to Turn Down the

MILLIONAIRE FROM MONTANA

Copper King Daly's Big Fight Against His Rival Proves Successful at Last.

STORY OF A FAMOUS CASE.

Washington, D. C., April 10.—(Special.)—The senate committee, which has been investigating the charges brought against Senator William A.
Clark, of Montana, of having bought his seat, reported today unanimously in favor of unseating him.

The investigation was made under a resolution adopted in the senate December 7, that the committee on privileges and elections be directed to investigate the right of William A.
Clark to a seat as senator from the state of Montana. The basis of the case was a petition presented December 4, when the senate convened. It prayed that at the earliest practicable moment the senate committee should inquire into the charges made that Clark had influenced and corrupted members of the Montana legislature to vote for him. The petition was signed by Robert B. Smith, governor of Montana; T. E. Collins, state treasurer; Henry C. Stiff, speaker of the house of representatives; Thos. W.
Poindexter, state auditor; A. J.
Campbell, member of congress, and Charles S. Hartman, ex-member of congress from Montana.

During the hearing of the case many sensational accusations were made. It also developed that the fight was a result of a fight previously made by Clark to wrest the control of Montana politics from Daly, the copper king.
He succeeded in doing so, but gave Daly an opportunity to carry the fight to the United States senate, with the result stated. Clark is a multi-millionaire copper king, and the testimony showed that thousands of dollars changed hands during his race for the senate.

Clark is a Democrat; his term would have lasted until 1905. He is a lawyer by profession and was born in Pennsylvania in 1847. The other senator from Montana is Thomas H.
Carter, ex-national Republican chairman, whose term expires next year.

Shattered Diamonds.

"Under certain conditions, which are very rare and remarkable," said an old jeweler, "a diamond may be shattered to atoms by a smart, sudden blow. The stone seems to disintegrate and fly apart, as nearly as I can express it,
and when the Kimberley gems first came into the market the Brazilian brokers claimed that they were especially subject to that kind of accident.
For the time being the story had its effect on trade, but it was proved to be untrue, and the incident is now forgotten. In the course of an experience of nearly 40 years I have known of only two cases of diamonds being broken."

"One occurred many years ago, when I was working in a shop in the old
Reid House in Chattanooga. A lady customer dropped a cluster brooch from the counter to the tiled floor, a distance of about 3½ feet. It struck squarely on the center stone, which was broken into a number of small, irregular fragments. The diamond had weighed about two carats.

"The other instance took place here in New Orleans about six years ago.
A St. Louis traveling man named Crawford had a solitaire weighing 1½ carats set in a ring. He was standing in the store and while conversing about something made a sudden gesture and struck the stone against a metal fix-ture. It was split into small, jagged splinters, a number of which we found on top of the showcase. The drummer himself was the most astonished man
I ever saw. He had supposed diamonds were indestructible simply because they were hard."—New Orleans Times-Democrat.

Why He Was Arrested.

"There is such a thing as being altogether too clever."

"You think so?"

"I know it. I was walking along the street yesterday when I noticed a $5 note lying on the pavement. I stooped to pick it up, but it looked like a counterfeit, so I passed on."

"And the note turned out to be a good one, of course?"

"No, it did not, but I was arrested before I had gone ten steps farther."

"Arrested? What for?"

"For passing counterfeit money."

Speech and Ambidexterity.

"Here's a scientist," she said, look-that the reason people are right hand-controls the right side of the body and consequently right handedness grows

"Is that so?" he returned, deeply interested. "It is indeed strange, then, that many women can use their left hands at all, is it not?"—Chicago Post.

FUNSTON IN A MESS.

Kansas General May Be Court-martialed.

HUNG NATIVES WITHOUT TRIAL.

Belonged to Band Which Was Intending to Kill Captured Maccabean Scouts, Which Was Dispersed—Strong Feeling That Pann Should Be Punished.

MANILA, April 10.—An interesting topic of conversation in army circles is the investigation of Brigadier General Frederick Funston's execution of two Filipinos and the possibility of a court-martial resulting therefrom. The story is that the Filipinos captured three Maccabean scouts who were crossing the country near San Isidro and were preparing to kill them when one of the Maccabees escaped and found General Funston with a scouting party near the rescue of his companions, and when the troops approached the Filipinos fled, leaving the Maccabees. Several of the Filipinos were shot and General Funston captured two of them, took them to the village square and hung them without trial, as a warning to the Filipinos. The present method of warfare and instances of the mutilation of prisoners have incensed the American soldiers to such a degree that they feel justified in making reprisals, which has been done on several occasions recently.

There is a strong feeling among the residents and friendly Filipinos that the Chinese general, Pann, who, as announced March 31, surrendered to Brigadier General Kobbe, after terrorizing the province of Pann, should be severely punished. It is pointed out that his career has been more that of a brigand than of a soldier, as he looted and extorted money by torture from wealthy natives and burned alive some of his followers who intended to desert him. It is believed Pann surrendered because he feared his own men, and that he expected to be paroled, like other officers, and enjoy the fruits of his brigandage.

CHAPLAIN REPORTED IMPROVEMENT.

Army Canteen in Manila Replaces the Gin Shacks of the Natives.

WASHINGTON, April 10.—Chaplain Pierce, in a report to the war department, particularly antagonizes the ex-chaplain of volunteers who made the charge of wholesale intoxication and of the enormous increase in the number of liquor drinking saloons in Manila. The chaplain declares that the figures had been perverted, that the American saloon took the place of an untold number of native gin shacks, which dispensed liquid poison with deplorable effect upon the American troops, and that the substitution of the regimental canteen has resulted in an improvement in the sobriety of the troops.

Chaplain Pierce also speaks in terms of high praise of the reformation of the critical conditions in Manila, its cleansing and sanitation, with the resulting improvement in general health.

WITHOUT FIRING A SHOT.

Fourteen Places Surrendered in the Philippines.

WASHINGTON, April 10.—A report from General Otis contained the following:

MANILA, April 9. General Bates just returned from south, after placing Fortieth Infantry at Surigao, Agayan, Iligan, Isami Dapitan, Northern Mindanao, and attending to special matters entrusted to him department Mindanao and Jolo, attended by two naval vessels and two gunboats. Troops occupied points without resistance. Two hundred and forty-one rifles, 97 pieces of artillery surrendered. Eleven places in Mindanao and three in Jolo archipelago now occupied by troops, without the firing of a shot. Affairs in that section quite satisfactory. (Signed) OTIS.

PLEA OF LADY CURZON.

Supplies Needed to Feed Starving Natives of India.

CHICAGO, April 10.—Chicago's India famine committee has decided to open its offices again for the receipt of funds. Miss Mary Leiter, of Chicago, cabled the committee the following message from Umballa, India, under date of April 8, in response to a message sent to her:

"My husband and I will be rejoiced to receive any help that Chicago may be willing to give toward our terrible Indian famine. The government is relieving nearly 5,000,000 persons and the worst has not yet come. We can guarantee that every dollar subscribed will go to the relief of genuine human suffering."

QUAY'S FRIENDS FAILED.

Unable to Secure Day For a Vote—Indian Appropriation Bill Passed in Senate.

WASHINGTON, April 10.—After some further discussion, the senate rejected the sectarian school amendment to the Indian appropriation bill offered by Mr. Jones (Dem., Ark.), by a vote of 30 to 10. As has been the practice for two or three years, the free homes measure was offered as an amendment to the bill, but it was ruled out on the point of order that it was general legislation and therefore not germane to an appropriation bill. Without division, the bill was passed. The measure carries about $4,400,000.

An unsuccessful effort was made to agree upon a date for a vote on the resolution relative to the seating of Mr. Quay as a senator from Pennsylvania. The effort will be renewed today.

During the last two hours of the session the Alaskan civil code bill was under consideration. An amendment offered by Mr. Hansbrough concerning the title to mining claims in the Cape Nome district provoked a warm debate.

SULZER'S PROTEST A FAILURE.

Business Man Testified in Mine Strike Investigation.

WASHINGTON, April 10.—When the Couderd-Alene investigation was resumed Representative Sulzer made an emphatic protest to what he characterized a "snap judgment" by the majority of the investigating committee. At the last session the record of the "hall pen," giving the names of those imprisoned, was ordered printed. The record as printed showed that a newspaper clipping, pasted in the book, also had been printed, giving a list of ringleaders in the miners' agitation and some 400 who had been indicted. Mr. Sulzer's motion to strike out this matter was lost by a tie vote.

Henry E. Howes, a business man in the Couderd-Alene, not identified with either faction, was objected to on the ground that he was a bitter opponent of miners' unions. The witness testified that he knew that members of the miners' union were present when the mill was blown up.

DECLARED BOSSISM

HURT THE CHURCH.

Speakers in Chicago Presbytery Attack Methods of the General Assembly.

CHICAGO, April 10.—Charges that the Presbyterian general assembly was dominated by a system of bossism and one-man power worse than any political machine, and that that great religious body was afflicted with packed committees, were made at an adjourned meeting of the Chicago presbytery.

The question came up during consideration of an overture received from the Peoria presbytery recommending that the standing committees of the general assembly in the future be elected by the delegates instead of being appointed by the moderator, and after an animated discussion the recommendation that the proposition be endorsed and sent to the general assembly was adopted by a two-thirds vote.

Rev. S. M. Johnson, speaking in favor of the proposition, said that the bossism had nearly ruined the church in certain quarters, and that at the last general assembly the committee appointed to consider the case of Dr. McGiffert was packed.

REV. DR. M'GIFFERT RESIGNS.

No Longer a Clergyman in Presbyterian Church.

NEW YORK, April 10.—The Rev. Arthur C. McGiffert formally withdrew from the Presbyterian church. His resignation was contained in a letter to the presbytery of New York, which met in its regular semi-annual meeting, and Dr. McGiffert's request that his name be dropped from the role of the presbytery was granted. Dr. McGiffert's letter of resignation was in accordance with an announcement made by him to the presbytery three weeks ago.

As far as Dr. McGiffert is concerned that will probably end the incident. Dr. Birch said that as soon as the general assembly had decided upon the legal points raised he will retire from the prosecution. Dr. McGiffert, under a resolution of the presbytery, is no longer a Presbyterian clergyman and his withdrawal has effected all that an adverse decision by the general assembly could effect.

TOWNE IS IN FAVOR.

Would Be Popular Mate For Bryan.

THE GOLD DEMOCRATS LIKE HIM.

Anti-Imperialists of New England Would Also Be Pleased, as Would the Populists—In Addition, He Suits the Nebraska Silver Leader.

MINNEAPOLIS, April 10.—Former Congressman Charles A. Towne, of Duluth, is a candidate for the Democratic nomination for vice president. Judge Caldwell, of the United States circuit court, has declined to permit the use of his name in that connection, and Towne's candidacy is predicated on the judge's

declination. The demand for Towne's nomination is said to come from the gold Democrats and Republican anti-imperialists of New England. It is asserted that Bryan would be glad to have Towne for a running mate.

Senator Pettigrew is another supporter. His program is to have the national Populist convention at Sioux Falls, S. D., May 9, adjourn without nominating, leaving the matter to a committee, which would later on endorse the Democratic ticket named at Kansas City. If this proves impossible, he will push for the nomination of Bryan and Towne at Sioux Falls.

RIPE FOR A LYNCHING.

Belmont County (O.) People Enraged Over the Brutal Murder of Young Warrick.

WHEELING, April 10.—Over in Belmont county, O., in the vicinity of Somerton, where 16-year-old Clarence Warrick was murdered early Sunday morning, the entire countryside is aroused, and if the guilty persons are captured they will certainly be lynched, unless spirited away. The Carter brothers, alleged stock thieves, in custody at Barnesville, on account of whose approaching trial, it is now asserted, young Warrick was killed, because "he knew too much," were taken to St. Clairsville, the county seat, by Sheriff Foreman, in order to save their necks.

The Barnesville police now have a promising clue and hope to run down the murderers today. They will not be taken to Barnesville, if captured, owing to the high feeling there.

OVER 50 LIVES LOST.

Great Damage Done by Floods in Texas—Colorado River Is Still Rising.

DALLAS, April 10.—News from the Southern and Southwestern Texas flood sections shows that more than 50 lives have been lost, including those at Austin, due to the breaking of a dam. Reports from La Grange indicate that the Colorado is still rising and menacing more country districts. The stream is now four feet higher than during the great flood of last year.

Bastrop is entirely surrounded by water. The property damage is enormous.

Railroad traffic in the southern half of Texas has been practically abandoned.

Richard Mansfield Ill.

CLEVELAND, April 10.—Richard Mansfield, the actor, who was to have opened an engagement at the Euclid avenue opera house here, is confined to his room at the Hollenden hotel, suffering from acute laryngitis. Mr. Mansfield hopes to be able to play by tomorrow night, but his physician says it may be a week before he can leave his room.

Suicided to Escape Investigation.

H. Pitcher blew his brains out here. He was a trustee of the estate of the late Thomas Marney, deceased, valued at $600,000. Pitcher was to have produced his books in court, and was to testify as to how he handled the bank and the trust.

NEW YORK, April 10.—The stock market Monday made the expected response to Saturday's unfavorable bank statement by a general drawing in of speculative ventures.

The acute depression manifested by Sugar had an additional influence in depressing the market. This mercurial industrial gave evidence during the latter part of the day of being oversold and, after having fallen nearly 8 points, recovered more than half of the decline. The room traders, who had sold the list on the strength of the weakness in Sugar, were driven to cover by this rally and the aggressive strength developed at a few other points. As a consequence, the closing was active and firm at a level considerably above the low point of the day, but showing net declines for the majority of stocks.

People's gas, the tobacco stocks and a number of the iron and steel stocks fell away easily from 1 to 3 points. The strength manifested by the New York traction served as an offset to this; the railroad list maintained a condition resembling suspended animation. Large inroads upon the Pacific stocks, Pennsylvania and the grangers turned the tide toward depression, until aggressive strength developed in Missouri Pacific. This stock moved up to 54½ in the late transactions on heavy buying, and Brooklyn Transit rose buoyantly to 79½, with a stimulating effect on the general list.

Business in bonds was of moderate volume and prices were well held. Total sales, par value, $2,455,900.

United States old 4s and 5s declined ¼ in the bid price.

Chicago Wheat, Corn and Provisions.

CHICAGO, April 10.—The wheat market showed both strength and activity Monday, influenced by the reduced world's shipments and some unfavorable crop reports, May closing ¾@1½c over Saturday. Corn yielded to the profit taking pressure, May closing ½c down. Provisions, helped by higher hogs, closed strong, 10c@17½c improved. May oats, at the close, were ¼c depressed.

Not Known Who Killed Moseley.

MIDDLESBORO, Ky., April 10.—The only participants in the riotous collision between the police and deputy sheriffs who were arraigned were Chief of Police King and his deputies. The trial was set for Wednesday. Excitement has subsided. It is not yet ascertained who killed Deputy Policeman Moseley.

Agricultural Bill Considered.

WASHINGTON, April 10.—The agricultural appropriation bill was under consideration and was made the vehicle of considerable desultory debate on irrelevant political topics. Good progress was made with the bill after the close of general debate, 25 of the 37 pages being covered before adjournment.

KANSAS CITY PEOPLE HUSTLING.

Plans For Building Democratic Convention Hall Are Completed.

KANSAS CITY, April 10.—Plans for erecting the new convention hall have practically been completed, and the work of removing the debris from the site is proceeding actively.

The hall directors have on hand $235,000 available for the new building, which is to cost in the neighborhood of $300,000. Delegations continue to sign contracts for quarters at the different hotels.

New Incident In Kentucky Dispute.

BARBOURVILLE, Ky., April 10.—Circuit court began, but it is doubtful who will act as judge, John Henry Wilson or Judge W. S. Brown. Judge Brown took his seat and a few minutes later Judge Wilson appeared with a certificate from the election commissioners and signed by Beckham. Brown refused to evacuate.

Declines to Discuss Pattison Rumor.

CHICAGO, April 10.—J. G. Johnson, chairman of the Democratic national executive committee, declines absolutely to discuss the rumors relating to the probability of Robert E. Pattison becoming Bryan's running mate.

BOY TO SEE KRUGER.

District Messenger Starts From Philadelphia.

SENT BY THE SCHOOL CHILDREN.

Twenty-Three Thousand Sign a Message of sympathy to the Boer President—A Big Mass Meeting Held in the Quaker City—Webster Davis Present.

PHILADELPHIA, April 10.—One of the greatest demonstrations of sympathy, both in the number of the participants and the display of enthusiasm, ever shown in this city for any foreign nation took place, when the Academy of Music was jammed with people for the purpose of taking part in the Philadelphia school boys' pro-Boer rally. The object of the gathering was to send a message of greeting to President Kruger signed by 22,000 pupils of the schools of this city. Many thousands were unable to get near the doors.

Judge William N. Ashman, of the orphan's court of this city, presided, and those who addressed the meeting were Hon. Webster Davis, Hon. Bourke Cockran, of New York; ex-District Attorney George S. Graham, of this city; Hon. Louter Wessels, of Bloemfontein, Orange Free State; and Thomas J. Meek, a pupil of the high school of this city. Edwin Markham, the poet, recited an original ode to Lincoln for the first time.

After the speech making James F. Smith, a 16-year-old messenger of the American District Telegraph company, was called to the stage by means of the regulation call box and was given the message signed by the school boys, with instructions to proceed to Pretoria and hand it personally to President Kruger. The messenger, accompanied by a committee of three high school boys, left for New York, and they will be tendered a reception at the Waldorf-Astoria hotel by the students of the public schools of Greater New York today.

Tomorrow the messenger will sail on the St. Louis, and before the vessel reaches Southampton he will be taken off by a French tender and landed at Havre, France, in order to avoid English territory. The message to Kruger is as follows:

"We, the undersigned students of the public schools of Philadelphia, the city where our forefathers enlisted in their splendid and successful struggle against English oppression, desire to express to you and to the fighting men of the South African republic their great admiration for the genius and courage that has checked English invasion of the Transvaal; and the undersigned extend their most earnest wishes that in the end the South African republic will triumph over England in a war in which the Boer cause is noble, the English cause unjust."

Delegations of schoolboys from New York and Boston attended the meeting.

A LEGISLATOR DEAD.

Both Houses at Columbus Adjourned Out of Respect to Clement's Memory.

COLUMBUS, April 10.—Edwin A. Clement, representative from Medina county, died at his temporary residence in this city, after a few days' illness, of pneumonia. He was 32 years old.

Both branches of the legislature adjourned until today as a mark of respect to the deceased.

MRS. DEWEY QUILTS CATHOLICISM.

Friends Admit She Has Become an Episcopalian.

WASHINGTON, April 10.—Mrs. George Dewey's change of faith from Catholicism to Episcopalianism, although not admitted by the admiral or herself, has been verified among her intimate friends, many of whom attend St. John's Episcopal church.

For Pension Court of Appeals.

WASHINGTON, April 10.—The committee of the Grand Army of the Republic, consisting of Commander-in-Chief D. A. Shaw and General Daniel Sickles, which is endeavoring to secure legislation looking to the creation of a court of pension appeals, has submitted the proposed measure to some of the most eminent jurists of the country, and it has been endorsed by them. The committee also has conferred with the president on the subject.

Must Not Waste Gas.

WASHINGTON, April 10.—Justice White, in the supreme court, handed down the opinion of the court in the case of the Ohio Oil company vs the state of Indiana. The case involved the validity of the state law prohibiting persons from boring wells to permit the gas to escape into the atmosphere as opposed to the general interests of the community. The law is upheld.

A GIANT COMBINE.

Rumored That Carnegies and Cramps Are Negotiating For an Alliance.

New York, April 10.—The World has a story that negotiations are in progress for a combination of the gigantic Carnegie company and the Cramp ship building concern.

If the conference now going on in Atlantic City results in a satisfactory arrangement the coalition between these two great interests will soon be announced.

SABBATH TO BE VIOLATED.

French Authorities Decide Exhibits Must Be Shown on Sunday.

PARIS, April 10.—The French authorities have decided that all exhibits at the exposition are to be open to the public on Sundays and the United States exhibits are, naturally, within this regulation. These exhibits are under cover in buildings erected by the French government, over which the United States authorities have no control and therefore they must abide by the rules established.

The United States pavilion is not within this category, and the question of its being opened or closed on Sunday the French officials have left entirely to Commissioner Peck's desire. He probably will announce today his final decision in the matter.

A WINTER CAMPAIGN FOR THE BRITISH.

Roberts Waiting For Regiments and Heavy Clothing—Boers' Trick Failed at Mafeking.

LONDON, April 10.—Britons are now beginning, though reluctantly, to realize that Lord Roberts is in for a winter campaign, lasting several months. This is the end, in a few words, of the high hopes based upon Lord Roberts' brilliant dash to Kimberley and Bloemfontein.

Preparations are being made to hold Bloemfontein against surprises. Lord Kitchener has been given an important duty, being responsible for the protection of the railway, while Lord Roberts is waiting for reinforcements and winter clothing for the troops, whose thin cotton khaki uniforms and boots are worn out.

General Brabant and General Gatacre are both at a standstill. Lord Roberts will probably for some time confine his operations to clearing the Free State behind him of raiders and to relieve Mafeking, for which purpose, apparently, the Eighth division, now arriving at Cape Town, has been ordered to Kimberley.

Lady Sarah Wilson and other Mafeking correspondents send diaries of the doings there, showing that the Boers have tried, by abandoning their trenches, to lure the besieged out into a mined ambush. Fortunately, the British engineers discovered the mine and the wire communication and unearthed 250 pounds of dynamite and war gelatine.

Mr. Steyn's address to the Free State raad, at Kroonstad, is confirmed. The Fischer-Wolmarans deputation has full power to negotiate for peace, subject to the raad's sanction.

Lady Roberts will remain at Cape Town.

A PECULIAR TREASON TRIAL.

Prisoners Accused of Trying to Hold Over Official as Hostage.

LONDON, April 10.—The correspondent of The Times at Lourenço Marques gives details of a peculiar treason trial which has been proceeding at Johannesburg. Three men were charged with decoying State Engineer Hunnik to a house at the city and suburban mine, with the intention of holding him as a hostage against a destruction of the mining property.

They were also charged with attempting to murder him and with forcing him, under threats, to hand over £200.

May Mean Intervention.

VIENNA, April 10.—The czar and czarina will shortly visit Moscow for a fortnight. The Neue Freie Presse, says that only important politics would induce such a lengthy visit. It is reported the czar goes to Moscow to initiate a movement of the powers for intervention in the Anglo-Boer war.

Cape Minister's Brother Arrested.

CAPE TOWN, April 10.—William Sauer, a brother of the Cape minister of railroads, has been arrested near Barkly East, Cape Colony, on the charge of being a rebel.

St. Helena Prepared For Boers.

LONDON, April 10.—The Daily Mail publishes advice from St. Helena, under date of Saturday, to the effect that the preparations for the reception of the Boer prisoners from South Africa are completed. Three acres of Deadwood plain have been fenced with barbed wire, and the enclosure is surrounded by tents for the guards. Longwood, where Napoleon was confined, has been made ready for Colonel Bathurst, who will command the British troops. The Deadwood water supply has been increased. The inhabitants are pleased with the idea of having the prisoners confined on the island, believing that their presence will give an impetus to trade.

Parallels of Napoleon's Day.

LONDON, April 10.—It is remarked as a peculiar coincidence that the Earl of Bathurst, who has been appointed to guard General Cronje at St. Helena, is a great-grandson of Lord Bathurst, under whose direction Napoleon Bonaparte was deported to St. Helena, and who remained in office as minister of war of the colonies throughout the term of Napoleon's exile.

Denied by State Department.

WASHINGTON, April 10.—The state department authorizes a denial of the published statement that it has practically completed an arrangement for the acquisition of a considerable strip of territory along the route of the proposed Nicaragua canal.

Old to Have Stolen.

MARSHALL, Mich., April 10.—A. O. Hyde, ex-superintendent of the poor of this county, was bound over for trial. His total alleged stealings amounted to $16,000. He paid back $4,000. He is 84 years of age and had held the office 30 years.

Eastern Ohio Medical association was held in Steubenville today. Dr. Lemmon, of Calcutta, was in attendance.
The association may hold its next meeting in this city.

BIGGER THAN BOBBY

PEOPLE WHO, UNDER ENGLISH LAW,
MA LAUGH AT THE POLICE.

The Various Classes of Persons in Great Britain Who Cannot Be Arrested—Royalty, as a Matter of Course, is First on the List.

The other day at the Westminster (England) county court a warrant for the arrest and committal of a solicitor had to be extended for four months more, as, though the solicitor was walking about the streets in the sight of the police, they dared not lay a finger on him. Even the judge seemed surprised that the man could not be arrested. But it is probable he never will be arrested, for, as he carries a charm on his person in the form of a brief, his body cannot be seized. This is because no one engaged on business at a law court can be arrested for any breach of the civil law. If you happen to owe a debt, to have a judgment delivered against you and to be committed to prison for not paying, of course you can be arrested under ordinary circumstances, but if you are subpoenaed as a witness you cannot be arrested while going to the place, while staying there to give evidence or while returning home, and you may feel sure that the courts will stick up for you.

There are many other people who can laugh at the police. Of course no member of the royal family can be arrested under any circumstances. Servants of the royal household also have great privileges in this way.
Should one of the royal servants commit a crime at the command of the crown he could not be arrested. As the crown can do no wrong, of course any order the crown should give would be considered right, and Bobby would not dare to make an arrest.

Then members of parliament, though they can be arrested for some things, are exempt in certain cases where ordinary citizens would certainly be run
in. If a member of the house of commons commits a crime, he can be arrested like any other citizen, but if it is a case of contempt of court, such as not paying debts, he can snap his fingers at the police during the greater part of the year—that is to say, he cannot be arrested while parliament is sitting nor for 40 days before and 40 days after the session. This gives him exemption during about nine-tenths of
the year.

Of course a peer enjoys the same good fortune, and so does a peeress in her own right. But in their case the privilege is still greater, for they cannot be arrested on a civil process at any time, whether parliament is sitting or not. In fact, if the heir to a peerage happens to be in prison for any offense not criminal, he is liberated the moment he succeeds to the title.

Foreign ambassadors may commit any offense, from drunkenness up to murder, without running the slightest risk of seeing the inside of an English prison. And not only have the embas-sadors themselves this privilege, but their secretaries, coachmen, cooks, valets, etc., are equally favored. Individuals, for the theory is that an em-bassador is useless without his dinner, his drives, his shaves and the like.

When an ambassador commits a crime, all that can be done is to ask his government to recall him. But, of course, if he went about the streets knocking many people down he would certainly be arrested and held temporarily. But he could not be tried and punished. The foreign ambassador's house, family and servants are looked upon as if they were in their own country. Under no circumstances could a policeman or bailiff break into the house or arrest any of the inhabitants.

Soldiers, while on service, could run up debts, refuse to pay, and if a judge, after ordering them to pay, without result, issued a warrant for their arrest and committal, no policeman dare execute it unless the amount were over $150. Navy men enjoy the same privileges, but no doubt they seldom get the opportunity of exercising them.

The clergy are another class of men who are sometimes secure against arrest. A clergyman cannot be arrested when he is celebrating divine service or conducting the celebration of rites for the dead; nor can he be touched when going to or returning from either of these duties. Any one breaking the law in this respect might be punished with as much as two years' imprisonment with hard labor.

On Sundays we are all privileged.
No one can be arrested on Sunday except for treason, felony or breach of the peace. If any one tries it on with you, you can resist up to the point of killing him.

A curious rule in connection with arrest is not generally known—if a policeman comes along after a fight or an assault, he can make no arrest without a warrant.—London Tit-Bits.

A Little Bit Too Sensitive.

This cold, hard world has few souls
as sensitive as a young man who killed himself in Paris the other day. His home was in Lyons, and his father had given to him 30,000 francs, or $5,- 000, to establish a branch office of their business in Paris. After he had been in Paris for several days his letters home ceased, and he disappeared from the little circle of friends that he had made. He had seemed a quiet, steady fellow, and he had chosen his new associates with discretion. When they missed him, they wrote to his father, supposing that he knew where his son
was. The father, however, was ignorant of the young man's whereabouts, and the police were summoned and a search made of his apartments. On the bed in his room was found his dead body, with a note by his side, which
said:

"I have lost 25,000 francs of the sum that my father intrusted to me, and as I would not have it believed that I have squandered the money I am killing myself." This furnished a clue, but nothing more could be learned for several days. Finally, when searching the rooms for the young man's property, his pocketbook, with the 25,000 francs, was found in a corner of the bureau drawer, where he had put it
and then forgotten.

Did She Get the Hat?

It was a mean trick, of course, and some day she will doubtless get even with him.

She saw him take a piece of paper
from his pocket, carefully fold it up, put it in an envelope and then place
the envelope in one of the far corners of the drawer of the library table.

"What's that?" she asked.

"Oh, nothing of any consequence,"

he replied.
Now, if he had simply thrown it carelessly into the drawer she would have thought nothing of it, but the care he took to put it clear over in the far corner and the fact that he seemed ill at ease after he found that his action had been observed aroused her curiosity.
She wondered what it was, and she reasoned with herself that he had said it was "nothing of importance," so he would have nobody but himself to blame if she took a look at it. She was justified in inferring from his words that there was no reason why she should not. And this is what she read scribbled on a piece of paper:

"I'll bet you a new hat your curiosity will not permit you to let this alone."
It was a terrible predicament in which to place a woman. How could she claim the new hat without giving herself away?—Chicago Post.

Sensitiveness.

A stewardess, after 15 years' service on one of the transatlantic liners—and an opinion on the subject from a person in her position is undoubtedly to be respected—has this to say about sensitiveness: "Almost everybody is a little sick, but a great many more persons could be less sick than they are
if they would only be careful for a day or two before they sail. Lots of folks going off to Europe eat big dinners and luncheons for two or three days before they start, and as soon as they get the motion of the waves they have really a bilious attack. Sometimes when the crossing is very rough and I have been a little careless in my diet I feel the motion myself, but never when I take proper care. At the slightest dizziness or nausea I stop eating anything at all for eight or ten hours, and above all I never touch tea
at that time. It is the overeating usually before they come on board that makes all the trouble."—New York Post.

Makes Brilliant Flames.

People who live on the New England coast like to use ocean driftwood as fuel in open fireplaces. It is impregnated with copper and ocean salts and when burned gives out the most brilliant colored flames. It is asserted that a New Bedford dealer has orders for the wood from all parts of the country, and even from Europe, and ships hundreds of barrels of it yearly.

Various attempts have been made to imitate this wood by artificial process, but without success. Long submersion in the sea water is necessary to produce the brilliant flames.

There's a greater demand made on the strength of the mother when nursing than at any other time. She has just gone through the shock and strain of maternity, her vitality is at its lowest and the food she eats must nourish two lives.

The natural result is that the mother looks
around for a
"tonic," and generally finds her
tonic in the form of a stimu-
lant, which not only gives the mother no real
strength but is an injury to the child.

It is the concurrent testimony of women who have used Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, that it is the most perfect preparation for motherhood and all its functions which has ever been discovered. It prepares the way for baby's advent, giving the organs of birth vigor and elasticity. It establishes such a condition of health that nervousness, anxiety and morning sickness are unknown. With this condition comes a healthy flow of nourishment for the child, which enables the mother to gratify the fondest instinct of maternity.

"Two years ago I used two bottles of Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription, and in April a nice baby was born, before the doctor came," writes Mrs. Katie Auliker, of 754 Pat Street, Ali-ance, Ohio. "I was not very sick. Baby is now 14 months old and weighs 30 pounds. Now I expect another about August, and I am feeling very well. Several neighbors are using Dr.
Pierce's medicine, through my telling them about it. One lady says, 'before commencing
Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription I had to vomit every day, but after I got the medicine, from the first spoonful that I took, I stopped vomiting.
It has done the same thing for me. It is a God send for women.'"

No alcohol in any form, is contained in "Favorite Prescription," neither opium nor other narcotics. This cannot truthfully be said of any other medicine especially designed for women and sold through druggists.

Sick women are invited to consult Dr.
Pierce by letter, free of all charge. Every letter is treated as strictly private and sacredly confidential, and all replies are enclosed in plain envelopes, bearing no printed matter whatever. Address Dr.

Busy Choir Soloists.

Roman Catholic and Episcopal churches have the credit of providing
the finest and most elaborate music, but the finest music in New York is heard in the Jewish synagogues. It is chiefly sung, however, by the best singers of the Christian churches, who thrillingly "double up" and draw two salaries, a good arrangement for both temples and churches, albeit the churches pay double and sometimes treble the salaries paid by the temples.

The salaries of soloists in the larger American cities range from $800 to $2,500, the latter sum being paid in a single instance. All engagements date from May 1, which is moving time for church singers as well as house movers. Their church salaries form the basis of the soloists' incomes, but many fees are earned as a result of church work. Weddings and funerals yield quite a number, and private recitals at the home entertainments of millionaire church members are weighted with the golden fruit. There are also whole orchards of concerts and oratorios for those capable of shaking the trees.—Success.

New York Town Devastated.

OGDENSBURG, N. Y., April 10.—Cardinal, a thriving village near here, was visited by a disastrous fire, which wiped out the industrial portion of the town.
Among the plants burned were the Edwardsburg starch factory and the electric light company plant of the town.
The loss is estimated at $150,000; insurance, $90,000.

McGiffert's Resignation Accepted.

NEW YORK, April 10.—The resig-

Presbyterian church was accepted by the New York presbytery. The resignation came as a result of charges of heresy preferred by Dr. Birch, stated clerk of the presbytery.

FIRE IN THE POSTOFFICE

Smoke Discovered Curling From the Cellar Just Before Six This Morning.

ALL THE MAILS ARE SAFE

And Being Received and Dispatched as Usual—Loss $2,000, and Possibly $2,500.

STARTED NEAR THE FURNACE.

A fire of mysterious origin occurred in the postoffice building shortly before 6 o'clock this morning, which resulted in a loss of about $2,000. Further investigation may increase this amount to $2,500.

The fire started in the candy factory of Edward Hassey under the postoffice and about the furnace, when he was near the building he saw as can be ascertained there was no fire in the furnace, or any other part of the building with the exception of one gas jet, which was burning near the door leading to the Washington street entrance of the cellar.

The fire was discovered by Thomas B. Mackey at 5:50. He is the first to go to the office in the morning, and when he was near the building he saw some smoke come out of the cracks in the iron grating on Fourth street in front of the building. He went in the postoffice and tried to get down into the cellar, but failed. He ran to the central fire station to notify the department, but when he got there they were about to leave the building an alarm being turned in from box 22, at the corner of Fourth and Washington streets.

When the department arrived at the building it was filled with smoke, which made the fire a hard one to fight. Several lines of hose were played on the cellar, and the flames confined to that part of the building. The floor in the postoffice about the first tier of lock boxes was destroyed, as were the call boxes and contents. The large plate glass windows in the front of the building were badly damaged, as were 11 small panes of glass in the windows on Washington street.

The offices of the Potters' Protective association on the second floor were not damaged.

The building is owned by W. H. Wells, who said this morning he could not place an estimate upon his loss.

All the loose mail in the office when the fire was discovered was saved. The mail from trains 341 and 342 were not opened, and the pouches with the other mails were taken to a place of safety.

Mr. Hassey said he could not tell his exact loss, although he judged it would amount to about $300, covered by insurance.

This morning Postmaster W. H. Burles sent telegrams to division No. 3, of the postal department at Washington, and to Inspector A. P. Owen, at Canton, advising them of the loss.

The fire department deserve credit for their work. The East End department came down in response to the second alarm, and made the trip in 11 minutes.

Special Meeting.

The grocery clerks' union will hold a special meeting this evening and initiate several candidates.

MAHONING GIVES UP.

Youngstown Papers Tell Why There Can Be No Congressman From There.

Youngstown Vindicator.

Even those most bitterly opposed to the Hon. R. W. Tayler, member of congress from this district, must admit that he made a great run and that he has won a notable victory. The result makes futile any effort on the part of Mahoning for any of her favorite Republican sons, and even if it had gone otherwise in Molly Stark it is not likely that this county would have stood the ghost of a show, for there is no disposition among the local Republicans to unite upon any one man, a fact accountable for their frequent overthrows in the congressional conventions.

Youngstown Telegram.

Whatever congressional ambition several Mahoning county men have nurtured in silence for weeks past must now be laid on the shelf for at least two years. The only thing that Mahoning county can now do is to endorse Mr. Tayler with a whoop and instruct her 62 delegates to vote for him. Any Mahoning county man going into that convention as a candidate would be simply bumping his head against a stone wall. It was a lucky thing the local Republican committee held back the selection of Mahoning's delegates until the last minute. Had this not been done some local political ambitions would have been badly punctured in the Alliance convention. As it is now, all is harmonious and quiescent, and Mr. Tayler will be re-nominated and re-elected. He will continue to make, as he has already made, a most painstaking and efficient congressman.

THE COUNTY COURTS.

Several Minor Matters Disposed of at Lisbon This Morning.

Lisbon, April 10.—(Special)—Aneta Lownsberry, of Lisbon, has sued Harrison Clapsaddle, also of Lisbon, to foreclose a mortgage of $1,000 on 68 22-100 acres in Center township.

The will of Susanna Hudson, late of Fairfield township, has been admitted to probate.

Martha McMillan is appointed guardian for Cora B. McMillan, a minor 12 years old, child of Robert A. McMillan, of Wayne township; bond, $800.

Emma M. Costin asks a judgment of $1,634.16 against Anna and Marion Fultz, and the foreclosure of a mortgage on 100 acres in West township.

Sheriff S. D. Noragon will take Mrs. Noragon to Cleveland tomorrow morning to a specialist for rheumatism.

Marriage Licenses.

Louis E. Reno, Rochester, Pa., and Edna C. Grove, Salem.

Fred J. Curry, East Pittsburg, Pa., and Mary Wise, North Georgetown.

Pawnbrokers' Ordinance.

The pawnbrokers' ordinance will be placed on its final reading at council tonight, and upon council depends whether the city shall have a pawnbrokers' shop. It is estimated that the ordinance will not pass, but knowing ones say it will.

Bratt Is Home Again.

Joe Bratt is home again, having been turned loose by the county infirmary directors. They say Bratt is all right if people fail to give him liquor. Columbiana county now has 62 more than her quota of insane patients in the state hospitals.

APPOINTMENTS OF DAVIDSON

He Named the People He Wanted For His Policemen For the Year.

COUNCIL CONFIRMED THEM

Grim, Whan and White, of the Present Force, Will Retire.

EX-SHERIFF GILL AN APPOINTEE

Mayor-elect Davidson, at the caucus held by council last night, presented his list of police appointments and everybody seemed very anxious that they would not get in the newspapers, so the newly-elected marshal, T. V. Thompson, was sent out in the hallway, where the reporters were standing, and ordered them to go downstairs, stating that council now had very important business to transact, as the police appointments were coming up. The reporters of course went downstairs, but strange to say they succeeded in getting the list, and here they are:

Charles Gill.

C. H. Morris.

Clifford Dawson.

H. W. Aufderheide.

Michael Mahony.

Willis Davidson.

The list went through council without a hitch, and the appointees were confirmed without a word from any of the councilmen. President Peach made a speech in which he stated that the council wished to give the mayor every assistance in their power to make his administration a splendid one.

There are some surprises and disappointments among the list, but it is thought that Mayor Davidson has selected a very efficient force. The members of the present force who will retire are Arthur Grim, John Whan and Frank White. Of the new force Aufderheide was a candidate for marshal at the last city primary, C. H. Morris was formerly physical director of the Young Men's Christian association, Charles Gill is ex-sheriff, and Clifford Dawson is a well-known potter of the city. Davidson and Mahoney are members of the present police force.

It will be noticed that council has increased the force one man, and it will be composed of six officers when the new mayor assumes charge of the city government.

HIS COMMITTEES.

President Marshall Will Announce Them at the Meeting of Council Tonight.

R. J. Marshall, the new president of council, was not ready with his committees at the caucus held last night, but will present them to council at the meeting to be held this evening. It is not known who Marshall will put on his committees, but it is a safe guess that Peach will be the chairman of the street committee.

Putting Up the Cells.

The new cells for the city jail are being placed in position today. It will not be long before the jail is ready to receive women and children prisoners in style.

DEMONSTRATED.

The Merits of the New Gas to Be Manufactured In This City at the Central School.

A meeting of the stockholders of the Gas Apparatus and Construction company was held last evening and an additional subscription of $2,000 was secured to complete the plant. The stockholders met in the science room at the central school building, and the merits of the gas the new company intend to manufacture were shown by tests made by Prof. H. E. Hall. The tests were highly satisfactory.

Work on the partially completed plant will be resumed probably next week, and the plant will be placed in operation in May. When completed the factory will have cost in the neighborhood of $9,000.

ANNUAL INSPECTION.

Sanitary Officer Burgess is Busy Notifying People to Clean Their Yards.

Sanitary Officer Burgess is busy these days notifying people to clean up, and he finds that about one out of every six yards needs a thorough cleaning, and one out of every three needs some cleaning. He is now working in the central part of the city, and so far has found it to be in a very healthful condition. The officer is not confining his inspection to the yards, but is also looking after the cellars, believing that they are more of a menace to the public health than anything else, when they are not kept clean.

Line is Located.

The location of the street car line in the Diamond has at last been fixed, but it took the attention of several members of council before it was arranged. The way the line was first laid out it ran almost against the curb on the west side of the street. It is now located as near the center as possible.

To the Home.

The township trustees have one or two children to send to the Children's home in Alliance, but it is not known when they will be sent.

Two Candidates.

The Senior Mechanics at their meeting Thursday have one candidate for the first degree and one for the third degree.

SHOT THROUGH THE RIGHT LUNG

A Serious Accident Befell Don T Mowen in the East End Early This Morning

WHILE HE WAS DUCK HUNTING

Picked the Gun From the Ground and the Trigger Caught on a Stone.

HIS RECOVERY IS DOUBTFUL

Don T. Mowen, aged 23, a son of Dr. W. E. Mowen, of Mulberry street, East End, was accidentally shot through the right lung. His condition is very low and the chances for his recovery are few.

Young Mowen, in company with Robert McArton, a young man well known in the suburb, arranged to go out duck hunting last evening. About 6 o'clock this morning the boys started out. They went up the river shore to a point opposite the foot of Line island. The boys laid their guns down on the shore and sat down on the stump of an old tree. Soon afterward Mowen said he would go farther up the shore, and caught the gun by the muzzle, pulling it toward him. As he did so the gun was discharged and a heavy charge of No. 5 shot was sent through his right lung.

McArton, with the assistance of friends placed the wounded boy in a skiff and brought him down to the head of Babb's island, and from there he was carried to the home of his uncle, William C. Randall, on Virginia avenue.

Drs. Bailey, Hobbs, Ikirt and Marshall were summoned and they, with the young man's father did everything possible to relieve his suffering.

At a late hour this afternoon there was no change in his condition, although everything possible was being done to save his life.

Mowen came to this city with his father last fall. He was employed as a collector for the Metropolitan Life Insurance company. He was very bright and had a host of friends.

TROOPER TAYLER

Wrote From Manila About Cavalry Operations in the South—III With Fever.

A. B. Taylor, of 313 Fifth street, has received a letter from his son, James E. Taylor, Troop B, Fourth U. S. Cavalry, now at Manila. Trooper Taylor is just recovering from a severe attack of fever, contracted while serving with the troops in southern Luzon.

Accompanying the letter were clippings from the Manila Times, giving an account of the cavalry operations under General Schwan in Cavite, Batangas, Laguna and Tayabas, south of Manila, in which Trooper Taylor took part.

Grim-Whan Bills.

Claims committee took no action on the Grim-Whan judgments last night, and they were not presented for payment. It is stated that they will come up in council tonight and Attorney Clark will be present to talk on the subject.

SUBURBAN NEWS.

EAST END.

A little child of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Tinson, of First avenue, who has been seriously ill for the past year, is on the road to recovery. The child has been very ill at times and its condition has been critical.

The first of a series of special services was begun in the Second Presbyterian church last evening. The attendance was very large and the meeting very interesting. Rev. Layenberger, of Toronto, officiated at the meeting last evening, and this evening Rev. Simpson, of Salineville, will preside.

Mrs. Eva Beech, employed as a taker off at the East End pottery, was taken violently ill about noon yesterday with convulsions. She complained of feeling ill early in the morning, and at noon her condition became worse. Restoratives were applied and she was removed to her home in West End in a carriage.

Dr. William M. Calhoun, of Virginia avenue, left for Richmond, Jefferson county, yesterday afternoon, where he will remain several days attending the settlement of his father's estate.

A little son of William Coleman, of near Ralston crossing, accidentally stepped on a nail Saturday evening, causing a painful injury.

William Bradley has taken a position as car cleaner at the power house.

There is very little sickness in the suburb at present, and those who are ill are rapidly recovering. For the past few weeks the physicians have had all the business they could possibly attend to.

The sewer pipe works has suspended operations on account of a shortage of coal. The plant will be started as soon as a sufficient supply is received.

A new fire plug has been placed in Helana near the residence of John Schmelzenbach. Another plug will be erected soon near the new school house.

Mrs. George McKinnon is able to be out after a severe attack of asthma.

A quarrel among the members of a prominent family in the suburb is causing some talk at present.

The East End Brick company is now operating its plant to its fullest capacity. The company have a large number of orders on hand and a long run is expected.

Saturday evening four well-known young men living in this end of town jumped an east bound freight train and left for parts unknown. The boys, it is said, are indebted to the city, and the collectors representing Mayor Bough have been after them for several days, but they have not yet been located.

CHILD'S CREDITORS.

Proceeds of the Recent Sale Distributed Among Some of the Deserving.

Lisbon, April 10.—(Special.)—The decree was today placed on the court journal in the case of E. P. Burnett vs. M. J. Child. The court confirmed the sale of the properties to Charles Coburn, and distributed the proceeds arising from the sale as follows: To Mrs. Jane Child $130.16 as her contingent dower, also $500 in lieu of a homestead; E. P. Burnett, $684.17, Anna E. Green $135.86, Heller Bros., $41.59, and the remainder to J. B. Callahan, of Coshocton.

A Chimney Fire.

A chimney fire at the residence of W. M. McLure, Sixth street, yesterday afternoon aroused the neighborhood, but the blaze was extinguished with the aid of the department.

SOUTH SIDE.

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Cornelius Wylie, of Middle Run, will be pleased to know that a little son came to their home Sunday evening.

Thomas Stevenson has been offered a good price for a portion of his farm adjoining the Marks farm. The parties after the land are from Pittsburgh and Washington, Pa., and leases for them are being secured by a Mr. McLaughlin, of Georgetown. An attempt was made to secure a lease on the Hugh Newell farm, but in both instances the parties refused to lease. A shaft mine, it is said, will be put down in the vicinity of the Stevenson farm very soon, and to strike coal the shaft will only be 60 feet in depth.

Chester will have a ball team this summer. A number of young men have arranged to hold a meeting in the Mechanics' hall during the next few weeks, when all the details will be arranged and the players selected. It is the intention to form a county league with clubs in Fairview, New Cumberland and Chester.

Justice of the Peace Wash. Johnson was in Chester yesterday looking after some new business, but in this he was unsuccessful. He intended to move his family to the Southside during March, but this has been deferred until next fall.

Arthur Stewart, one of the numerous candidates for sheriff of Hancock county, was in town yesterday. He said he was sure of being elected.

Workmen yesterday begun grading on Caroline avenue.

Thomas Campbell has commenced the erection of a new frame residence on Virginia avenue.

John Neville has constructed a platform at the street car shop, opposite his residence, on Carolina avenue.

The Chester Mechanics, at their meeting last evening, received several new applications and initiated two candidates. The charter of the lodge has been open for several weeks, and a large number of new members have been taken in the order.

Justice Johnson will receive $5 for holding an inquest in the death of John Cummings.

It is the intention of the young men of the Southside to put up Henry Riley as a candidate for county commissioner from this part of Hancock county. There are three commissioners to be elected next fall, and the claim is made that at least one commissioner should reside in or near Chester.

PULLMAN PARLOR CARS.

Improving the Train Service to Pittsburgh and Cleveland via Pennsylvania Lines.

New Pullman parlor cars have taken the place of the parlor cars running on trains Nos. 337 and 338, between Pittsburgh and Cleveland over the Pennsylvania lines. The new cars are the latest pattern turned out by the Pullman company and are finished and furnished in a substantial manner. They have roomy and comfortable revolving arm chairs, wide plate glass windows, commodious smoking apartment and a large retiring room for ladies. This room is fitted up with dresser and plate glass mirror. The new cars leave East Liverpool for Cleveland at 2:49 p. m. and for Pittsburgh at 7:04 p. m., central time, week days.

FORESHADOWINGS.

We may not look across the misty tide
Or hear or feel the breath of passing wings,
Yet seen and unseen weave their fringes wide,
And nature teems with clear foreshadowings.

Not in wild storms of crashing thunder rung,
But in deep silences that brood about,
Without a word from hissing lip or tongue
She cheers the faith that wrestles with a doubt.

From brown cocoons the winds have tossed and whirled,
Broad wings of gold beat up the viewless air,
And dry seed germs that wander round the world Are quick with strange unfoldings rich and rare.

The sharded beetle bred in marshy fen
Transfigured soars above his riven shell
On flashing wings before the gaze of men,
A royal birth, a living truth as well.

And still, sweet voices speak the ages through;
No germ is lost, but lives forevermore.
The seed unfolds to fairer life anew,
And from the dust strong pinions mount and soar.

RINGS ON YELLOW PINES.

Two Circles of New Fiber Blending
Into One Mark Each Year.

"It is very curious to note the successive growth circles of our yellow pines," said a veteran lumberman from the Pearl river district. "Until my attention was especially directed to the subject by a forestry expert a few years ago I had no idea that the markings were so beautifully clear and distinct. The tree acquires two rings of new fiber every year, one in the spring and one in the fall, but they blend together and form a single, well defined circle.

"During the first ten years these successive accumulations are of about equal thickness, and for the next two decades the diminution is very slight, but after that the rings become thinner and thinner, and when the tree gets in to the eighties and nineties the growth is very slight indeed—in fact, a mere film. Nevertheless the ring is always formed as long as the tree lives and can be clearly discerned with a glass after it ceases to be visible to the naked eye.

"During the visit of the expert to whom I referred we cut a good deal of timber on my place ranging between 16 and 18 inches in diameter. 'That tree is 125 years old,' he would say 'that one is 100, that is about 140,' and so on. Afterward we measured the growth rings with the instruments he carried, and in every instance he had hit the age within a few years. It seemed wonderful, but was simply the result of experience combined with an accurate eye.

"There are some very ancient pine trees in the Pearl river district, and many of them figure in the traditions and folklore of the settlers in their neighborhood. There are a couple of such patriarchs on a tract near my mill, and when the standing timber of the place was recently sold I am glad to say they were especially accepted in the terms of the contract. It would have seemed like murder to some of the country folks if they had been cut down."—New Orleans Times-Democrat.

Performed Too Well.

"The man whom I shall marry," said the proud beauty, "must perform three tasks."

"Name the first," said the lover.
"Go and umpire a ball game."
He bowed and departed.

After two months he returned, having been discharged from the hospital cured.
"Name the second task," he said.
"Go and act as judge of the Asbury Park baby show."
Again he departed.

In a week he presented himself again.
"Attend a meeting of a bicycle club and state which, in your opinion, is the best make of wheel."

He went and he returned.
"Dearest," he said, "I am still in the ring. At last you will be mine!"

"I have changed my mind," said the maiden. "In the first place, I could not marry a man of your present personal appearance. In the second place, I should be afraid to marry a man with such a record for pugnacity. Forgive me."

After thinking the matter over he forgave her. He thought he might as well do so.

And so they were not married.—Brooklyn Life.

NEW COUNCILMEN HELD A CAUCUS

B. J. Marshall Elected President;
and J. T. Smith Vice President.

HANLEY TO GET A RAISE

Two New Members Elected to Serve on the Board of Health.

CLINT MORLEY REAPPOINTED.

Council held a caucus at city hall
last night and all members were present except Heddleston, the newly-elected member from the First ward.

The first business was to exclude
the reporters, and then President Peach announced that there were two candidates for president, R. J. Marshall and J. T. Smith. A ballot was taken and Marshall received seven votes and Smith two. The election of Marshall was made unanimous upon a motion by Smith.

Smith and McHenry were placed in nomination for the vice presidency,
and the ballot resulted in favor of Smith by a vote of seven to two. His election was made unanimous.

Peach announced that there were
two members of the board of health
to select and Mr. Chambers and Mr.
Keefer were the retiring members.
Dr. Mowen and Dr. Norris were selected as members of the board.

The board of equalization came next
and the announcement was made that George Grosshans and John Peake
were the retiring members. The names of George Grosshans, J. C.
Cain, T. H. Arbuckle and Smith Fowler were suggested for the board. The first ballot resulted as follows: Gross-
hans 7, Fowler 6, Arbuckle 4, Cain 1.
Grosshans was declared elected and
his name was dropped from the list
and another ballot taken. This one gave Fowler 6, Arbuckle 2, Cain 1. The third and fourth ballots resulted the same way, and on the fifth ballot Cain
was dropped and Fowler got 6 and Arbuckle 3. The sixth ballot resulted
the same, but on the seventh ballot
Fowler got 7 and Arbuckle 2. Fowler and Grosshans were then declared elected.

James N. Hanley was re-elected clerk, and Marshall called attention to the fact that he thought the city clerk should have more than $50 per month for attending to the city business, as he spent all his time at it.
He moved that the salary be increased from $50 to $75 per month in order that he might get an expression
from the members. Nice thought that was too big a jump, and suggested that it be made $65 per month. This met with the favor of the councilmen and
an ordinance will be prepared to be presented to the old council tonight
and passed before they adjourn sine
die.

J. A. George was chosen city engineer and Clint Morley fire chief.

IN A FEW DAYS

The New Wharf Boat Will Be Here.
Secured from a Monongahela
River Town.

Wharfmaster William Pilgrim when
seen this morning said: "We expect
to have our new wharf boat here
within a few days. The boat is being secured from a town up the Monongahela river, and will be about as large as the one destroyed by fire Saturday night.

The hull of the old boat has filled with water and has settled to the bottom of the river. Mr. Pilgrim said today that nothing could be saved.

HOLY WEEK SERVICES.

Observance of Ceremonies in the Catholic Church During the Present Week.

This is observed as Holy week by the Catholic church. It began with the special Palm Sunday services. Tomorrow the chanting of the solemn
offices of the Tenebrae or darkness
will begin and will be continued each evening until Friday. Thursday the holy eucharist is commemorated with great ceremony. On this day also
the sacred oils, used in the administration of many of the sacraments
and rites of the Catholic church, are blessed and distributed by each
bishop to his clergy, all of whom
must attend in person. At the mass Thursday the celebrant consecrates
two hosts, one for use on that occasion and the other to be consumed
at the mass of the presanctified on Good Friday, when no consecration takes place. Good Friday all the officiating clergy are robed in black
and the services are of the most solemn description. On holy Saturday what is known as Easter holy water
is blessed and distributed.

Easter Sunday is entirely a joyous festival, commemorating the resurrection of Christ.

TO OUR FIRE LADDIES.

Postmaster Will H. Surles Returns
Warm Thanks to the Department.

Editor News Review: Permit me,
through the columns of your popular
journal, to return my sincere thanks
to Chief Morley and the members of
the city fire department for their splendid and skillful work in subduing
and holding under control the fire
this morning in the postoffice department. Let me also embrace in this article all the citizens who so generously and unselfishly rendered the postoffice employees and myself such valuable aid. I fully realize the advantage of "friends in need are friends
indeed."

Let me also say to the public at large that mails are being received
and distributed as usual.

Not Self Made.

"I am sorry to disappoint you, young man," said the great railway magnate
to the reporter who had called in for the purpose of writing him up, "but I did not begin at the bottom and work my way up. I never blacked
the boots of the engine wipers and
never carried beer for the janitor of
the roundhouse. I was kicked through college by my father, inherited a fortune, which I invested in railroad shares, and I hold this job because I have votes enough to control it. It is too bad, my young friend, but we can't
all be self made men. We would become tiresome." And he bowed the caller out.—Chicago Tribune.

The Shark's Mouth.

No doubt the shark's mouth is placed so much beneath the projecting muzzle, under which also the nostrils lie, that it may serve its proper purpose in the best way. In all records of the habits of the fish we are told that it can and does bite out large chunks of
flesh from the dead bodies of whales
and even from living victims of its attacks, and it is easily seen that if its
mouth was like that of other fishes the
necessary leverage would be lacking.
A further reason seems to be that the
shark by this peculiar position of its
mouth is compelled to turn upon its
back to strike and is thus able to deliver its onset from below with more deadly effect.

This formidable strength of jaw is backed up by a most terrible array of
teeth, of which in some species there
are as many as six rows all around.
Each tooth is saw edged and pointed,
and some of the largest are as much as
two inches in breadth at the base.
These lie flat against the jaws and can
be raised by separate muscles at will,
so that, as the shark darts upon its
prey, they spring on end, as a cat's claws are stuck out from its paws.
This arrangement will not allow anything once bolted to return, so that a shark's mouth is a veritable death trap.

Honest Confession.

"Young man," said the careful father, "if I consent to you marrying my daughter will you furnish her the luxuries to which she is accustomed?"

"Well," said the young man, "it is more than likely that I won't be buying her as many theater admissions as I have been doing for the past year."—

A Remarkable Building.

The tabernacle at Salt Lake City is,
in respect to its acoustic properties,
the most remarkable place of worship
in the world. It is constructed to hold 25,000 people, yet it is possible for a person standing at one end to distinctly hear the sound of a pin dropped into
a hat at the other, a test of its curious
power to convey sound which is offered
to every stranger who is shown over
the building.

A Perfect Gentleman.

"So you proposed to Miss De Vere?" exclaimed Miss Cayenne.
"Yes," answered Willie Washington, "yesterday evening."
"What did she say?"
"I don't remember. I heard her tell a friend she was going to see how many proposals she could get this season, and I thought it would only be polite of me to help out."—Washington

Next November the question will be what did they do to Dewey?

Mayor Bough is a good collector,
and knows how to get money coming
to the city.

With Marshall in the chair Pennsylvania avenue shouldn't figure very
much this year.

The new council began life very harmoniously. Wonder how long they will keep it up?

The excellence of the East Liverpool fire department was again demonstrated this morning.

With two former candidates for
city marshal on his force, Mayor Davidson should have a good administration.

It is remarkable how many people in the city look like George Hecka-thorne now that he is wanted by the police.

It is hoped that Mayor Davidson's
police force will fit the brass buttons
and gold braid ordered by the police
committee.

Alf. Austin, the English laureate, ought to get off something good on
that Dublin visit. "Queen" and
"green" are easy.

George changed his mind on the presidency and Mrs. Dewey changed
her's on religion, and both changed their residence. Changeable family.

City Marshal T. V. Thompson per-
formed the first duties of his office
last night by putting the reporters
downstairs when the council wanted
to caucus. Thompson is all right and performed his first duty in an able
manner.

Council did the proper thing last night when they decided to raise the salary of Clerk Hanley. There is not
a more efficient or accommodating person in the employ of the city, and

small for the amount of work he does.

Rhode Island's state election will be held tomorrow. There are eight states which hold elections for state officers
before November. They are: Alabama, August 6; Arkansas, September
3; Georgia, October 3; Louisiana,
April 17; Maine, September 10; North Carolina, August 2; Oregon, June 2;
Vermont, September 4.

Trying to Find His Money.

Alliance Star.
Judge Firestone, of Lisbon, is the owner of a considerable frontage on Main street, Alliance. When the street was paved, nearly two years ago, he was charged with his due portion of the cost, and a snug sum it
was. Not long ago the amiable judge was in Alliance looking after his business interests. From his property he essayed to cross Main street, which
was covered with liquefied earth to a depth of five or six inches. With evident misgivings as to the outcome, he
plunged from the curbstone and started upon his voyage. He had not gone half a dozen steps when the adhesive
force of the mud pulled off one of his overshoes. While the judge was wabbling about trying to balance himself
on one foot and steer the other into
the submerged rubber, a friend accosted him and inquired what he was doing.

"I've got $450 dollars planted here somewhere," he answered, "and I'm trying to find it."

Don't Know When They're Licked.

Steubenville Gazette.
The Y. M. C. I. suffered defeat at the hands of the East Liverpool boys Saturday night, going up against an entirely different team from that
which played here several weeks ago,
some of the East Liverpool players
being of immense build, and as a result little basket ball was played, the
contest developing into a foot ball game. The home boys were handicapped
by the field, which was not one-
half the size of Garrett's hall and entirely too small for basket ball, so
their defeat by a score of 19 to 9 is
no reflection on their playing ability.
The boys are anxious for a third contest on neutral grounds and will concede anything to get a game.

MAYOR BOUGH'S BUSIEST DAY

Money Came on Foot, In Trolley Cars and Even Over the Telephone Yesterday.

OLD FINES BEING PAID IN

His Honor Says It Was Without Doubt the Busiest Day Ever Seen at City Hall.

IS AT WORK ON HIS REPORTS.

Mayor Bough was the busiest man
in the city yesterday and he took
money in at a rapid rate, some people even trying to pay it to him over the telephone.

The offenders, who had old fines
standing against them, were all notified to call before the mayor retired
from office, and all of yesterday there
was a constant stream of people to
the office to see him and find out what they owed to make them square with
the city. Last night the court room
was filled with people, eager to pay up
in order to save themselves a trip to the works.

Today the mayor is busy making out
his annual and monthly reports, and
stated that he was too busy to foot up
how much he took in yesterday and
how many people called on him, but he thought it was the largest day's business the office ever had.

The only occupant of the city jail is Dallas Smith, who was arrested for not paying an old fine. It is expected he will get the cash before this evening.

MEXICAN POTTERY.

A Man Who Knows About It Says
Something on the Subject.

Captain C. W. Riggs, who has spent many years in Mexico, and who has a varied knowledge of that country's pottery, throws some light on the prevailing difficulty in securing good specimens of Mexican ware. There is really not a single pottery in Mexico
that is worthy the name. Whatever is produced there in the way of pottery is more of a haphazard product
than the result of an established manufactory. It is a harder matter to get pottery from Mexico than from any place in the world. It is not packed properly, and when the custom officers examine the packages they exercise no care whatever, with the result that nine pieces out of ten that
reach this country are broken. Dealers in this country who desire to come in contact with some Mexican pottery
should write to the United States consul at Guadalajara, Old Mexico, and
he will place him in communication
with some pottery in that section,
but it is safe to say that one order
will suffice to prove the impracticability of handling this ware.—Green Book.

erably, and they have not very many peo-

THE BISHOP AND DIPLOMAT.

Illustration of a Diplomatic Attitude
Toward Religion.

In the "Life of Archbishop Benson"
by his sons occurs the entertaining
and extremely suggestive passage:

I shall never forget a conversation
between the ambassador of a foreign power and my father. The former was dining at Lambeth, a genial, intelligent man, very solicitous to be thoroughly in touch with the social life of the country to which he had been accredited. After dinner the embassador, in full diplomatic uniform, with a ribbon and stars, sitting next to my father, said politely:

"Does your grace reside much in the country?"

My father said that as archbishop he was provided with a country house and
town.

"Now, does your grace go to church in the country?" with an air of genial
inquiry, turning round in his chair.

"Yes, indeed!" said my father. "We have a beautiful church almost in the park, which the village people all go
to."

"Yes," said the ambassador meditatively, "yes, I always go to church myself in the country. It is a good thing to show sympathy with religious feeling; it is the one thing which combats socialistic ideas. I think you are very wise, your grace, to go."

My father said that he felt as if he
and the ambassador were the two augurs as represented in Punch.

"I did my best," said my father, "to persuade him that I was a Christian,
but he listened to all that I said with a charming expression, implying, 'We
are men of the world and understand
each other.' I am sure that he thought that I was speaking diplomatically and
in purely conventional language, and
that if we had known each other better
I should have thrown off the mask and avowed myself as free a thinker as he."

BATTLE COURAGE.

In Action the Animal Nature Takes
Full Possession of Man.

At home, in a progressive community, a man may be a coal heaver or a bank clerk; but, whatever his station,
the environment of civilizing influence
is strong upon him, and most of his chances for the display of courage
come to the moral side of his nature.
But out in the open, with most of the
trammels cast off and the enemy in
front, with the ripple of the colors
about him and, more than all, the feeling that comes from companionship in
a common danger with many of his
fellows, it is the animal that gains su-premaccy. And man, being by nature a brave and fearless animal—the most fearless of all the animal species—simply remains true to his birthright and
goes through the ordeal in the natural way.

What can be the deduction? There is only one. It is that battle gallantry
and battle brutality, springing as they both do from the same source, must necessarily be allied. You cannot slip
the leash of a bloodhound and stop him
half way to his scent. If any proof were needed to make the fact of inherent bravery and—the other thing—
certain it is to be found in the marvelous change in face, manner and even
speech that comes over nearly every
man when he is engaged in battle.

It may be urged that the excitement
of being under fire would be sufficient
reason for this callousness, but such an explanation will not account for the entire subversion of a man's whole life
training. The real reason is that at such times it is the animal nature that
takes full and complete possession of the human body.—Chicago Times-Herald.

His First Earnings.

A few years ago a large party, headed by the Duke of Norfolk, went on a tour through the continent. The duke busied himself very much on the journey in a kind hearted way about the welfare of every one in the party. At every station he used to get out and go round to see if he could do anything for any one. One old woman, who did not know him, when she arrived at last
in Rome, tired and hot, found great difficulty in getting a porter. So she seized on the duke.

"Now, my good man," she said, "I've noticed you at all these stations loafing about. Just make yourself useful for once in your life. Take my bag and
find me a cab."

The duke mildly did as he was bid
and was rewarded with a sixpence.

The Public and Opera.

There is a general opinion that the stockholders support the opera, and
that the general public may consider
itself highly privileged to be admitted
at all to the sacred precincts. As a matter of fact, if the opera depended
for its existence upon the support of the stockholders, the doors of the Metropolitan Opera House would never be open. The bottom would drop out of the whole enterprise. The parquet
and the galleries are the manager's chief reliance. Opera is not a social function; it is a public institution, and
without the public's support would collapse like a house of cards.—Ainslee's Magazine.

Seeing and Knowing.

An eminent lord chief justice who
was trying a right of way case had before him a witness, an old farmer, who
was proceeding to tell the jury that he had "known the path for 60 year, and my feyther towld I as he heard my grandfeyther say"—

"Stop!" cried the judge. "We can't have any hearsay evidence here."

"No!" exclaimed Farmer Gilles.
"Then how dost know who thy feyther
was, 'cept by hearsay?"

After the laughter had subsided the judge said, "In courts of law we can only be guided by what you have seen with your eyes and nothing more nor less."

"Oh, that be blowed for a tale!" replied the farmer. "I ha' got a pile on
the back of my neck, and I never seed
'un, but I be prepared to swear he's
there, dang 'un!"

This second triumph on the part of
the witness set in a torrent of hearsay
evidence about the footpath, which obtained weight with the jury, albeit the
judge told them it was not testimony of any value, and the farmer's party
won.

Grandfather's Hymns.

The Contributors' Club in The Atlantic gives some information concerning "grandfather's" hymns: "Imagine
them and their good wives gathered in the New England meeting house, trol-
ling forth such 'spiritual songs' as the
book preserves for us:

"Then, blooming friends, a long farewell;
We're bound to heaven, but you to hell.
Still God may hear us while we pray
And change you ere the burning day."

"And, be it observed, this 'burning
day' to them was something as definite
as washing day. This was none of
your vague purgatorial way stations,
but as fiery a pit of torment as the imagination can well conceive. Here
is a glimpse of it:

"Hark, the shrill outcries of the guilty wretches!
Lively bright horror and amazing anguish
Stare through their eyelids, while the living worms lies Gnawing within them."

Claims Committee Didn't Pay
Claims For Attending
Prisoners.

the Township Trustees.

CLAIM AGAINST CITY EMPLOYEE.

Claims committee of council met last evening with McHenry and Smith present.

A bill from Dr. L. O. Williams for $25.50 for attending prisoners, and one from Dr. W. W. Hamilton for $2 for the same kind of service caused some discussion. Somebody remarked that the committee had started trouble by paying physicians for attending prisoners, and McHenry thought a stop should be put to it at once. Smith thought it should be set down on at the start, and McHenry said he didn't believe in doctoring a lot of people who could get along without it, but in cases of necessity it was all right. They finally wound up the discussion by referring the bill to the township trustees. Williams' bill covered a period from April 6, 1899.

W. E. Wells presented a bill for $10.61 against a city employee, but council took no action on the matter, as this was a new thing to them. There is an ordinance which requires city employees to pay their debts, but this is the first time anybody ever took advantage of the ordinance. The committee didn't pay the bill and somebody remarked that if they started to pay bills of that kind it would keep them busy.

Irwin Allison presented a bill for $1.50 for setting up the election booth in the East End fire station, but the bill was referred to council for payment. The following bills were then ordered paid:

Ceramic City Light company, $609.58; George Mounts, $5; Wilson Stationery company, $1.25; John Spence, $50; G. L. Frederick, $8.45; H. C. Walter, $3; Watson & Sloan, $8.55; Patterson Foundry and Machine company, $4.50; E. Grant, $1.50; Tribune, $85.92; salary of fire department, $540; supplies for the fire department, $120.87; John M. Ryan, $1.75; News Review, $43.88; W. H. Adams, $4.69; J. H. Harris, $60; C. H. Coburn, $2; Sarah Haught, $12; East Liverpool Pottery company, $5.40; board of health, $200; Alex. Baker, $2.50; street department, $359.75; James N. Today.

A gang of small boys made life miserable for a garbage hauler at noon today. The boys were armed with old potatoes and followed the man down Fifth street, throwing them at him. He finally left his wagon and chased the boys, but failed to catch any of them. They started in as hard as ever after he got on his wagon. The police should be informed of the affair and the small boys of this city should be taught a much needed lesson.

SENATOR CLARK IS UNSEATED

The United States Senate Committee Unanimously Decides to Turn Down the

MILLIONAIRE FROM MONTANA

Copper King Daly's Big Fight Against His Rival Proves Successful at Last.

STORY OF A FAMOUS CASE.

Washington, D. C., April 10.—(Special.)—The senate committee, which has been investigating the charges brought against Senator William A. Clark, of Montana, of having bought his seat, reported today unanimously in favor of unseating him.

The investigation was made under a resolution adopted in the senate December 7, that the committee on privileges and elections be directed to investigate the right of William A. Clark to a seat as senator from the state of Montana. The basis of the case was a petition presented December 4, when the senate convened. It prayed that at the earliest practicable moment the senate committee should inquire into the charges made that Clark had influenced and corrupted members of the Montana legislature to vote for him. The petition was signed by Robert B. Smith, governor of Montana; T. E. Collins, state treasurer; Henry C. Stiff, speaker of the house of representatives; Thos. W. Poindexter, state auditor; A. J. Campbell, member of congress, and Charles S. Hartman, ex-member of congress from Montana.

During the hearing of the case many sensational accusations were made. It also developed that the fight was a result of a fight previously made by Clark to wrest the control of Montana politics from Daly, the copper king. He succeeded in doing so, but gave Daly an opportunity to carry the fight to the United States senate, with the result stated. Clark is a multi-millionaire copper king, and the testimony showed that thousands of dollars changed hands during his race for the senate.

Clark is a Democrat; his term would have lasted until 1905. He is a lawyer by profession and was born in Pennsylvania in 1847. The other senator from Montana is Thomas H. Carter, ex-national Republican chairman, whose term expires next year.

Shattered Diamonds.

"Under certain conditions, which are very rare and remarkable," said an old jeweler, "a diamond may be shattered to atoms by a smart, sudden blow. The stone seems to disintegrate and fly apart, as nearly as I can express it, and when the Kimberley gems first came into the market the Brazilian brokers claimed that they were especially subject to that kind of accident. For the time being the story had its effect on trade, but it was proved to be untrue, and the incident is now forgotten. In the course of an experience of nearly 40 years I have known of only two cases of diamonds being broken.

"One occurred many years ago, when I was working in a shop in the old Reid House in Chattanooga. A lady customer dropped a cluster brooch from the counter to the tiled floor, a distance of about 3½ feet. It struck squarely on the center stone, which was broken into a number of small, irregular fragments. The diamond had weighed about two carats.

"The other instance took place here in New Orleans about six years ago. A St. Louis traveling man named Crawford had a solitaire weighing 1½ carats set in a ring. He was standing in the store and while conversing about something made a sudden gesture and struck the stone against a metal fixture. It was split into small, jagged splinters, a number of which we found on top of the showcase. The drummer himself was the most astonished man I ever saw. He had supposed diamonds were indestructible simply because they were hard."—New Orleans Times-Democrat.

Why He Was Arrested.

"There is such a thing as being altogether too clever."

"You think so?"

"I know it. I was walking along the street yesterday when I noticed a $5 note lying on the pavement. I stooped to pick it up, but it looked like a counterfeit, so I passed on."

"And the note turned out to be a good one, of course?"

"No, it did not, but I was arrested before I had gone ten steps farther."

"Arrested? What for?"

"For passing counterfeit money."

Speech and Ambidexterity.

"Here's a scientist," she said, looking up from the paper, "who asserts that the reason people are right handed is that the motor speech function controls the right side of the body and consequently right handedness grows with speech."

FUNSTON IN A MESS.

Kansas General May Be Court-martialed.

HUNG NATIVES WITHOUT TRIAL.

Belonged to Band Which Was Intending to Kill Captured Maccabebe Scouts, Which Was Dispersed—Strong Feeling That Panu Should Be Punished.

MANILA, April 10.—An interesting topic of conversation in army circles is the investigation of Brigadier General Frederick Funston's execution of two Filipinos and the possibility of a court-martial resulting therefrom. The story is that the Filipinos captured three Maccabebe scouts who were crossing the country near San Isidro and were preparing to kill them when one of the Maccabebes escaped and found General Funston with a scouting party near. This man guided the Americans to the rescue of his companions, and when the troops approached the Filipinos fled, leaving the Maccabebes. Several of the Filipinos were shot and General Funston captured two of them, took them to the village square and hung them without trial as a warning to the Filipinos. The present method of warfare and instances of the mutilation of prisoners have incensed the American soldiers to such a degree that they feel justified in making reprisals, which has been done on several occasions recently.

There is a strong feeling among the residents and friendly Filipinos that the Chinese general, Panu, who, as announced March 31, surrendered to Brigadier General Kobbé, after terrorizing the province of Panay, should be severely punished. It is pointed out that his career has been more that of a brigand than of a soldier, as he looted and extorted money by torture from wealthy natives and burned alive some of his followers who intended to desert him. It is believed Panu surrendered because he feared his own men, and that he expected to be paroled, like other officers, and enjoy the fruits of his brigandage.

CHAPLAIN REPORTED IMPROVEMENT.

Army Canteen in Manila Replaces the Gin Shacks of the Natives.

WASHINGTON, April 10.—Chaplain Pierce, in a report to the war department, particularly antagonizes the ex-chaplain of volunteers who made the charge of wholesale intoxication and of the enormous increase in the number of liquor drinking saloons in Manila. The chaplain declares that the figures had been perverted, that the American saloon took the place of an untold number of native gin shacks, which dispensed liquid poison with deplorable effect upon the American troops, and that the substitution of the regimental canteen has resulted in an improvement in the sobriety of the troops.

Chaplain Pierce also speaks in terms of high praise of the reformation of the critical conditions in Manila, its cleansing and sanitation, with the resulting improvement in general health.

WITHOUT FIRING A SHOT.

Fourteen Places Surrendered in the Philippines.

WASHINGTON, April 10.—A report from General Otis contained the following:

MANILA, April 9.

General Bates just returned from south, after placing Fortieth Infantry at Surigao, Cagayan, Iligan, Isamis Dapitan, Northern Mindanao, and attending to special matters entrusted to him department Mindanao and Jolo. Attended by two naval vessels and two gunboats. Troops occupied points without resistance. Two hundred and forty-one rifles, 97 pieces of artillery surrendered. Eleven places in Mindanao and three in Jolo archipelago now occupied by troops, without the firing of a shot. Affairs in that section quite satisfactory. (Signed) Otis.

PLEA OF LADY CURZON.

Supplies Needed to Feed Starving Natives of India.

CHICAGO, April 10.—Chicago's India famine committee has decided to open its offices again for the receipt of funds. Miss Mary Leiter, of Chicago, cabled the committee the following message from Umballa, India, under date of April 8, in response to a message sent to her:

"My husband and I will be rejoiced to receive any help that Chicago may be willing to give toward our terrible Indian famine. The government is relieving nearly 5,000,000 persons and the worst has not yet come. We can guarantee that every dollar subscribed will

QUAY'S FRIENDS FAILED.

Unable to Secure Day For a Vote—Indian Appropriation Bill Passed in Senate.

WASHINGTON, April 10.—After some further discussion, the senate rejected the sectarian school amendment to the Indian appropriation bill, offered by Mr. Jones (Dem., Ark.), by a vote of 30 to 15. As has been the practice for two or three years, the free homes measure was offered as an amendment to the bill, but it was ruled out on the point of order that it was general legislation and therefore not germane to an appropriation bill. Without division, the bill was passed. The measure carries about $14,000.

An unsuccessful effort was made to agree upon a date for a vote on the resolution relative to the seating of Mr. Quay as a senator from Pennsylvania. The effort will be renewed today.

During the last two hours of the session the Alaskan civil code bill was under consideration. An amendment offered by Mr. Hansbrough concerning the title to mining claims in the Cape Nome district provoked a warm debate.

SULZER'S PROTEST A FAILURE.

Business Man Testified to Make Strike Investigation.

WASHINGTON, April 10.—When the Couderd Alene investigation was resumed Representative Sulzer made an emphatic protest to what he characterized a "snap judgment" by the majority of the investigating committee. At the last session the record of the "bull pen," giving the names of those imprisoned, was ordered printed. The record as printed showed that a newspaper clipping, pasted in the book, also had been printed, giving a list of ringleaders in the miners' agitation and some 400 who had been indicted. Mr. Sulzer's motion to strike out this matter was lost by a tie vote.

Henry E. Howes, a business man in the Couderd Alene, not identified with either faction, was objected to on the ground that he was a bitter opponent of miners' unions. The witness testified that he knew that members of the miners' union were present when the mill was blown up.

DECLARED BOSSISM HURT THE CHURCH.

Speakers in Chicago Presbytery Attack Methods of the General Assembly.

CHICAGO, April 10.—Charges that the Presbyterian general assembly was dominated by a system of bossism and one-man power worse than any political machine, and that that great religious body was afflicted with packed committees, were made at an adjourned meeting of the Chicago presbytery.

The question came up during consideration of an overture received from the Peoria presbytery recommending that the standing committees of the general assembly in the future be elected by the delegates instead of being appointed by the moderator, and after an animated discussion the recommendation that the proposition be endorsed and sent to the general assembly was adopted by a two-thirds vote.

Rev. S. M. Johnson, speaking in favor of the proposition, said that the bossism had nearly ruined the church in certain quarters, and that at the last general assembly the committee appointed to consider the case of Dr. McGiffert was packed.

REV. DR. M'GIFERT RESIGNS.

No Longer a Clergyman in Presbyterian Church.

NEW YORK, April 10.—The Rev. Arthur C. McGiffert formally withdrew from the Presbyterian church. His resignation was contained in a letter to the presbytery of New York, which met in its regular semi-annual meeting, and Dr. McGiffert's request that his name be dropped from the role of the presbytery was granted. Dr. McGiffert's letter of resignation was in accordance with an announcement made by him to the presbytery three weeks ago.

As far as Dr. McGiffert is concerned that will probably end the incident. Dr. Birch said that as soon as the general assembly had decided upon the legal points raised he will retire from the prosecution. Dr. McGiffert, under a resolution of the presbytery, is no longer a Presbyterian clergyman and his withdrawal has effected all that an adverse decision by the general assembly could effect.

TOWNE IS IN FAVOR.

Would Be Popular Mate For Bryan.

THE GOLD DEMOCRATS LIKE HIM.

Anti-Imperialists of New England Would Also Be Pleased, as Would the Populists—In Addition, He Suits the Nebraska Silver Leader.

MINNEAPOLIS, April 10.—Former Congressman Charles A. Towne, of Duluth, is a candidate for the Democratic nomination for vice president. Judge Child well, of the United States circuit court, has declined to permit the use of his name in that connection, and Towne's candidacy is predicated on the judge's declaration. The demand for Towne's nomination is said to come from the gold Democrats and Republican anti-imperialists of New England. It is asserted that Bryan would be glad to have Towne for a running mate.

Senator Pettigrew is another supporter. His program is to have the national Populist convention at Sioux Falls, S. D., May 9, adjourn without nominating, leaving the matter to a committee, which would later on endorse the Democratic ticket named at Kansas City. If this proves impossible, he will push for the nomination of Bryan and Towne at Sioux Falls.

RIPE FOR A LYNCHING.

Belmont County (O.) People Frenzied Over the Brutal Murder of Young Warrick.

WHEELING, April 10.—Over in Belmont county, O., in the vicinity of Somerton, where 16-year-old Clarence Warrick was murdered early Sunday morning, the entire countryside is aroused, and if the guilty persons are captured they will certainly be lynched, unless spirited away. The Carter brothers, alleged stock thieves, in custody at Barnesville, on account of whose approaching trial, it is now asserted, young Warrick was killed, because "he knew too much," were taken to St. Clairsville, the county seat, by Sheriff Foreman, in order to save their necks.

The Barnesville police now have a promising clue and hope to run down the murderers today. They will not be taken to Barnesville, if captured, owing to the high feeling there.

OVER 50 LIVES LOST.

Great Damage Done by Floods in Texas—Colorado River Is Still Rising.

DALLAS, April 10.—News from the Southern and Southwestern Texas flood sections shows that more than 50 lives have been lost, including those at Austin, due to the breaking of a dam. Reports from La Grange indicate that the Colorado is still rising and menacing more country districts. The stream is now four feet higher than during the great flood of last year.

Bastrop is entirely surrounded by water. The property damage is enormous. Railroad traffic in the southern half of Texas has been practically abandoned.

Richard Mansfield Ill.

CLEVELAND, April 10.—Richard Mansfield, the actor, who was to have opened an engagement at the Euclid avenue opera house here, is confined to his room at the Hollenden hotel, suffering from acute laryngitis. Mr. Mansfield hopes to be able to play by tomorrow night, but his physician says it may be a week before he can leave his room.

Suicided to Escape Investigation.

H. Pitcher blew his brains out here. He was a trustee of the estate of the late Thomas Marney, deceased, valued at $600,000. Pitcher was to have produced his books in court, and was to testify as to how he handled the bank and the trust.

NEW YORK, April 10.—The stock market Monday made the expected response to Saturday's unfavorable bank statement by a general drawing in of speculative ventures.

The acute depression manifested by Sugar had an additional influence in depressing the market. This mercurial material gave evidence during the latter part of the day of being oversold and, after having fallen nearly 8 points, recovered more than half of the decline. The room traders, who had sold the list on the strength of the weakness in Sugar, were driven to cover by this rally and the aggressive strength developed at a few other points. As a consequence, the closing was active and firm at a level considerably above the low point of the day, but showing net declines for the majority of stocks.

People's gas, the tobacco stocks and a number of the iron and steel stocks fell away easily from 1 to 3 points. The strength manifested by the New York traction served as an offset to this; the railroad list maintained a condition resembling suspended animation. Large inroads upon the Pacific stocks, Pennsylvania and the grangers turned the tide toward depression, until aggressive strength developed in Missouri Pacific. This stock moved up to 5 1/2 in the late transactions on heavy buying, and Brooklyn Transit rose buoyantly to 79 1/2, with a stimulating effect on the general list.

Although the stock market weakened on the banks' showing, the money market failed to show any effect of the decrease in resources of the banks.

Business in bonds was of moderate volume and prices were well held. Total sales, par value, $2,455,900.

United States old 4s and 5s declined 1/4 in the bid price.

Chicago Wheat, Corn and Provisions.

CHICAGO, April 10.—The wheat market showed both strength and activity Monday, influenced by the reduced world's shipments and some unfavorable crop reports, May closing 3/8@1/2c over Saturday. Corn yielded to the profit taking pressure, May closing 1/2c down. Provisions, helped by higher hogs, closed strong, 10@17 1/2c improved. May oats, at the close, were 1/4c depressed.

MIDDLESBORO, Ky., April 10.—The only participants in the riotous collision between the police and deputy sheriffs who were arraigned were Chief of Police King and his deputies. The trial was set for Wednesday. Excitement has subsided. It is not yet ascertained who killed Deputy Policeman Moseley.

Agricultural Bill Considered.

WASHINGTON, April 10.—The agricultural appropriation bill was under consideration and was made the vehicle of considerable desultory debate on irrelevant political topics. Good progress was made with the bill after the close of general debate, 25 of the 37 pages being covered before adjournment.

KANSAS CITY PEOPLE HUSTLING.

Plans For Building Democratic Convention Hall Are Completed.

KANSAS CITY, April 10.—Plans for erecting the new convention hall have practically been completed, and the work of removing the debris from the site is proceeding actively.

The hall directors have on hand $235,000 available for the new building, which is to cost in the neighborhood of $300,000. Delegations continue to sign contracts for quarters at the different hotels.

New Incident in Kentucky Dispute.

BARBOURVILLE, Ky., April 10.—Circuit court began, but it is doubtful who will act as judge, John Henry Wilson or Judge W. S. Brown. Judge Brown took his seat and a few minutes later Judge Wilson appeared with a certificate from the election commissioners and signed by Beckham. Brown refused to evacuate.

Declines to Discuss Pattison Rumor.

CHICAGO, April 10.—J. G. Johnson, chairman of the Democratic national executive committee, declines absolutely to discuss the rumors relating to the probability of Robert E. Pattison becoming Bryan's running mate.

Minister's Wife Burned to Death.

OWATONNA, Minn., April 10.—The wife of Rev. R. L. Ludlam was burned to death near here.

BOY TO SEE KRUGER.

District Messenger Starts From Philadelphia.

SENT BY THE SCHOOL CHILDREN.

Twenty-Three Thousand Sign a Message of Sympathy to the Boer President—A Big Meeting Held in the Quaker City—Webster Davis Present.

PHILADELPHIA, April 10.—One of the greatest demonstrations of sympathy, both in the number of the participants and the display of enthusiasm, ever shown in this city for any foreign nation took place, when the Academy of Music was jammed with people for the purpose of taking part in the Philadelphia school boys' pro-Boer rally. The object of the gathering was to send a message of greeting to President Kruger signed by 22,000 pupils of the schools of this city. Many thousands were unable to get near the doors.

Judge William N. Ashman, of the orphan's court of this city, presided, and those who addressed the meeting were Hon. Webster Davis, Hon. Bourke Cochran, of New York; ex-District Attorney George S. Graham, of this city; Hon. Louter Wessels, of Bloemfontein, Orange Free State, and Thomas J. Meek, a pupil of the high school of this city. Edwin Markham, the poet, recited an original ode to Lincoln for the first time.

After the speech making James F. Smith, a 16-year-old messenger of the American District Telegraph company, was called to the stage by means of the regulation call box and was given the message signed by the school boys, with instructions to proceed to Pretoria and hand it personally to President Kruger. The messenger, accompanied by a committee of three high school boys, left for New York, and they will be tendered a reception at the Waldorf-Astoria hotel by the students of the public schools of Greater New York today.

Tomorrow the messenger will sail on the St. Louis, and before the vessel reaches Southampton he will be taken off by a French tender and landed at Havre, France, in order to avoid English territory. The message to Kruger is as follows:

"We, the undersigned students of the public schools of Philadelphia, the city where our forefathers enlisted in their splendid and successful struggle against English oppression, desire to express to you and to the fighting men of the South African republic their great admiration for the genius and courage that has checked English invasion of the Transvaal; and the undersigned extend their most earnest wishes that in the end the South African republic will triumph over England in a war in which the Boer cause is noble, the English cause unjust."

Delegations of schoolboys from New York and Boston attended the meeting.

A LEGISLATOR DEAD.

Both Houses at Columbus Adjourned Out of Respect to Clement's Memory.

COLUMBUS, April 10.—Edwin A. Clement, representative from Medina county, died at his temporary residence in this city, after a few days' illness, of pneumonia. He was 32 years old.

Both branches of the legislature adjourned until today as a mark of respect to the deceased.

MRS. DEWEY QUILTS CATHOLICISM.

Friends Admit She Has Become an Episcopalian.

WASHINGTON, April 10.—Mrs. George Dewey's change of faith from Catholicism to Episcopalianism, although not admitted by the admiral or herself, has been verified among her intimate friends, many of whom attend St. John's Episcopal church.

For Pension Court of Appeals.

WASHINGTON, April 10.—The committee of the Grand Army of the Republic, consisting of Commander-in-Chief D. A. Shaw and General Daniel Sickles, which is endeavoring to secure legislation looking to the creation of a court of pension appeals, has submitted the proposed measure to some of the most eminent jurists of the country, and it has been endorsed by them. The committee also has conferred with the president on the subject.

Must Not Waste Gas.

WASHINGTON, April 10.—Justice White, in the supreme court, handed down the opinion of the court in the case of the Ohio Oil company vs the state of Indiana. The case involved the validity of the state law prohibiting persons from boring wells to permit the gas to escape into the atmosphere as opposed to the general interests of the community. The law is upheld.

A GIANT COMBINE.

Rumored That Carnegies and Cramps Are Negotiating For an Alliance.

NEW YORK, April 10.—The World has a story that negotiations are in progress for a combination of the gigantic Carnegie company and the Cramp ship building concern.

If the conference now going on in Atlantic City results in a satisfactory arrangement the coalition between these two great interests will soon be announced.

SABBATH TO BE VIOLATED.

French Authorities Decide Exhibits Must Be Shown on Sunday.

PARIS, April 10.—The French authorities have decided that all exhibits at the exposition are to be open to the public on Sundays and the United States exhibits are, naturally, within this regulation. These exhibits are under cover in buildings erected by the French government, over which the United States authorities have no control and therefore they must abide by the rules established.

The United States pavilion is not within this category, and the question of its being opened or closed on Sunday the French officials have left entirely to Commissioner Peck's desire. He probably will announce today his final decision in the matter.

A WINTER CAMPAIGN FOR THE BRITISH.

Roberts Waiting For Regiments and Heavy Clothing—Boers Trick Failed at Mafeking.

LONDON, April 10.—Britons are now beginning, though reluctantly, to realize that Lord Roberts is in for a winter campaign, lasting several months. This is the end, in a few words, of the high hopes based upon Lord Roberts' brilliant dash to Kimberley and Bloemfontein.

Preparations are being made to hold Bloemfontein against surprises. Lord Kitchener has been given an important duty, being responsible for the protection of the railway, while Lord Roberts is waiting for remounts and winter clothing for the troops, whose thin cotton khaki uniforms and boots are worn out.

General Brabant and General Gatacre are both at a standstill. Lord Roberts will probably for some time confine his operations to clearing the Free State behind him of raiders and to relieve Mafeking, for which purpose, apparently, the Eighth division, now arriving at Cape Town, has been ordered to Kimberley.

Lady Sarah Wilson and other Mafeking correspondents send diaries of the doings there, showing that the Boers have tried, by abandoning their trenches, to lure the besieged out into a mined ambush. Fortunately, the British engineers discovered the mine and the wire communication and unearthed 250 pounds of dynamite and war gelatine.

Mr. Steyn's address to the Free State raad, at Kroonstad, is confirmed. The Fischer-Wohlmars deputation has full power to negotiate for peace, subject to the raad's sanction.

Lady Roberts will remain at Cape Town.

A PECULIAR TREASON TRIAL.

Prisoners Accused of Trying to Hold Over Official as Hostage.

LONDON, April 10.—The correspondent of The Times at Lourenzo Marques gives details of a peculiar treason trial which has been proceeding at Johannesburg. Three men were charged with decoying State Engineer Hunnik to a house at the city and suburban mine, with the intention of holding him as a hostage against a destruction of the mining property.

They were also charged with attempting to murder him and with forcing him, under threats, to hand over £200.

May Mean Intervention.

VIENNA, April 10.—The czar and czarina will shortly visit Moscow for a fortnight. The Neue Freie Press, says that only important politics would induce such a lengthy visit. It is reported the czar goes to Moscow to initiate a movement of the powers for intervention in the Anglo-Boer war.

Cape Minister's Brother Arrested.

CAPE TOWN, April 10.—William Sauer, a brother of the Cape minister of railroads, has been arrested near Barkly East, Cape Colony, on the charge of being a rebel.

St. Helena Prepared For Boers.

LONDON, April 10.—The Daily Mail publishes advices from St. Helena, under date of Saturday, to the effect that the preparations for the reception of the Boer prisoners from South Africa are completed. Three acres of Deadwood plain have been fenced with barbed wire, and the enclosure is surrounded by tents for the guards. Longwood, where Napoleon was confined, has been made ready for Colonel Bathurst, who will command the British troops. The Deadwood water supply has been increased. The inhabitants are pleased with the idea of having the prisoners confined on the island, believing that their presence will give an impetus to trade.

Parallel of Napoleon's Day.

LONDON, April 10.—It is remarked as a peculiar coincidence that the Earl of Bathurst, who has been appointed to guard General Cronje at St. Helena, is a great-grandson of Lord Bathurst, under whose direction Napoleon Bonaparte was deported to St. Helena, and who remained in office as minister of war of the colonies throughout the term of Napoleon's exile.

Denied by State Department.

WASHINGTON, April 10.—The state department authorizes a denial of the published statement that it has practically completed an arrangement for the acquisition of a considerable strip of territory along the route of the proposed Nicaragua canal.

Old to Have Stolen.

MARSHALL, Mich., April 10.—A. O. Hyde, ex-superintendent of the poor of this county, was bound over for trial. His total alleged stealings amounted to $16,000. He paid back $4,000. He is 84 years of age and had held the office 80 years.

OUR NEW ROUNDSMEN.

Tis said we have men as policemen
Who are formed of the pure, virgin gold,
Who will face the toughest of ruffians
And take them in out of the cold;
Who will do their sworn duty as roundsmen.
In a manner quite gallant and
shrewd,
And have nothing but hearty contempt, sir, for a tough, a loafer or dude.

PEGEE COOLEY.

The dance given by the Turners
last evening was well attended.

The marks at the wharf this morning registered 9.6 feet and rising.

John Scott, a roller at the freight depot, is off duty on account of illness.

The remains of Mrs. Roxy Ann Taylor can be viewed this evening from 7 to 9 o'clock.

This morning 40 baskets of ware were sent to Allegheny on the early accommodation.

The side wheel packet, City of Pittsburg, passed up last evening and will be down tonight.

Edward Nicholson, a prominent brick contractor of Steubenville, was in the city yesterday on business.

George Morton, who has been spending several weeks in Salem visiting his son, returned home yesterday.

The household effects of a family named Livingstone were received at the freight depot this morning from Akron.

J. J. Dowling, of Wellsville, last evening entertained a number of his friends. Several people from this city were present.

Within the next few weeks parties from Pittsburg will begin to drill for oil on an extensive scale in the vicinity of Ohioville.

meeting in this city.

PEOPLE WHO, UNDER ENGLISH LAW,
MAY LAUGH AT THE POLICE.

The Various Classes of Persons in Great Britain Who Cannot Be Arrested—Royalty, as a Matter of Course, is First on the List.

The other day at the Westminster (England) county court a warrant for the arrest and commitment of a solicitor
had to be extended for four months
more, as, though the solicitor was walking about the streets in the sight
of the police, they dared not lay a finger on him. Even the judge seemed surprised that the man could not be arrested. But it is probable he never will be arrested, for, as he carries a charm on his person in the form of a brief, his body cannot be seized. This is because no one engaged on business
at a law court can be arrested for any breach of the civil law. If you happen
to owe a debt, to have a judgment delivered against you and to be committed to prison for not paying, of course
you can be arrested under ordinary circumstances, but if you are subpoenaed as a witness you cannot be arrested while going to the place,
while staying there to give evidence
or while returning home, and you may feel sure that the courts will stick up
for you.

There are many other people who can laugh at the police. Of course no member of the royal family can be arrested under any circumstances. Servants of the royal household also have great privileges in this way.
Should one of the royal servants commit a crime at the command of the crown he could not be arrested. As the crown can do no wrong, of course any order the crown should give would be considered right, and Bobby would not dare to make an arrest.

Then members of parliament, though
they can be arrested for some things,
are exempt in certain cases where ordinary citizens would certainly be run
in. If a member of the house of commons commits a crime, he can be arrested like any other citizen, but if it is a case of contempt of court, such as
not paying debts, he can snap his fingers at the police during the greater part of the year—that is to say, he cannot be arrested while parliament is sitting nor for 40 days before and 40 days after the session. This gives him exemption during about nine-tenths of
the year.

Of course a peer enjoys the same
good fortune, and so does a peeress in
her own right. But in their case the privilege is still greater, for they cannot be arrested on a civil process at
any time, whether parliament is sitting or not. In fact, if the heir to a peerage happens to be in prison for any offense not criminal, he is liberated the
moment he succeeds to the title.

Foreign ambassadors may commit
any offense, from drunkenness up to murder, without running the slightest
risk of seeing the inside of an English
prison. And not only have the embas-sadors themselves this privilege, but
their secretaries, coachmen, cooks, valets, etc., are equally favored individuals, for the theory is that an em-bassador is useless without his dinner,
his drives, his shaves and the like.

When an ambassador commits a crime, all that can be done is to ask
his government to recall him. But, of course, if he went about the streets
knocking many people down he would certainly be arrested and held temporarily. But he could not be tried and punished. The foreign ambassador's house, family and servants are looked
upon as if they were in their own country. Under no circumstances could a policeman or bailiff break into the house or arrest any of the inhabitants.

Soldiers, while on service, could run
up debts, refuse to pay, and if a judge,
after ordering them to pay, without result, issued a warrant for their arrest and commitment, no policeman dare execute it unless the amount were over $150. Navy men enjoy the same privileges, but no doubt they seldom get
the opportunity of exercising them.

The clergy are another class of men
who are sometimes secure against arrest. A clergyman cannot be arrested
when he is celebrating divine service
or conducting the celebration of rites
for the dead; nor can he be touched
when going to or returning from either of these duties. Any one breaking the law in this respect might be punished
with as much as two years' imprisonment with hard labor.

On Sundays we are all privileged.
No one can be arrested on Sunday except for treason, felony or breach of the peace. If any one tries it on with you, you can resist up to the point of killing him.

A curious rule in connection with arrest is not generally known—if a policeman comes along after a fight or an assault, he can make no arrest without a warrant.—London Tit-Bits.

A Little Bit Too Sensitive.

This cold, hard world has few souls
as sensitive as a young man who killed himself in Paris the other day. His home was in Lyons, and his father had given to him 30,000 francs, or $6-000, to establish a branch office of their business in Paris. After he had been in Paris for several days his letters
home ceased, and he disappeared from
the little circle of friends that he had made. He had seemed a quiet, steady fellow, and he had chosen his new associates with discretion. When they missed him, they wrote to his father, supposing that he knew where his son
was. The father, however, was ignorant of the young man's whereabouts,
and the police were summoned and a search made of his apartments. On the bed in his room was found his dead body, with a note by his side, which
said:

"I have lost 25,000 francs of the sum
that my father intrusted to me, and as I would not have it believed that I have squandered the money I am killing myself." This furnished a clue, but nothing more could be learned for several days. Finally, when searching
the rooms for the young man's property, his pocketbook, with the 25,000
francs, was found in a corner of the bureau drawer, where he had put it
and then forgotten.

Did She Get the Hat?

It was a mean trick, of course, and some day she will doubtless get even
with him.

She saw him take a piece of paper
from his pocket, carefully fold it up,
put it in an envelope and then place
the envelope in one of the far corners of the drawer of the library table.

"What's that?" she asked.
"Oh, nothing of any consequence,"
he replied.

Now, if he had simply thrown it carelessly into the drawer she would have thought nothing of it, but the care he
took to put it clear over in the far corner and the fact that he seemed ill at ease after he found that his action had
been observed aroused her curiosity.
She wondered what it was, and she
reasoned with herself that he had said
it was "nothing of importance," so he would have nobody but himself to blame if she took a look at it. She was justified in inferring from his words
that there was no reason why she should not. And this is what she read scribbled on a piece of paper:

"I'll bet you a new hat your curiosity
will not permit you to let this alone."
It was a terrible predicament in which to place a woman. How could
she claim the new hat without giving herself away?—Chicago Post.

Seasickness.

A stewardess, after 15 years' service
on one of the transatlantic liners—and
an opinion on the subject from a person in her position is undoubtedly to
be respected—has this to say about seasickness: "Almost everybody is a little sick, but a great many more persons could be less sick than they are
if they would only be careful for a day or two before they sail. Lots of folks going off to Europe eat big dinners and luncheons for two or three days before they start, and as soon as they get the motion of the waves they have really a bilious attack. Sometimes when the crossing is very rough
and I have been a little careless in my diet I feel the motion myself, but never when I take proper care. At the slightest dizziness or nausea I stop
eating anything at all for eight or ten hours, and above all I never touch tea
at that time. It is the overeating usually before they come on board that makes all the trouble."—New York Post.

Makes Brilliant Flames.

People who live on the New England
coast like to use ocean driftwood as
fuel in open fireplaces. It is impregnated with copper and ocean salts and
when burned gives out the most brilliant colored flames. It is asserted that a New Bedford dealer has orders
for the wood from all parts of the country, and even from Europe, and
ships hundreds of barrels of it yearly.

Various attempts have been made to imitate this wood by artificial process,
but without success. Long submersion
in the sea water is necessary to produce the brilliant flames.

There's a greater demand made on the strength of the mother when nursing than at any other time. She has just gone through the shock and strain of maternity, her vitality is at its lowest and the food she eats must nourish two lives.

The natural result is that the mother looks
around for a
"tonic," and generally finds her
tonic in the
form of a stimu-
lant, which not only gives the mother no real
strength but is an
injury to the child.
It is the concurrent testimony of women who have used Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, that it is the most perfect preparation for motherhood and all its functions which have ever been discovered. It prepares the way for baby's advent, giving
the organs of birth vigor and elasticity. It establishes such a condition of health that nervousness, anxiety and morning sickness
are unknown. With this condition comes
a healthy flow of nourishment for the child,
which enables the mother to gratify the fondest instinct of maternity.

"Two years ago I used two bottles of Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription, and in April a
nice baby was born, before the doctor came," writes Mrs. Katie Auliker, of 754 Pat Street, Alliance, Ohio. "I was not very sick. Baby is now 14 months old and weighs 20 pounds. Now I expect another about August, and I am again taking the 'Favorite Prescription' and feel very well. Several neighbors are using Dr.
Pierce's medicine through my telling them
about it. One lady says, 'before commencing
Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription I had to vomit every day, but after I got the medicine, from the first spoonful that I took, I stopped vomiting.'
It has done the same thing for me. It is a God send for women."

No alcohol in any form, is contained in "Favorite Prescription," neither opium nor other narcotics. This cannot truthfully be said of any other medicine especially designed for women and sold
through druggists.

Sick women are invited to consult Dr.
Pierce by letter, free of all charge. Every letter is treated as strictly private and
sacredly confidential, and all replies are
enclosed in plain envelopes, bearing no
printed matter whatever. Address Dr.
R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

Busy Choir Soloists.

Roman Catholic and Episcopal
churches have the credit of providing
the finest and most elaborate music,
but the finest music in New York is heard in the Jewish synagogues. It is chiefly sung, however, by the best
singers of the Christian churches, who thrillingly "double up" and draw two salaries, a good arrangement for both
temples and churches, albeit the
churches pay double and sometimes treble the salaries paid by the temples.

The salaries of soloists in the larger
American cities range from $800 to $2,500, the latter sum being paid in a single instance. All engagements date from May 1, which is moving time for church singers as well as house mov-
ers. Their church salaries form the basis of the soloists' incomes, but
many fees are earned as a result of
church work. Weddings and funerals
yield quite a number, and private recitals at the home entertainments of millionaire church members are weighted with the golden fruit. There are also whole orchards of concerts
and oratorios for those capable of shaking the trees.—Success.

New York Town Devastated.

OGDENSBURG, N. Y., April 10.—Cardinal, a thriving village near here, was visited by a disastrous fire, which wiped
out the industrial portion of the town.
Among the plants burned were the Ed-
wardsburg starch factory and the electric light company plant of the town.
The loss is estimated at $150,000; insurance, $90,000.

McGiffert's Resignation Accepted.

NEW YORK, April 10.—The resignation of Dr. Arthur McGiffert from the Presbyterian church was accepted by the New York presbytery. The resignation came as a result of charges of heresy preferred by Dr. Birch, stated clerk of the presbytery.

route followed was thronged.

THE EVENING NEWS REVIEW.

51TH YEAR. NO. 255.

EAST LIVERPOOL, O., TUESDAY, APRIL 10, 1900.

FIRE IN THE POSTOFFICE

Smoke Discovered Curling From
the Cellar Just Before Six
This Morning.

ALL THE MAILS ARE SAFE

And Being Received and Dispatched as Usual—Loss $2,000,
and Possibly $2,500.

STARTED NEAR THE FURNACE.

A fire of mysterious origin occurred in the postoffice building shortly before 6 o'clock this morning, which resulted in a loss of about $2,000. Further investigation may increase this amount to $2,500.

The fire started in the candy factory of Edward Hassey under the postoffice and about the furnace, when he was near the building he saw as can be ascertained there was no fire in the furnace, or any other part of the building with the exception of one gas jet, which was burning near the door leading to the Washington street entrance of the cellar.

The fire was discovered by Thomas B. Mackey at 5:50. He is the first to go to the office in the morning, and when he was near the building he saw some smoke come out of the cracks in the iron grating on Fourth street in front of the building. He went in the postoffice and tried to get down into the cellar, but failed. He ran to the central fire station to notify the department, but when he got there they were about to leave the building, an alarm being turned in from box 22, at the corner of Fourth and Washington streets.

When the department arrived at the building it was filled with smoke, which made the fire a hard one to fight. Several lines of hose were played on the cellar, and the flames confined to that part of the building. The floor in the postoffice about the first tier of lock boxes was destroyed, as were the call boxes and contents. The large plate glass windows in the front of the building were badly damaged, as were 11 small panes of glass in the windows on Washington street.

The offices of the Potters' Protective association on the second floor were not damaged.

The building is owned by W. H. Wells, who said this morning he could not place an estimate upon his loss.

All the loose mail in the office when the fire was discovered was saved. The mail from trains 341 and 342 were not opened, and the pouches with the other mails were taken to a place of safety.

Mr. Hassey said he could not tell his exact loss, although he judged it would amount to about $300, covered by insurance.

This morning Postmaster W. H. Surles sent telegrams to division No. 3, of the postal department at Washington, and to Inspector A. P. Owen, at Canton, advising them of the loss.

The fire department deserve credit for their work. The East End department came down in response to the second alarm, and made the trip in 11 minutes.

Special Meeting.

The grocery clerks' union will hold a special meeting this evening and initiate several candidates.

MAHONING GIVES UP.

Youngstown Papers Tell Why There
Can Be No Congressman
From There.

Youngstown Vindicator.

Even those most bitterly opposed to the Hon. R. W. Tayler, member of congress from this district, must admit that he made a great run and that he has won a notable victory. The result makes futile any effort on the part of Mahoning for any of her favorite Republican sons, and even if it had gone otherwise in Molly Stark it is not likely that this county would have stood the ghost of a show, for there is no disposition among the local Republicans to unite upon any one man, a fact accountable for their frequent overthrows in the congressional conventions.

Youngstown Telegram.

Whatever congressional ambition several Mahoning county men have nurtured in silence for weeks past must now be laid on the shelf for at least two years. The only thing that Mahoning county can now do is to endorse Mr. Tayler with a whoop and instruct her 62 delegates to vote for him. Any Mahoning county man going into that convention as a candidate would be simply bumping his head against a stone wall. It was a lucky thing the local Republican committee held back the selection of Mahoning's delegates until the last minute. Had this not been done some local political ambitions would have been badly punctured in the Alliance convention. As it is now, all is harmonious and quiescent, and Mr. Tayler will be re-nominated and re-elected. He will continue to make, as he has already made, a most painstaking and efficient congressman.

THE COUNTY COURTS.

Several Minor Matters Disposed of at Lisbon This Morning.

Lisbon, April 10.—(Special)—Annetta Lownsberry, of Lisbon, has sued Harrison Clapsaddle, also of Lisbon, to foreclose a mortgage of $1,000 on 68 22-100 acres in Center township.

The will of Susanna Hudson, late of Fairfield township, has been admitted to probate.

Martha McMillan is appointed guardian for Cora B. McMillan, a minor 12 years old, child of Robert A. McMillan, of Wayne township; bond, $800.

Emma M. Costin asks a judgment of $1,634.16 against Anna and Marion Fultz, and the foreclosure of a mortgage on 100 acres in West township.

Sheriff S. D. Noragon will take Mrs. Noragon to Cleveland tomorrow morning to a specialist for rheumatism.

The pawnbrokers' ordinance will be placed on its final reading at council tonight, and upon council depends whether the city shall have a pawnbrokers' shop. It is estimated that the ordinance will not pass, but knowing ones say it will.

Bratt Is Home Again.

Joe Bratt is home again, having been turned loose by the county infirmary directors. They say Bratt is all right if people fail to give him liquor. Columbiana county now has 62 more than her quota of insane patients in the state hospitals.

APPOINTMENTS OF DAVIDSON

He Named the People He Wanted
For His Policemen For
the Year.

COUNCIL CONFIRMED THEM

Grim, Whan and White, of the
tire.

Mayor-elect Davidson, at the caucus held by council last night, presented his list of police appointments and everybody seemed very anxious that they would not get in the newspapers, so the newly-elected marshal, T. V. Thompson, was sent out in the hallway, where the reporters were standing, and ordered them to go downstairs, stating that council now had very important business to transact, as the police appointments were coming up. The reporters of course went downstairs, but strange to say they succeeded in getting the list, and here they are:

Charles Gill.

C. H. Morris.

Clifford Dawson.

H. W. Aufderheide.

Michael Mahony.

Willis Davidson.

The list went through council without a hitch, and the appointees were confirmed without a word from any of the councilmen. President Peach made a speech in which he stated that the council wished to give the mayor every assistance in their power to make his administration a splendid one.

There are some surprises and disappointments among the list, but it is thought that Mayor Davidson has selected a very efficient force. The members of the present force who will retire are Arthur Grim, John Whan and Frank White. Of the new force Aufderheide was a candidate for marshal at the last city primary, C. H. Morris was formerly physical director of the Young Men's Christian association, Charles Gill is ex-sheriff, and Clifford Dawson is a well-known potter of the city. Davidson and Mahoney are members of the present police force.

It will be noticed that council has increased the force one man, and it will be composed of six officers when the new mayor assumes charge of the city government.

HIS COMMITTEES.

President Marshall Will Announce
Them at the Meeting of Council
Tonight.

R. J. Marshall, the new president of council, was not ready with his committees at the caucus held last night, but will present them to council at the meeting to be held this evening. It is not known who Marshall will put on his committees, but it is a safe guess that Peach will be the chairman of the street committee.

Putting Up the Cells.

The new cells for the city jail are being placed in position today. It will not be long before the jail is ready to receive women and children prisoners in style.

BEAN BAKE.

The Grand Army Last Evening Celebrated the Surrender of Lee.

The Grand Army, Sons of Veterans and Women's Relief Corps last evening celebrated the anniversary of the surrender of Lee at Appomattox with appropriate exercises at their rooms in the Exchange block. The members, of the organization and their friends were present and spent a delightful evening. A lunch was served and the following program was rendered:

DEMONSTRATED.

The Merits of the New Gas to Be Manufactured in This City at
the Central School.

A meeting of the stockholders of the Gas Apparatus and Construction company was held last evening and an additional subscription of $2,000 was secured to complete the plant. The stockholders met in the science room at the central school building, and the merits of the gas the new company intend to manufacture were shown by tests made by Prof. H. E. Hall. The tests were highly satisfactory.

Work on the partially completed plant will be resumed probably next week, and the plant will be placed in operation in May. When completed the factory will have cost in the neighborhood of $9,000.

Sanitary Officer Burgess is Busy Notifying People to Clean Their Yards.

Sanitary Officer Burgess is busy these days notifying people to clean up, and he finds that about one out of every six yards needs a thorough cleaning, and one out of every three needs some cleaning. He is now working in the central part of the city, and so far has found it to be in a very healthful condition. The officer is not confining his inspection to the yards, but is also looking after the cellars, believing that they are more of a menace to the public health than anything else, when they are not kept clean.

Line Is Located.

The location of the street car line in the Diamond has at last been fixed, but it took the attention of several members of council before it was arranged. The way the line was first laid out it ran almost against the curb on the west side of the street. It is now located as near the center as possible.

To the Home.

The township trustees have one or two children to send to the Children's home in Alliance, but it is not known when they will be sent.

Two Candidates.

The Senior Mechanics at their meeting Thursday have one candidate for the first degree and one for the third degree.

SHOT THROUGH THE RIGHT LUNG

A Serious Accident Befell Don T
Mowen in the East End Early
This Morning

WHILE HE WAS DUCK HUNTING

Picked the Gun From the Ground
and the Trigger Caught on a Stone.

Don T. Mowen, aged 23, a son of Dr. W. E. Mowen, of Mulberry street, East End, was accidentally shot through the right lung. His condition is very low and the chances for his recovery are few.

Young Mowen, in company with Robert McArton, a young man well known in the suburb, arranged to go out duck hunting last evening. About 6 o'clock this morning the boys started out. They went up the river shore to a point opposite the foot of Line island. The boys laid their guns down on the shore and sat down on the stump of an old tree. Soon afterward Mowen said he would go farther up the shore, and caught the gun by the muzzle, pulling it toward him. As he did so the gun was discharged and a heavy charge of No. 5 shot was sent through his right lung.

McArton, with the assistance of friends placed the wounded boy in a skiff and brought him down to the head of Babb's island, and from there he was carried to the home of his uncle, William C. Randall, on Virginia avenue.

Drs. Bailey, Hobbs, Ikirt and Marshall were summoned and they, with the young man's father did everything possible to relieve his suffering.

At a late hour this afternoon there was no change in his condition, although everything possible was being done to save his life.

Mowen came to this city with his father last fall. He was employed as a collector for the Metropolitan Life Insurance company. He was very bright and had a host of friends.

TROOPER TAYLOR

Wrote From Manila About Cavalry
Operations in the South—Ill
With Fever.

A. B. Taylor, of 313 Fifth street, has received a letter from his son, James E. Taylor, Troop B, Fourth U. S. Cavalry, now at Manila. Trooper Taylor is just recovering from a severe attack of fever, contracted while serving with the troops in southern Luzon.

Accompanying the letter were clippings from the Manila Times, giving an account of the cavalry operations under General Schwan in Cavite, Batangas, Laguna and Tayabas, south of Manila, in which Trooper Taylor took part.

Grim-Whan Bills.

Claims committee took no action on the Grim-Whan judgments last night, and they were not presented for payment. It is stated that they will come up in council tonight and Attorney Clark will be present to talk on the subject.

SUBURBAN NEWS.

EAST END.

A little child of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Tinson, of First avenue, who has been seriously ill for the past year, is on the road to recovery. The child has been very ill at times and its condition has been critical.

The first of a series of special services was begun in the Second Presbyterian church last evening. The attendance was very large and the meeting very interesting. Rev. Layenberger, of Toronto, officiated at the meeting last evening, and this evening Rev. Simpson, of Salineville, will preside.

Mrs. Eva Beech, employed as a taker off at the East End pottery, was taken violently ill about noon yesterday with convulsions. She complained of feeling ill early in the morning, and at noon her condition became worse. Restoratives were applied and she was removed to her home in West End in a carriage.

Dr. William M. Calhoun, of Virginia avenue, left for Richmond, Jefferson county, yesterday afternoon, where he will remain several days attending the settlement of his father's estate.

A little son of William Coleman, of near Ralston crossing, accidentally stepped on a nail Saturday evening, causing a painful injury.

William Bradley has taken a position as car cleaner at the power house.

There is very little sickness in the suburb at present, and those who are ill are rapidly recovering. For the past few weeks the physicians have had all the business they could possibly attend to.

The sewer pipe works has suspended operations on account of a shortage of coal. The plant will be started as soon as a sufficient supply is received.

A new fire plug has been placed in Helana near the residence of John Schmelzenbach. Another plug will be erected soon near the new school house.

Mrs. George McKinnon is able to be out after a severe attack of asthma.

A quarrel among the members of a prominent family in the suburb is causing some talk at present.

The East End Brick company is now operating its plant to its fullest capacity. The company have a large number of orders on hand and a long run is expected.

Saturday evening four well-known young men living in this end of town jumped an east bound freight train and left for parts unknown. The boys, it is said, are indebted to the city, and the collectors representing Mayor Bough have been after them for several days, but they have not yet been located.

CHILD'S CREDITORS.

Proceeds of the Recent Sale Distributed Among Some of the Deserving.

Lisbon, April 10.—(Special.)—The decree was today placed on the court journal in the case of E. P. Burnett vs. M. J. Child. The court confirmed the sale of the properties to Charles Coburn, and distributed the proceeds arising from the sale as follows: To Mrs. Jane Child $130.16 as her contingent dower, also $500 in lieu of a homestead; E. P. Burnett, $684.17, Anna E. Green $135.86, Heller Bros., $41.59, and the remainder to J. B. Callahan, of Coshocton.

A Chimney Fire.

A chimney fire at the residence of W. M. McLure, Sixth street, yesterday afternoon aroused the neighborhood, but the blaze was extinguished with the aid of the department.

SOUTH SIDE.

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Cornelius Wylie, of Middle Run, will be pleased to know that a little son came to their home Sunday evening.

Thomas Stevenson has been offered a good price for a portion of his farm adjoining the Marks farm. The parties after the land are from Pittsburgh and Washington, Pa., and leases for them are being secured by a Mr. McLaughlin, of Georgetown. An attempt was made to secure a lease on the Hugh Newell farm, but in both instances the parties refused to lease. A shaft mine, it is said, will be put down in the vicinity of the Stevenson farm very soon, and to strike coal the shaft will only be 60 feet in depth.

Chester will have a ball team this summer. A number of young men have arranged to hold a meeting in the Mechanics' hall during the next few weeks, when all the details will be arranged and the players selected. It is the intention to form a county league with clubs in Fairview, New Cumberland and Chester.

Justice of the Peace Wash. Johnson was in Chester yesterday looking after some new business, but in this he was unsuccessful. He intended to move his family to the Southside during March, but this has been deferred until next fall.

Arthur Stewart, one of the numerous candidates for sheriff of Hancock county, was in town yesterday. He said he was sure of being elected.

Workmen yesterday begun grading on Caroline avenue.

Thomas Campbell has commenced the erection of a new frame residence on Virginia avenue.

John Neville has constructed a platform at the street car shop, opposite his residence, on Carolina avenue.

The Chester Mechanics, at their meeting last evening, received several new applications and initiated two candidates. The charter of the lodge has been open for several weeks, and a large number of new members have been taken in the order.

Justice Johnson will receive $5 for holding an inquest in the death of John Cummings.

It is the intention of the young men of the Southside to put up Henry Riley as a candidate for county commissioner from this part of Hancock county. There are three commissioners to be elected next fall, and the claim is made that at least one commissioner should reside in or near Chester.

PULLMAN PARLOR CARS.

Improving the Train Service to Pittsburgh and Cleveland via Pennsylvania Lines.

New Pullman parlor cars have taken the place of the parlor cars running on trains Nos. 337 and 338, between Pittsburgh and Cleveland over the Pennsylvania lines. The new cars are the latest pattern turned out by the Pullman company and are finished and furnished in a substantial manner. They have roomy and comfortable revolving arm chairs, wide plate glass windows, commodious smoking apartment and a large retiring room for ladies. This room is fitted up with dresser and plate glass mirror. The new cars leave East Liverpool for Cleveland at 2:49 p. m. and for Pittsburgh at 7:04 p. m., central time, week days.

FORESHADOWINGS.

We may not look across the misty tide
Or hear or feel the breath of passing wings,
Yet seen and unseen weave their fringes wide,
And nature teems with clear foreshadowings.

Not in wild storms of crashing thunder rung,
But in deep silences that brood about,
Without a word from hissing lip or tongue
She cheers the faith that wrestles with a doubt.

From brown cocoons the winds have tossed and
whirled,
Broad wings of gold beat up the viewless air,
And dry seed germs that wander round the world
Are quick with strange unfoldings rich and rare.

The sharded beetle bred in marshy fen
Transfigured soars above his riven shell
On flashing wings before the gaze of men,
A royal birth, a living truth as well.

And still, sweet voices speak the ages through;
No germ is lost, but lives forevermore.
The seed unfolds to fairer life anew,
And from the dust strong pinions mount and
soar.

RINGS ON YELLOW PINES.

Two Circles of New Fiber Blending
Into One Mark Each Year.

"It is very curious to note the successive growth circles of our yellow pines," said a veteran lumberman from the Pearl river district. "Until my attention was especially directed to the subject by a forestry expert a few years ago I had no idea that the markings were so beautifully clear and distinct. The tree acquires two rings of new fiber every year, one in the spring and one in the fall, but they blend together and form a single, well defined circle.

"During the first ten years these successive accumulations are of about equal thickness, and for the next two decades the diminution is very slight, but after that the rings become thinner and thinner, and when the tree gets in to the eighties and nineties the growth is very slight indeed—in fact, a mere film. Nevertheless the ring is always formed as long as the tree lives and can be clearly discerned with a glass after it ceases to be visible to the naked eye.

"During the visit of the expert to whom I referred we cut a good deal of timber on my place ranging between 16 and 18 inches in diameter. 'That tree is 125 years old,' he would say 'that one is 100, that is about 140,' and so on. Afterward we measured the growth rings with the instruments he carried, and in every instance he had hit the age within a few years. It seemed wonderful, but was simply the result of experience combined with an accurate eye.

"There are some very ancient pine trees in the Pearl river district, and many of them figure in the traditions and folklore of the settlers in their neighborhood. There are a couple of such patriarchs on a tract near my mill, and when the standing timber of the place was recently sold I am glad to say they were especially excepted in the terms of the contract. It would have seemed like murder to some of the country folks if they had been cut down."—New Orleans Times-Democrat.

Performed Too Well.

"The man whom I shall marry," said the proud beauty, "must perform three tasks."

"Name the first," said the lover.

"Go and umpire a ball game."

He bowed and departed.

After two months he returned, having been discharged from the hospital cured.

"Name the second task," he said.

"Go and act as judge of the Asbury Park baby show."

Again he departed.

In a week he presented himself again.

"I owe my life to the Jersey police," he said. "Name the third task."

"Attend a meeting of a bicycle club and state which, in your opinion, is the best make of wheel."

He went and he returned.

"Dearest," he said, "I am still in the ring. At last you will be mine!"

"I have changed my mind," said the maiden. "In the first place, I could not marry a man of your present personal appearance. In the second place, I should be afraid to marry a man with such a record for pugnacity. Forgive me."

After thinking the matter over he forgave her. He thought he might as well do so.

And so they were not married.—Brooklyn Life.

NEW COUNCILMEN HELD A CAUCUS

R. J. Marshal Elected President, and J. T. Smith Vice President.

HANLEY TO GET A RAISE

Two New Members Elected to Serve on the Board of Health.

CLINT MORLEY REAPPOINTED.

Council held a caucus at city hall last night and all members were present except Heddleston, the newly-elected member from the First ward.

The first business was to exclude the reporters, and then President Peach announced that there were two candidates for president, R. J. Marshall and J. T. Smith. A ballot was taken and Marshall received seven votes and Smith two. The election of Marshall was made unanimous upon a motion by Smith.

Smith and McHenry were placed in nomination for the vice presidency, and the ballot resulted in favor of Smith by a vote of seven to two. His election was made unanimous.

Peach announced that there were two members of the board of health to select and Mr. Chambers and Mr. Keffer were the retiring members. Dr. Mowen and Dr. Norris were selected as members of the board.

The board of equalization came next and the announcement was made that George Grosshans and John Peake were the retiring members. The names of George Grosshans, J. C. Cain, T. H. Arbuckle and Smith Fowler were suggested for the board. The first ballot resulted as follows: Grosshans 7, Fowler 6, Arbuckle 4, Cain 1. Grosshans was declared elected and his name was dropped from the list and another ballot taken. This one gave Fowler 6, Arbuckle 2, Cain 1. The third and fourth ballots resulted the same way, and on the fifth ballot Cain was dropped and Fowler got 6 and Arbuckle 3. The sixth ballot resulted the same, but on the seventh ballot Fowler got 7 and Arbuckle 2. Fowler and Grosshans were then declared elected.

James N. Hanley was re-elected clerk, and Marshall called attention to the fact that he thought the city clerk should have more than $50 per month for attending to the city business, as he spent all his time at it. He moved that the salary be increased from $50 to $75 per month in order that he might get an expression from the members. Nice thought that was too big a jump, and suggested that it be made $65 per month. This met with the favor of the councilmen and an ordinance will be prepared to be presented to the old council tonight and passed before they adjourn sine die.

J. A. George was chosen city engineer and Clint Morley fire chief.

The New Wharf Boat Will Be Here.
Secured from a Monongahela
River Town.

Wharfmaster William Pilgrim when seen this morning said: "We expect to have our new wharf boat here within a few days. The boat is being secured from a town up the Monongahela river, and will be about as large as the one destroyed by fire Saturday night.

The hull of the old boat has filled with water and has settled to the bottom of the river. Mr. Pilgrim said today that nothing could be saved.

HOLY WEEK SERVICES.

Observance of Ceremonies in the Catholic Church During the Present Week.

This is observed as Holy week by the Catholic church. It began with the special Palm Sunday services. Tomorrow the chanting of the solemn offices of the Tenebrae or darkness will begin and will be continued each evening until Friday. Thursday the holy eucharist is commemorated with great ceremony. On this day also the sacred oils, used in the administration of many of the sacraments and rites of the Catholic church, are blessed and distributed by each bishop to his clergy, all of whom must attend in person. At the mass Thursday the celebrant consecrates two hosts, one for use on that occasion and the other to be consumed at the mass of the presanctified on Good Friday, when no consecration takes place. Good Friday all the officiating clergy are robed in black and the services are of the most solemn description. On holy Saturday what is known as Easter holy water is blessed and distributed.

Easter Sunday is entirely a joyous festival, commemorating the resurrection of Christ.

TO OUR FIRE LADDIES.

Postmaster Will H. Surles Returns
Warm Thanks to the Department.

Editor News Review: Permit me, through the columns of your popular journal, to return my sincere thanks to Chief Morley and the members of the city fire department for their splendid and skillful work in subduing and holding under control the fire this morning in the postoffice department. Let me also embrace in this article all the citizens who so generously and unselfishly rendered the postoffice employees and myself such valuable aid. I fully realize the adage of "friends in need are friends indeed."

Let me also say to the public at large that mails are being received and distributed as usual.

Respectfully,
W. H. SURLS, P. M.

"A Hot Old Time."

"A Hot Old Time," a farce that is thoroughly up-to-date in every particular, full of funny situations, without vulgarity, the latest music, refined specialties presented by an excellent company of well known comedy players, will be the attraction at the Grand this evening, Tuesday, April 10.

Rentz-Santley Burlesque.

A kaleidoscopic whirlwind of smiling farce, costumes of gorgeous hues, twinkling toes, enclosed by richest scenes add to the rhythm of entrancing music, is what the Rentz-Santley Burlesque company can be justly termed. They are booked to appear at the Grand opera house next Wednesday night, April 11.

"A Black Sheep."

Humor, hearty and broad, and therefore intensely moving, is the keynote of the strongest of the Hoyt's successes, such as his famous skit, "A Black Sheep," which will be seen at the Grand Thursday evening, April 12.

Not Self Made.

"I am sorry to disappoint you, young man," said the great railway magnate to the reporter who had called in for the purpose of writing him up, "but I did not begin at the bottom and work my way up. I never blacked the boots of the engine wipers and never carried beer for the janitor of the roundhouse. I was kicked through college by my father, inherited a fortune, which I invested in railroad shares, and I hold this job because I have votes enough to control it. It is too bad, my young friend, but we can't all be self made men. We would become tiresome." And he bowed the caller out.—Chicago Tribune.

The Shark's Mouth.

No doubt the shark's mouth is placed so much beneath the projecting muzzle, under which also the nostrils lie, that it may serve its proper purpose in the best way. In all records of the habits of the fish we are told that it can and does bite out large chunks of flesh from the dead bodies of whales and even from living victims of its attacks, and it is easily seen that if its mouth was like that of other fishes the necessary leverage would be lacking. A further reason seems to be that the shark by this peculiar position of its mouth is compelled to turn upon its back to strike and is thus able to deliver its onset from below with more deadly effect.

This formidable strength of jaw is backed up by a most terrible array of teeth, of which in some species there are as many as six rows all around. Each tooth is saw edged and pointed, and some of the largest are as much as two inches in breadth at the base. These lie flat against the jaws and can be raised by separate muscles at will, so that, as the shark darts upon its prey, they spring on end, as a cat's claws are stuck out from its paws. This arrangement will not allow anything once bolted to return, so that a shark's mouth is a veritable death trap.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

Without Regard to Expense.

"Build me a temple," he commands, "so costly that no smoker will ever be told he might have owned it had he let tobacco alone!"

Ah, this was aiming high indeed! But when was true art ever known to falter?—Detroit Journal.

Honest Confession.

"Young man," said the careful father, "if I consent to you marrying my daughter will you furnish her the luxuries to which she is accustomed?"

"Well," said the young man, "it is more than likely that I won't be buying her as many theater admissions as I have been doing for the past year."—Indianapolis Press.

A Remarkable Building.

The tabernacle at Salt Lake City is, in respect to its acoustic properties, the most remarkable place of worship in the world. It is constructed to hold 25,000 people, yet it is possible for a person standing at one end to distinctly hear the sound of a pin dropped into a hat at the other, a test of its curious power to convey sound which is offered to every stranger who is shown over the building.

A Perfect Gentleman.

"So you proposed to Miss De Vere?" exclaimed Miss Cayenne.

"Yes," answered Willie Washington, "yesterday evening."

"What did she say?"

"I don't remember. I heard her tell a friend she was going to see how many proposals she could get this season, and I thought it would only be polite of me to help out."—Washington Star.

Williams Probably Murdered.

COLUMBUS, April 10.—On March 3, W. T. Williams, a retired merchant of this city, disappeared. His body, badly decomposed, has been found in the canal. There were three deep cuts on the top of the head, and, though there was no evidence of robbery, the police believe that the man was murdered.

It was probably the result of a neglected cold. Be that as it may, I suffered with the attacks. I was recommended to try Doan's Kidney Pills, and procured a box at the W. & W. pharmacy. Next November the question will be what did they do to Dewey?

Mayor Bough is a good collector,

With Marshall in the chair Penn-

harmoniously. Wonder how long they will keep it up?

The excellence of the East Liverpool

It is remarkable how many people in the city look like George Heclathorne now that he is wanted by the police.

It is hoped that Mayor Davidson's police force will fit the brass buttons
and gold braid ordered by the police
committee.

Alf. Austin, the English laureate, ought to get off something good on
that Dublin visit. "Queen" and
"green" are easy.

George changed his mind on the presidency and Mrs. Dewey changed
her's on religion, and both changed their residence. Changeable family.

City Marshal T. V. Thompson performed the first duties of his office
last night by putting the reporters
downstairs when the council wanted
to caucus. Thompson is all right and performed his first duty in an able manner.

Council did the proper thing last night when they decided to raise the salary of Clerk Hanley. There is not
a more efficient or accommodating person in the employ of the city, and

the salary of $50 was altogether too
small for the amount of work he does.

Rhode Island's state election will be

Trying to Find His Money.
Alliance Star.
Judge Firestone, of Lisbon, is the owner of a considerable frontage on Main street, Alliance. When the street was paved, nearly two years ago, he was charged with his due portion of the cost, and a snug sum it
was. Not long ago the amiable judge was in Alliance looking after his business interests. From his property he essayed to cross Main street, which
was covered with liquefied earth to a depth of five or six inches. With evident misgivings as to the outcome, he plunged from the curbstone and started upon his voyage. He had not gone half a dozen steps when the adhesive
force of the mud pulled off one of his overshoes. While the judge was wabbling about trying to balance himself
on one foot and steer the other into
the submerged rubber, a friend accosted him and inquired what he was doing.

"I've got $450 dollars planted here somewhere," he answered, "and I'm trying to find it."

Don't Know When They're Licked.
Steubenville Gazette.

The Y. M. C. I. suffered defeat at the hands of the East Liverpool boys Saturday night, going up against an entirely different team from that
which played here several weeks ago,
some of the East Liverpool players
being of immense build, and as a result little basket ball was played, the
contest developing into a foot ball game. The home boys were handicapped by the field, which was not one-half the size of Garrett's hall and entirely too small for basket ball, so
their defeat by a score of 19 to 9 is
no reflection on their playing ability.
The boys are anxious for a third contest on neutral grounds and will concede anything to get a game.

MAYOR BOUGH'S BUSIEST DAY

Money Came on Foot, In Trolley Cars and Even Over the Telephone Yesterday.

OLD FINES BEING PAID IN

His Honor Says It Was Without Doubt the Busiest Day Ever Seen at City Hall.

IS AT WORK ON HIS REPORTS.

Mayor Bough was the busiest man
in the city yesterday and he took
money in at a rapid rate, some people even trying to pay it to him over the telephone.

The offenders, who had old fines
standing against them, were all notified to call before the mayor retired
from office, and all of yesterday there
was a constant stream of people to the office to see him and find out what they owed to make them square with
the city. Last night the court room
was filled with people, eager to pay up
in order to save themselves a trip to the works.

Today the mayor is busy making out
his annual and monthly reports, and
stated that he was too busy to foot up
how much he took in yesterday and
how many people called on him, but he thought it was the largest day's business the office ever had.

The only occupant of the city jail is Dallas Smith, who was arrested for
not paying an old fine. It is expected he will get the cash before this evening.

MEXICAN POTTERY.

A Man Who Knows About It Says
Something on the Subject.

Captain C. W. Riggs, who has spent many years in Mexico, and who has a varied knowledge of that country's pottery, throws some light on the prevailing difficulty in securing good specimens of Mexican ware. There is really not a single pottery in Mexico
that is worthy the name. Whatever is produced there in the way of pottery is more of a haphazard product
than the result of an established manufactory. It is a harder matter to get pottery from Mexico than from any place in the world. It is not packed properly, and when the custom officers examine the packages they exercise no care whatever, with the result that nine pieces out of ten that reach this country are broken. Dealers in this country who desire to come in contact with some Mexican pottery
should write to the United States consul at Guadalajara, Old Mexico, and
he will place him in communication
with some pottery in that section,
but it is safe to say that one order
will suffice to prove the impracticability of handling this ware.—Green Book.

THE BISHOP AND DIPLOMAT.

Illustration of a Diplomatic Attitude
Toward Religion.

In the "Life of Archbishop Benson"
by his sons occurs the entertaining
and extremely suggestive passage:

I shall never forget a conversation between the ambassador of a foreign power and my father. The former was dining at Lambeth, a genial, intelligent man, very solicitous to be thoroughly in touch with the social life of the country to which he had been accredited. After dinner the embassador, in full diplomatic uniform, with a ribbon and stars, sitting next to my father, said politely:

"Does your grace reside much in the country?"

My father said that as archbishop he was provided with a country house and
that he was there as much as possible,
as he preferred the country to the
town.

"Now, does your grace go to church in the country?" with an air of genial
inquiry, turning round in his chair.

"Yes, indeed," said my father. "We have a beautiful church almost in the park, which the village people all go
to."

"Yes," said the ambassador meditatively, "yes, I always go to church myself in the country. It is a good thing to show sympathy with religious feeling; it is the one thing which combats socialistic ideas. I think you are very wise, your grace, to go."

My father said that he felt as if he
and the ambassador were the two augurs as represented in Punch.

"I did my best," said my father, "to persuade him that I was a Christian.
but he listened to all that I said with a charming expression, implying, 'We
are men of the world and understand
each other.' I am sure that he thought that I was speaking diplomatically and
in purely conventional language, and
that if we had known each other better
I should have thrown off the mask and advised myself as free a thinker as he."

BATTLE COURAGE.

In Action the Animal Nature Takes
Full Possession of Man.

At home, in a progressive community, a man may be a coal heaver or a bank clerk; but, whatever his station,
the environment of civilizing influence
is strong upon him, and most of his chances for the display of courage
come to the moral side of his nature.
But out in the open, with most of the
trammels cast off and the enemy in
front, with the ripple of the colors
about him and, more than all, the feeling that comes from companionship in
a common danger with many of his
fellows, it is the animal that gains supremacy. And man, being by nature a brave and fearless animal—the most fearless of all the animal species—simply remains true to his birthright and goes through the ordeal in the natural way.

What can be the deduction? There is only one. It is that battle gallantry and battle brutality, springing as they both do from the same source, must necessarily be allied. You cannot slip
the leash of a bloodhound and stop him
half way to his scent. If any proof were needed to make the fact of inherent bravery and—the other thing—
certain it is to be found in the marvelous change in face, manner and even speech that comes over nearly every
man when he is engaged in battle.

It may be urged that the excitement
of being under fire would be sufficient reason for this callousness, but such an explanation will not account for the entire subversion of a man's whole life
training. The real reason is that at such times it is the animal nature that takes full and complete possession of the human body.—Chicago Times-Herald.

His First Earnings.

A few years ago a large party, headed by the Duke of Norfolk, went on a tour through the continent. The duke busied himself very much on the journey in a kind hearted way about the welfare of every one in the party. At every station he used to get out and go round to see if he could do anything for any one. One old woman, who did not know him, when she arrived at last
in Rome, tired and hot, found great difficulty in getting a porter. So she seized on the duke.

"Now, my good man," she said, "I've noticed you at all these stations loafing about. Just make yourself useful for once in your life. Take my bag and
find me a cab."

The duke mildly did as he was bid and was rewarded with a shilling.

The Public and Opera.

There is a general opinion that the stockholders support the opera, and
that the general public may consider itself highly privileged to be admitted
at all to the sacred precincts. As a matter of fact, if the opera depended
for its existence upon the support of the stockholders, the doors of the Metropolitan Opera House would never be open. The bottom would drop out of the whole enterprise. The parquet
and the galleries are the manager's chief reliance. Opera is not a social function; it is a public institution, and
without the public's support would collapse like a house of cards.—Ainslee's Magazine.

Seeing and Knowing.

An eminent lord chief justice who
was trying a right of way case had before him a witness, an old farmer, who
was proceeding to tell the jury that he had "known the path for 60 year, and my feyther towld I as he heard my grandfeythor say!"

"Stop!" cried the judge. "We can't have any hearsay evidence here."

"No!" exclaimed Farmer Giles.
"Then how dost know who thy feyther was, 'cep' by hearsay?"

After the laughter had subsided the judge said, "In courts of law we can only be guided by what you have seen with your eyes and nothing more nor less."

"Oh, that be blowed for a tale!" replied the farmer. "I ha' got a pile on
the back of my neck, and I never seed
'un, but I be prepared to swear he's
there, dang 'un!"

This second triumph on the part of the witness set in a torrent of hearsay evidence about the footpath, which obtained weight with the jury, albeit the
judge told them it was not testimony of any value, and the farmer's party
won.

Grandfather's Hymns.

The Contributors' Club in The Atlantic gives some information concerning "grandfather's" hymns: "Imagine
them and their good wives gathered in the New England meeting house, trol-
ling forth such 'spiritual songs' as the
book preserves for us:

"Then, blooming friends, a long farewell;
We're bound to heaven, but you to hell.
Still God may hear us while we pray
And change you ere the burning day.

"And, be it observed, this 'burning
day' to them was something as definite as washing day. This was none of your vague purgatorial way stations,
but as fiery a pit of torment as the imagination can well conceive. Here
is a glimpse of it:

"Hark, the shrill outcries of the guilty wretches!
Lively bright horror and amazing anguish Stare through their eyelids, while the living worm lies Gnawing within them."

DOCTOR BILLS TURNED DOWN

Claims Committee Didn't Pay
Claims For Attending
Prisoners.

TIME TO CALL A HALT

The Bills Were Referred to the Township Trustees.

CLAIM AGAINST CITY EMPLOYEE.

Claims committee of council met last evening with McHenry and Smith
present.

A bill from Dr. L. O. Williams for $25.50 for attending prisoners, and one from Dr. W. W. Hamilton for $2 for the same kind of service caused some discussion. Somebody remarked that the committee had started trouble by paying physicians for attending prisoners, and McHenry thought a stop
should be put to it at once. Smith thought it should be set down on at the start, and McHenry said he didn't believe in doctoring a lot of people who could get along without it, but
in cases of necessity it was all right.
They finally wound up the discussion
by referring the bill to the township trustees. Williams' bill covered a period from April 6, 1899.

W. E. Wells presented a bill for $10.61 against a city employee, but
council took no action on the matter,
as this was a new thing to them.
There is an ordinance which requires
city employees to pay their debts, but
this is the first time anybody ever took advantage of the ordinance. The committee didn't pay the bill and
somebody remarked that if they waited to pay bills of that kind it would keep them busy.

Irwin Allison presented a bill for $1.50 for setting up the election booth
in the East End fire station, but the bill was referred to council for payment. The following bills were then ordered paid:

Ceramic City Light company,
$609.58; George Mounts, $5; Wilson

SENATOR CLARK IS UNSEATED

The United States Senate Committee Unanimously Decides
to Turn Down the

MILLIONAIRE FROM MONTANA

Copper King Daly's Big Fight Against His Rival Proves
Successful at Last.

STORY OF A FAMOUS CASE.

Washington, D. C., April 10.—(Special.)—The senate committee, which has been investigating the charges brought against Senator William A.
Clark, of Montana, of having bought
his seat, reported today unanimously
in favor of unseating him.

The investigation was made under
a resolution adopted in the senate December 7, that the committee on privileges and elections be directed to investigate the right of William A.
Clark to a seat as senator from the state of Montana. The basis of the case was a petition presented December 4, when the senate convened. It prayed that at the earliest practicable moment the senate committee should inquire into the charges made that Clark had influenced and corrupted
members of the Montana legislature
to vote for him. The petition was signed by Robert B. Smith, governor of Montana; T. E. Collins, state treasurer; Henry C. Stiff, speaker of the house of representatives; Thos. W.
Poindexter, state auditor; A. J.
Campbell, member of congress, and Charles S. Hartman, ex-member of congress from Montana.

During the hearing of the case many sensational accusations were made. It also developed that the fight was a result of a fight previously made by Clark to wrest the control of Montana
politics from Daly, the copper king.
He succeeded in doing so, but gave Daly an opportunity to carry the fight to the United States senate, with the result stated. Clark is a multi-millionaire copper king, and the testimony showed that thousands of dollars
changed hands during his race for the senate.

Clark is a Democrat; his term would have lasted until 1905. He is a lawyer by profession and was born in Pennsylvania in 1847. The other senator from Montana is Thomas H.
Carter, ex-national Republican chairman, whose term expires next year.

Shattered Diamonds.

"Under certain conditions, which are very rare and remarkable," said an old jeweler, "a diamond may be shattered
to atoms by a smart, sudden blow. The stone seems to disintegrate and fly
apart, as nearly as I can express it,
and when the Kimberley gems first came into the market the Brazilian brokers claimed that they were especially subject to that kind of accident.
For the time being the story had its effect on trade, but it was proved to be untrue, and the incident is now forgot-
ten. In the course of an experience of nearly 40 years I have known of only two cases of diamonds being broken.

"One occurred many years ago, when
I was working in a shop in the old
Reid House in Chattanooga. A lady customer dropped a cluster brooch
from the counter to the tiled floor, a distance of about 3½ feet. It struck squarely on the center stone, which
was broken into a number of small, irregular fragments. The diamond had weighed about two carats.

"The other instance took place here
in New Orleans about six years ago.
A St. Louis traveling man named
Crawford had a solitaire weighing 1½ carats set in a ring. He was standing in the store and while conversing about something made a sudden gesture and
struck the stone against a metal fix-ture. It was split into small, jagged splinters, a number of which we found on top of the showcase. The drummer himself was the most astonished man
I ever saw. He had supposed diamonds were indestructible simply because they were hard."—New Orleans Times-Democrat.

Why He Was Arrested.

"There is such a thing as being altogether too clever."

"You think so?"

"I know it. I was walking along the street yesterday when I noticed a $5
note lying on the pavement. I stooped to pick it up, but it looked like a counterfeit, so I passed on."

"And the note turned out to be a good one, of course?"

"No, it did not, but I was arrested
before I had gone ten steps farther."

"Arrested? What for?"

"For passing counterfeit money."

FUNSTON IN A MESS.

Kansas General May Be Court-martialed.

HUNG NATIVES WITHOUT TRIAL.

Belonged to Band Which Was Intending to Kill Captured Maccabean Scouts, Which Was Dispersed—Strong Feeling That Panay Should Be Punished.

MANILA, April 10.—An interesting topic of conversation in army circles is the investigation of Brigadier General Frederick Funston's execution of two Filipinos and the possibility of a court-martial resulting therefrom. The story is that the Filipinos captured three Maccabean scouts who were crossing the country near San Isidro and were preparing to kill them when one of the Maccabees escaped and found General Funston with a scouting party near. This man guided the Americans to the rescue of his companions, and when the troops approached the Filipinos fled, leaving the Maccabees. Several of the Filipinos were shot and General Funston captured two of them, took them to the village square and hung them without trial, as a warning to the Filipinos. The present method of warfare and instances of the mutilation of prisoners have incensed the American soldiers to such a degree that they feel justified in making reprisals, which has been done on several occasions recently.

There is a strong feeling among the residents and friendly Filipinos that the Chinese general, Panay, who, as announced March 31, surrendered to Brigadier General Kobbe, after terrorizing the province of Panay, should be severely punished. It is pointed out that his career has been more that of a brigand than of a soldier, as he looted and extorted money by torture from wealthy natives and burned alive some of his followers who intended to desert him. It is believed Panay surrendered because he feared his own men, and that he expected to be paroled, like other officers, and enjoy the fruits of his brigandage.

CHAPLAIN REPORTED IMPROVEMENT.

Army Canteen in Manila Replaces the Gin Shacks of the Natives.

WASHINGTON, April 10.—Chaplain Pierce, in a report to the war department, particularly antagonizes the ex-chaplain of volunteers who made the charge of wholesale intoxication and of the enormous increase in the number of liquor drinking saloons in Manila. The chaplain declares that the figures had been perverted; that the American saloon took the place of an untold number of native gin shacks, which dispensed liquid poison with deplorable effect upon the American troops, and that the substitution of the regimental canteen has resulted in an improvement in the sobriety of the troops.

Chaplain Pierce also speaks in terms of high praise of the reformation of the critical conditions in Manila, its cleansing and sanitation, with the resulting improvement in general health.

WITHOUT FIRING A SHOT.

Fourteen Places Surrendered in the Philippines.

WASHINGTON, April 10.—A report from General Otis contained the following:

MANILA, April 9. General Bates just returned from south, after placing Fortieth infantry at Surigao, Cagayan, Iligan, Isamis Dapitan, Northern Mindanao, and attending to special matters entrusted to him department Mindanao and Jolo. attended by two naval vessels and two gunboats. Troops occupied points without resistance. Two hundred and forty-one rifles, 97 pieces of artillery surrendered. Eleven places in Mindanao and three in Jolo archipelago now occupied by troops, without the firing of a shot. Affairs in that section quite satisfactory. (Signed) OTIS.

PLEA OF LADY CURZON.

Supplies Needed to Feed Starving Natives of India.

CHICAGO, April 10.—Chicago's India famine committee has decided to open its offices again for the receipt of funds. Miss Mary Leiter, of Chicago, cabled the committee the following message from Umballa, India, under date of April 8, in response to a message sent to her:

"My husband and I will be rejoiced to receive any help that Chicago may be willing to give toward our terrible Indian famine. The government is relieving nearly 5,000,000 persons and the worst has not yet come. We can guarantee that every dollar subscribed will

QUAY'S FRIENDS FAILED.

Unable to Secure Day for a Vote—Indian Appropriation Bill Passed in Senate.

WASHINGTON, April 10.—After some further discussion, the senate rejected the sectarian school amendment to the Indian appropriation bill, offered by Mr. Jones (Dem., Ark.), by a vote of 30 to 15. As has been the practice for two or three years, the free homes measure was offered as an amendment to the bill, but it was ruled out on the point of order that it was general legislation, and therefore not germane to an appropriation bill. Without division, the bill was passed. The measure carries about $3,414,000.

An unsuccessful effort was made to agree upon a date for a vote on the resolution relative to the seating of Mr. Quay as a senator from Pennsylvania. The effort will be renewed today.

During the last two hours of the session the Alaskan civil code bill was under consideration. An amendment offered by Mr. Hansbrough concerning the title to mining claims in the Cape Nome district provoked a warm debate.

SULZER'S PROTEST A FAILURE.

Business Man Testified in Idaho Strike Investigation.

WASHINGTON, April 10.—When the Conner d'Alene investigation was resumed Representative Sulzer made an emphatic protest to what he characterized a "snap judgment" by the majority of the investigating committee. At the last session the record of the "hall pen," giving the names of those imprisoned, was ordered printed. The record as printed showed that a newspaper clipping, pasted in the book, also had been printed, giving a list of ringleaders in the miners' agitation and some 400 who had been indicted. Mr. Sulzer's motion to strike out this matter was lost by a tie vote.

Henry E. Howes, a business man in the Conner d'Alene, not identified with either faction, was objected to on the ground that he was a bitter opponent of miners' unions. The witness testified that he knew that members of the miners' union were present when the mill was blown up.

DECLARED BOSSISM.

HURT THE CHURCH.

Speakers in Chicago Presbytery Attack Methods of the General Assembly.

CHICAGO, April 10.—Charges that the Presbyterian general assembly was dominated by a system of bossism and one-man power worse than any political machine, and that that great religious body was afflicted with packed committees, were made at an adjourned meeting of the Chicago presbytery.

The question came up during consideration of an overture received from the Peoria presbytery recommending that the standing committees of the general assembly in the future be elected by the delegates instead of being appointed by the moderator, and after an animated discussion the recommendation that the proposition be endorsed and sent to the general assembly was adopted by a two-thirds vote.

Rev. S. M. Johnson, speaking in favor of the proposition, said that the bossism had nearly ruined the church in certain quarters, and that at the last general assembly the committee appointed to consider the case of Dr. McGiffert was packed.

REV. DR. M'GIFFERT RESIGNS.

No Longer a Clergyman in Presbyterian Church.

NEW YORK, April 10.—The Rev. Arthur C. McGiffert formally withdrew from the Presbyterian church. His resignation was contained in a letter to the presbytery of New York, which met in its regular semi-annual meeting, and Dr. McGiffert's request that his name be dropped from the role of the presbytery was granted. Dr. McGiffert's letter of resignation was in accordance with an announcement made by him to the presbytery three weeks ago.

As far as Dr. McGiffert is concerned that will probably end the incident. Dr. Birch said that as soon as the general assembly had decided upon the legal points raised he will retire from the prosecution. Dr. McGiffert, under a resolution of the presbytery, is no longer a Presbyterian clergyman and his withdrawal has effected all that an adverse decision by the general assembly could effect.

Did Not Play Degenerates.

NEW YORK, April 10.—Mrs. Langtry and her play, "The Degenerates," did not appear in Newark, N. J.

TOWNE IS IN FAVOR.

Would Be Popular Mate For Bryan.

THE GOLD DEMOCRATS LIKE HIM.

Anti-Imperialists of New England Would Also Be Pleased, as Would the Populists—In Addition, He Suits the Nebraska Silver Leader.

MINNEAPOLIS, April 10.—Former Congressman Charles A. Towne, of Duluth, is a candidate for the Democratic nomination for vice president. Judge Caldwell, of the United States circuit court, has declined to permit the use of his name in that connection, and Towne's candidacy is predicated on the judge's

CHARLES A. TOWNE.

declination. The demand for Towne's nomination is said to come from the gold Democrats and Republican anti-imperialists of New England. It is asserted that Bryan would be glad to have Towne for a running mate.

Senator Pettigrew is another supporter. His program is to have the national Populist convention at Sioux Falls, S. D., May 9, adjourn without nominating, leaving the matter to a committee, which would later on endorse the Democratic ticket named at Kansas City. If this proves impossible, he will push for the nomination of Bryan and Towne at Sioux Falls.

RIPE FOR A LYNCHING.

Belmont County (O.) People Enraged Over the Brutal Murder of Young Warrick.

WHEELING, April 10.—Over in Belmont county, O., in the vicinity of Somerton, where 16-year-old Clarence Warrick was murdered early Sunday morning, the entire countryside is aroused, and if the guilty persons are captured they will certainly be lynched, unless spirited away. The Carter brothers, alleged stock thieves, in custody at Barnesville, on account of whose approaching trial, it is now asserted, young Warrick was killed, because "he knew too much," were taken to St. Clairsville, the county seat, by Sheriff Foreman, in order to save their necks.

The Barnesville police now have a promising clue and hope to run down the murderers today. They will not be taken to Barnesville, if captured, owing to the high feeling there.

OVER 50 LIVES LOST.

Great Damage Done by Floods in Texas. Colorado River Is Still Rising.

DALLAS, April 10.—News from the Southern and Southwestern Texas flood sections shows that more than 50 lives have been lost, including those at Austin, due to the breaking of a dam. Reports from La Grange indicate that the Colorado is still rising and menacing more country districts. The stream is now four feet higher than during the great flood of last year.

Eastrop is entirely surrounded by water. The property damage is enormous.

Railroad traffic in the southern half of Texas has been practically abandoned.

Richard Mansfield Ill.

CLEVELAND, April 10.—Richard Mansfield, the actor, who was to have opened an engagement at the Euclid avenue opera house here, is confined to his room at the Hollenden hotel, suffering from acute laryngitis. Mr. Mansfield hopes to be able to play by tomorrow night, but his physician says it may be a week before he can leave his room.

Suicided to Escape Investigation. OAKLAND, Cal., April 10.—Banker N.

H. Pitcher blew his brains out here. He was a trustee of the estate of the late Thomas Marney, deceased, valued at $600,000. Pitcher was to have produced his books in court, and was to testify as to how he handled the bank and the trust.

NEW YORK, April 10.—The stock market Monday made the expected response to Saturday's unfavorable bank statement by a general drawing in of speculative ventures.

The acute depression manifested by Sugar had an additional influence in depressing the market. This mercurial industrial gave evidence during the latter part of the day of being oversold and, after having fallen nearly 8 points, recovered more than half of the decline. The room traders, who had sold the list on the strength of the weakness in Sugar, were driven to cover by this rally and the aggressive strength developed at a few other points. As a consequence, the closing was active and firm at a level considerably above the low point of the day, but showing net declines for the majority of stocks.

People's gas, the tobacco stocks and a number of the iron and steel stocks fell away easily from 1 to 3 points. The strength manifested by the New York traction served as an offset to this; the railroad list maintained a condition resembling suspended animation. Large inroads upon the Pacific stocks, Pennsylvania and the grangers turned the tide toward depression, until aggressive strength developed in Missouri Pacific. This stock moved up to 54½ in the late transactions on heavy buying, and Brooklyn Transit rose buoyantly to 79½, with a stimulating effect on the general list.

Although the stock market weakened on the banks' showing, the money market failed to show any effect of the decrease in resources of the banks.

Business in bonds was of moderate volume and prices were well held. Total sales, par value, $2,455,000.

United States old 4s and 5s declined ¼ in the bid price.

Chicago Wheat, Corn and Provisions.

CHICAGO, April 10.—The wheat market showed both strength and activity Monday, influenced by the reduced world's shipments and some unfavorable crop reports. May closing ½¢ over Saturday. Corn yielded to the profit taking pressure, May closing ½¢ down. Provisions, helped by higher hogs, closed strong, 10¢ to 17¢ improved. May oats, at the close, were ¼¢ depressed.

Not Known Who Killed Moseley.

MIDDLESBORO, Ky., April 10.—The only participants in the riotous collision between the police and deputy sheriffs who were arraigned were Chief of Police King and his deputies. The trial was set for Wednesday. Excitement has subsided. It is not yet ascertained who killed Deputy Policeman Moseley.

Agricultural Bill Considered.

WASHINGTON, April 10.—The agricultural appropriation bill was under consideration and was made the vehicle of considerable desultory debate on irrelevant political topics. Good progress was made with the bill after the close of general debate, 25 of the 37 pages being covered before adjournment.

KANSAS CITY PEOPLE HUSTLING.

Plans For Building Democratic Convention Hall Are Completed.

KANSAS CITY, April 10.—Plans for erecting the new convention hall have practically been completed, and the work of removing the debris from the site is proceeding actively. The hall directors have on hand $235,000 available for the new building, which is to cost in the neighborhood of $300,000. Delegations continue to sign contracts for quarters at the different hotels.

New Incident in Kentucky Dispute.

BARBOURVILLE, Ky., April 10.—Circuit court began, but it is doubtful who will act as judge, John Henry Wilson or Judge W. S. Brown. Judge Brown took his seat and a few minutes later Judge Wilson appeared with a certificate from the election commissioners and signed by Beckham. Brown refused to evacuate.

Declines to Discuss Pattison Rumor.

CHICAGO, April 10.—J. G. Johnson, chairman of the Democratic national executive committee, declines absolutely to discuss the rumors relating to the probability of Robert E. Pattison becoming Bryan's running mate.

Minister's Wife Burned to Death.

BOY TO SEE KRUGER.

District Messenger Starts From Philadelphia.

SENT BY THE SCHOOL CHILDREN.

Twenty-Three Thousand Sign a Message of sympathy to the Boer President—A Big Mass Meeting Held in the Quaker City—Webster Davis Present.

PHILADELPHIA, April 10.—One of the greatest demonstrations of sympathy, both in the number of the participants and the display of enthusiasm, ever shown in this city for any foreign nation took place, when the Academy of Music was jammed with people for the purpose of taking part in the Philadelphia school boys' pro-Boer rally. The object of the gathering was to send a message of greeting to President Kruger signed by 22,000 pupils of the schools of this city. Many thousands were unable to get near the doors.

Judge William N. Ashman, of the orphan's court of this city, presided, and those who addressed the meeting were Hon. Webster Davis, Hon. Bourke Cochran, of New York; ex-District Attorney George S. Graham, of this city; Hon. Luther Wessels, of Bloemfontein, Orange Free State, and Thomas J. Meek, a pupil of the high school of this city. Edwin Markham, the poet, recited an original ode to Lincoln for the first time.

After the speech making James F. Smith, a 16-year-old messenger of the American District Telegraph company, was called to the stage by means of the regulation call box and was given the message signed by the school boys, with instructions to proceed to Pretoria and hand it personally to President Kruger. The messenger, accompanied by a committee of three high school boys, left for New York, and they will be tendered a reception at the Waldorf-Astoria hotel by the students of the public schools of Greater New York today.

Tomorrow the messenger will sail on the St. Louis, and before the vessel reaches Southampton he will be taken off by a French tender and landed at Havre, France, in order to avoid English territory. The message to Kruger is as follows:

"We, the undersigned students of the public schools of Philadelphia, the city where our forefathers enlisted in their splendid and successful struggle against English oppression, desire to express to you and to the fighting men of the South African republic their great admiration for the genius and courage that has checked English invasion of the Transvaal; and the undersigned extend their most earnest wishes that in the end the South African republic will triumph over England in a war in which the Boer cause is noble, the English cause unjust."

Delegations of schoolboys from New York and Boston attended the meeting.

A LEGISLATOR DEAD.

Both Houses at Columbus Adjourned Out of Respect to Clement's Memory.

COLUMBUS, April 10.—Edwin A. Clement, representative from Medina county, died at his temporary residence in this city, after a few days' illness, of pneumonia. He was 32 years old.

Both branches of the legislature adjourned until today as a mark of respect to the deceased.

MRS. DEWEY QUILTS CATHOLICISM.

Friends Admit She Has Become an Episcopalian.

WASHINGTON, April 10.—Mrs. George Dewey's change of faith from Catholicism to Episcopalianism, although not admitted by the admiral or herself, has been verified among her intimate friends, many of whom attend St. John's Episcopal church.

For Pension Court of Appeals.

WASHINGTON, April 10.—The committee of the Grand Army of the Republic, consisting of Commander-in-Chief D. A. Shaw and General Daniel Sickles, which is endeavoring to secure legislation looking to the creation of a court of pension appeals, has submitted the proposed measure to some of the most eminent jurists of the country, and it has been endorsed by them. The committee also has conferred with the president on the subject.

Must Not Waste Gas.

WASHINGTON, April 10.—Justice White, in the supreme court, handed down the opinion of the court in the case of the Ohio Oil company vs the state of Indiana. The case involved the validity of the state law prohibiting persons from boring wells to permit the gas to escape into the atmosphere as opposed to the general interests of the community. The law is upheld.

A GIANT COMBINE.

Rumored That Carnegies and Cramps Are Negotiating For an Alliance.

NEW YORK, April 10.—The World has a story that negotiations are in progress for a combination of the gigantic Carnegie company and the Cramp ship building concern.

If the conference now going on in Atlantic City results in a satisfactory arrangement the coalition between these two great interests will soon be announced.

SABBATH TO BE VIOLATED.

French Authorities Decide Exhibits Must Be Shown on Sunday.

PARIS, April 10.—The French authorities have decided that all exhibits at the exposition are to be open to the public on Sundays and the United States exhibits are, naturally, within this regulation. These exhibits are under cover in buildings erected by the French government, over which the United States authorities have no control and therefore they must abide by the rules established.

The United States pavilion is not within this category, and the question of its being opened or closed on Sunday the French officials have left entirely to Commissioner Peck's desire. He probably will announce today his final decision in the matter.

A WINTER CAMPAIGN FOR THE BRITISH.

Roberts Waiting For Regiments and Heavy Clothing—Boers' Trick Failed at Mafeking.

LONDON, April 10.—Britons are now beginning, though reluctantly, to realize that Lord Roberts is in for a winter campaign, lasting several months. This is the end, in a few words, of the high hopes based upon Lord Roberts' brilliant dash to Kimberley and Bloemfontein.

Preparations are being made to hold Bloemfontein against surprises. Lord Kitchener has been given an important duty, being responsible for the protection of the railway, while Lord Roberts is waiting for remounts and winter clothing for the troops, whose thin cotton khaki uniforms and boots are worn out.

General Brabant and General Gatacre are both at a standstill. Lord Roberts will probably for some time confine his operations to clearing the Free State behind him of raiders and to relieve Mafeking, for which purpose, apparently, the Eighth division, now arriving at Cape Town, has been ordered to Kimberley.

Lady Sarah Wilson and other Mafeking correspondents send diaries of the doings there, showing that the Boers have tried, by abandoning their trenches, to lure the besieged into a mined ambush. Fortunately, the British engineers discovered the mine and the wire communication and unearthed 250 pounds of dynamite and war gelatine.

Mr. Steyn's address to the Free State raad, at Kroonstad, is confirmed. The Fischer-Wolmarans deputation has full power to negotiate for peace, subject to the raad's sanction.

Lady Roberts will remain at Cape Town.

A PECULIAR TREASON TRIAL.

Prisoners Accused of Trying to Hold Over Official as Hostage.

LONDON, April 10.—The correspondent of The Times at Lourenço Marques gives details of a peculiar treason trial which has been proceeding at Johannesburg. Three men were charged with decoying State Engineer Hunnik to a house at the city and suburban mine, with the intention of holding him as a hostage against a destruction of the mining property.

They were also charged with attempting to murder him and with forcing him, under threats, to hand over £200.

May Mean Intervention.

VIENNA, April 10.—The czar and czarina will shortly visit Moscow for a fortnight. The Neue Freie Press, says that only important politics would induce such a lengthy visit. It is reported the czar goes to Moscow to initiate a movement of the powers for intervention in the Anglo-Boer war.

Cape Minister's Brother Arrested.

CAPE TOWN, April 10.—William Sauer, a brother of the Cape minister of railroads, has been arrested near Barkly East, Cape Colony, on the charge of being a rebel.

St. Helena Prepared For Boers.

LONDON, April 10.—The Daily Mail publishes advice from St. Helena, under date of Saturday, to the effect that the preparations for the reception of the Boer prisoners from South Africa are completed. Three acres of Deadwood plain have been fenced with barbed wire, and the enclosure is surrounded by tents for the guards. Longwood, where Napoleon was confined, has been made ready for Colonel Bathurst, who will command the British troops. The Deadwood water supply has been increased. The inhabitants are pleased with the idea of having the prisoners confined on the island, believing that their presence will give an impetus to trade.

Parallel of Napoleon's Day.

LONDON, April 10.—It is remarked as a peculiar coincidence that the Earl of Bathurst, who has been appointed to guard General Cronje at St. Helena, is a great-grandson of Lord Bathurst, under whose direction Napoleon Bonaparte was deported to St. Helena, and who remained in office as minister of war of the colonies throughout the term of Napoleon's exile.

Denied by State Department.

WASHINGTON, April 10.—The state department authorizes a denial of the published statement that it has practically completed an arrangement for the acquisition of a considerable strip of territory along the route of the proposed Nicaragua canal.

Old to Have Stolen.

MARSHALL, Mich., April 10.—A. O. Hyde, ex-superintendent of the poor of this county, was bound over for trial. His total alleged stealings amounted to $16,000. He paid back $4,000. He is 84 years of age and had held the office 30 years.

Say' Business Men

LOOK HERE!

Why shouldn't we use exclamation points? We mean business for business men. Business men know that Pennies Make Dollars.

We will save you the pennies, and you can put away the dollars for a time of emergency.

HOW?

Listen! Pay attention! Read! Ponder! Act prudently and economically.

The News Review Job Office can and will turn you out

Letter Heads,
Bill Heads,
Posters,
Envelopes,
Color Work,
Book Work,

Note Heads,
Circulars,

OUR NEW ROUNDSMEN.

Tis said we have men as policemen
Who are formed of the pure, virgin
gold,
Who will face the toughest of ruffians
And take them in out of the cold;
Who will do their sworn duty as
roundsmen.
In a manner quite gallant and
shrewd,
And have nothing but hearty contempt, sir, for a tough, a loafer
or dude.

PEGEE COOLEY.

The dance given by the Turners
last evening was well attended.

The marks at the wharf this morning registered 9.6 feet and rising.

John Scott, a roller at the freight depot, is off duty on account of illness.

The remains of Mrs. Roxy Ann Taylor can be viewed this evening from 7 to 9 o'clock.

This morning 40 baskets of ware
were sent to Allegheny on the early accommodation.

The side wheel packet, City of Pittsburg, passed up last evening and
will be down tonight.

Edward Nicholson, a prominent brick contractor of Steubenville, was in the city yesterday on business.

George Morton, who has been spending several weeks in Salem visiting his son, returned home yesterday.

The household effects of a family named Livingstone were received at the freight depot this morning from Akron.

J. J. Dowling, of Wellsville, last evening entertained a number of his friends. Several people from this city were present.

Within the next few weeks parties
from Pittsburg will begin to drill for oil on an extensive scale in the vicinity of Ohioville.

Prof. L. H. Harper, for a year musical instructor at the public schools in this city, spent last evening here visiting friends.

Deputy Factory Inspector Reuben
M. Hull, of Salineville, spent last evening in the city and this morning left for Steubenville.

Charles W. Harrison, of Trenton, a well known color salesman, arrived in the city this morning. He will remain here for several weeks.

Paul Shaw, of Cleveland, who has been spending a few days here visiting friends, left last evening for an extended trip through Michigan.

J. J. McCormick, general freight agent of the River division of the Cleveland & Pittsburg road, was in the city yesterday afternoon on business.

There are many towboats going up with empty barges, and there is an excellent coal boat stage. The Queen City was up today, and the Kanawha is due south this evening.

The regular monthly meeting of the Eastern Ohio Medical association was held in Steubenville today. Dr. Lemmon, of Calcutta, was in attendance.
The association may hold its next meeting in this city.

BIGGER THAN BOBBY

PEOPLE WHO, UNDER ENGLISH LAW,
MA. LAUGH AT THE POLICE.

The Various Classes of Persons in Great Britain Who Cannot Be Arrested—Royalty, as a Matter of Course, is First on the List.

The other day at the Westminster (England) county court a warrant for
the arrest and committal of a solicitor
had to be extended for four months
more, as, though the solicitor was walking about the streets in the sight of the police, they dared not lay a finger on him. Even the judge seemed surprised that the man could not be arrested. But it is probable he never will be arrested, for, as he carries a
charm on his person in the form of a brief, his body cannot be seized. This is because no one engaged on business
at a law court can be arrested for any breach of the civil law. If you happen to owe a debt, to have a judgment delivered against you and to be committed to prison for not paying, of course
you can be arrested under ordinary circumstances, but if you are subpoenaed as a witness you cannot be arrested while going to the place,
while staying there to give evidence
or while returning home, and you may feel sure that the courts will stick up
for you.

There are many other people who can laugh at the police. Of course no member of the royal family can be arrested under any circumstances. Servants of the royal household also have great privileges in this way. Should one of the royal servants commit a crime at the command of the crown he could not be arrested. As the crown can do no wrong, of course any order the crown should give would be considered right, and Bobby would not
dare to make an arrest.

Then members of parliament, though
they can be arrested for some things,
are exempt in certain cases where ordinary citizens would certainly be run
in. If a member of the house of commons commits a crime, he can be arrested like any other citizen, but if it is
a case of contempt of court, such as
not paying debts, he can snap his fingers at the police during the greater part of the year—that is to say, he cannot be arrested while parliament is sitting nor for 40 days before and 40 days after the session. This gives him exemption during about nine-tenths of
the year.

Of course a peer enjoys the same
good fortune, and so does a peeress in her own right. But in their case the privilege is still greater, for they cannot be arrested on a civil process at
any time, whether parliament is sitting or not. In fact, if the heir to a peerage happens to be in prison for any offense not criminal, he is liberated the moment he succeeds to the title.

Foreign ambassadors may commit
any offense, from drunkenness up to murder, without running the slightest
risk of seeing the inside of an English
prison. And not only have the embas-sadors themselves this privilege, but
their secretaries, coachmen, cooks,
valets, etc., are equally favored individuals, for the theory is that an em-
bassador is useless without his dinner,
his drives, his shaves and the like.

When an ambassador commits a crime, all that can be done is to ask
his government to recall him. But, of course, if he went about the streets
knocking many people down he would certainly be arrested and held temporarily. But he could not be tried and punished. The foreign ambassador's house, family and servants are looked upon as if they were in their own country. Under no circumstances could a policeman or bailiff break into the house or arrest any of the inhabitants.

Soldiers, while on service, could run
up debts, refuse to pay, and if a judge,
after ordering them to pay, without result, issued a warrant for their arrest
and committal, no policeman dare execute it unless the amount were over $150. Navy men enjoy the same privileges, but no doubt they seldom get
the opportunity of exercising them.

The clergy are another class of men who are sometimes secure against arrest. A clergyman cannot be arrested
when he is celebrating divine service
or conducting the celebration of rites
for the dead; nor can he be touched
when going to or returning from either of these duties. Any one breaking the law in this respect might be punished
with as much as two years' imprisonment with hard labor.

On Sundays we are all privileged.
No one can be arrested on Sunday except for treason, felony or breach of the peace. If any one tries it on with you, you can resist up to the point of killing him.

A curious rule in connection with arrest is not generally known—if a policeman comes along after a fight or an assault, he can make no arrest without a warrant.—London Tit-Bits.

A Little Bit Too Sensitive.

This cold, hard world has few souls
as sensitive as a young man who killed himself in Paris the other day. His home was in Lyons, and his father had given to him 30,000 francs, or $6,- 000, to establish a branch office of their business in Paris. After he had been in Paris for several days his letters
home ceased, and he disappeared from
the little circle of friends that he had made. He had seemed a quiet, steady fellow, and he had chosen his new associates with discretion. When they missed him, they wrote to his father, supposing that he knew where his son
was. The father, however, was ignorant of the young man's whereabouts,
and the police were summoned and a search made of his apartments. On the bed in his room was found his dead body, with a note by his side, which
said:

"I have lost 25,000 francs of the sum that my father intrusted to me, and as I would not have it believed that I have squandered the money I am killing myself." This furnished a clew, but nothing more could be learned for several days. Finally, when searching
the rooms for the young man's property, his pocketbook, with the 25,000
francs, was found in a corner of the bureau drawer, where he had put it
and then forgotten.

Did She Get the Hint?

It was a mean trick, of course, and some day she will doubtless get even
with him.

She saw him take a piece of paper
from his pocket, carefully fold it up,
put it in an envelope and then place
the envelope in one of the far corners of the drawer of the library table.

"What's that?" she asked.
"Oh, nothing of any consequence,"
he replied.

Now, if he had simply thrown it carelessly into the drawer she would have thought nothing of it, but the care he
took to put it clear over in the far corner and the fact that he seemed ill at ease after he found that his action had
been observed aroused her curiosity.
She wondered what it was, and she
reasoned with herself that he had said
it was "nothing of importance," so he would have nobody but himself to blame if she took a look at it. She was justified in inferring from his words
that there was no reason why she should not. And this is what she read scribbled on a piece of paper:

"I'll bet you a new hat your curiosity
will not permit you to let this alone."
It was a terrible predicament in which to place a woman. How could she claim the new hat without giving herself away?—Chicago Post.

Seasickness.

A stewardess, after 15 years' service
on one of the transatlantic liners—and
an opinion on the subject from a person in her position is undoubtedly to
be respected—has this to say about seasickness: "Almost everybody is a little sick, but a great many more persons could be less sick than they are
if they would only be careful for a day or two before they sail. Lots of folks going off to Europe eat big dinners and luncheons for two or three days before they start, and as soon as they get the motion of the waves they have really a bilious attack. Sometimes when the crossing is very rough
and I have been a little careless in my diet I feel the motion myself, but never when I take proper care. At the slightest dizziness or nausea I stop eating anything at all for eight or ten hours, and above all I never touch tea
at that time. It is the overeating usually before they come on board that makes all the trouble."—New York Post.

Makes Brilliant Flames.

People who live on the New England
coast like to use ocean driftwood as fuel in open fireplaces. It is impregnated with copper and ocean salts and
when burned gives out the most brilliant colored flames. It is asserted that a New Bedford dealer has orders
for the wood from all parts of the country, and even from Europe, and
ships hundreds of barrels of it yearly.

Various attempts have been made to imitate this wood by artificial process,
but without success. Long submersion
in the sea water is necessary to produce the brilliant flames.

There's a greater demand made on the strength of the mother when nursing than at any other time. She has just gone through the shock and strain of maternity, her vitality is at its lowest and the food she eats must nourish two lives.

The natural result is that the mother looks
around for a
"tonic," and generally finds her
tonic in the
form of a stimu-
lant, which not only gives the mother no real
strength but is an injury to the child.

It is the concurrent testimony of women who have used Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, that it is the most perfect preparation for motherhood and all its functions which has ever been discovered. It prepares the way for baby's advent, giving
the organs of birth vigor and elasticity. It establishes such a condition of health that nervousness, anxiety and morning sickness
are unknown. With this condition comes
a healthy flow of nourishment for the child,
which enables the mother to gratify the fondest instinct of maternity.

"Two years ago I used two bottles of Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription, and in April a nice baby was born, before the doctor came," writes Mrs. Katie Auliker, of 754 Pat Street, Alliance, Ohio. "I was not very sick. Baby is now 14 months old and weighs 30 pounds. Now I expect another about August, and I am again taking the 'Favorite Prescription' and
feel very well. Several neighbors are using Dr.
Pierce's medicine through my telling them
about it. One lady says, 'before commencing
Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription I had to vomit every day, but after I got the medicine, from the first spoonful that I took, I stopped vomiting.
It has done the same thing for me. It is a God
send for women.'"

No alcohol in any form, is contained in "Favorite Prescription," neither opium nor other narcotics. This cannot truthfully be said of any other medicine especially designed for women and sold
through druggists.

Sick women are invited to consult Dr.
Pierce by letter, free of all charge. Every letter is treated as strictly private and
sacredly confidential, and all replies are
enclosed in plain envelopes, bearing no
printed matter whatever. Address Dr.
R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

Busy Choir Soloists.

Roman Catholic and Episcopal
churches have the credit of providing
the finest and most elaborate music,
but the finest music in New York is heard in the Jewish synagogues. It is chiefly sung, however, by the best singers of the Christian churches, who thrillfully "double up" and draw two salaries, a good arrangement for both temples and churches, albeit the
churches pay double and sometimes treble the salaries paid by the temples.

The salaries of soloists in the larger
American cities range from $800 to $2,500, the latter sum being paid in a single instance. All engagements date from May 1, which is moving time for church singers as well as house mov-
ers. Their church salaries form the basis of the soloists' incomes, but many fees are earned as a result of church work. Weddings and funerals yield quite a number, and private recitals at the home entertainments of millionaire church members are weighted with the golden fruit. There are also whole orchards of concerts
and oratorios for those capable of shaking the trees.—Success.

New York Town Devastated.

OGDENSBURG, N. Y., April 10.—Cardinal, a thriving village near here, was visited by a disastrous fire, which wiped
out the industrial portion of the town.
Among the plants burned were the Ed-
wardsburg starch factory and the electric light company plant of the town.
The loss is estimated at $150,000; insurance, $90,000.

McGiffert's Resignation Accepted.

NEW YORK, April 10.—The resignation of Dr. Arthur McGiffert from the Presbyterian church was accepted by the New York presbytery. The resignation came as a result of charges of heresy preferred by Dr. Birch, stated clerk of the presbytery.

Queen Took a Drive.

DUBLIN, April 10.—Queen Victoria took her usual drive in the vice regal grounds and paid her promised visit to the city, leaving Phoenix park at about 4 o'clock. Large crowds of people witnessed her majesty's departure and the route followed was thronged.

Rev. W. F. Junkin Dead.

NEW YORK, April 10.—Rev. William F. Junkin, of Mount Clair, N. J., a Presbyterian minister, died after a week's illness of pneumonia. He was born in Philadelphia 69 years ago.

Niagara power was used as long ago as 1725, when the French erected a sawmill near the site of the present factory of the Pittsburg Reduction company. It was used for the purpose of supplying sawed lumber for Fort Niagara.
